REVISERS' PREFACE

The Revision of the Authorised Version was undertaken in consequence of a Resolution passed by both houses of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, as has been fully explained in the Preface to the Revised Version of the New Testament, which was first published in May, 1881. When the two Companies were appointed for carrying out this work, the following General Principles, among others, were laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for their guidance :—

'1. To introduce as few alterations as possible into the Text of the Authorised Version consistently with faithfulness.'

'2. To limit, as far as possible, the expression of such alterations to the language of the Authorised and earlier English Versions.'

'4. That the Text to be adopted be that for which the evidence is decidedly preponderating; and that when the Text so adopted differs from that from which the Authorised Version was made, the alteration be indicated in the margin.'

'7. To revise the headings of chapters and pages, paragraphs, italics, and punctuation.'

In order to shew the manner in which the Old Testament Company have endeavoured to carry out their instructions, it will be convenient to treat the subjects mentioned in the foregoing rules in a somewhat different order.

It will be observed that in Rule 4 the word 'Text' is used in a different sense from that in Rule 1, and in the case of the Old Testament denotes the Hebrew or Aramaic original of the several books. In this respect the task of the Revisers has been much simpler than that which the New Testament Company had before them. The Received, or, as it is commonly called, the Massoretic Text of the Old Testament Scriptures has come down to us in manuscripts which are of no very great antiquity, and which all belong to the same family or recension[1]. That other recensions were at one time in existence is probable from the variations in the Ancient Versions, the oldest of which, namely the Greek or Septuagint, was made, at least in part, some two centuries before the Christian era. But as the state of knowledge on the subject is not at present such as to justify any attempt at an entire reconstruction of the text on the authority of the Versions, the Revisers have thought it most prudent to adopt the Massoretic Text as the basis of their work, and to depart from it, as the Authorised Translators had done[1], only in exceptional cases. With regard to the variations in the Massoretic Text itself, the Revisers have endeavoured to translate what appeared to them to be the best reading in the text, and where the alternative reading seemed sufficiently probable or important they have placed it in the margin. In some few instances of extreme difficulty a reading has been adopted on the authority of the Ancient Versions, and the departure from the Massoretic Text recorded in the margin. In other cases, where the versions appeared to supply a very probable though not so necessary a correction of the text, the text has been left and the variation indicated in the margin only.

In endeavouring to carry out as fully as possible the spirit of Rules 1 and 2, the Revisers have borne in mind that it was their duty not to make a new translation, but to revise one already existing, which for more than two centuries and a half had held the position of an English classic. They have therefore departed from it only in cases where they disagreed with the Translators of 1611 as to the meaning or construction of a word or sentence; or where it was necessary for the sake of uniformity to render such parallel passages as were identical in Hebrew by the same English words, so that an English reader might know at once by comparison that a difference in the translation corresponded to a difference in the original; or where the language of the Authorised Version was liable to be misunderstood by reason of its being archaic or obscure; or finally, where the rendering of an earlier English version seemed preferable, or where by an apparently slight change it was possible to bring out more fully the meaning of a passage of which the translation was already substantially accurate.

[1]See, for instance, 2 Sam. xvi. 12; 2 Chr. iii. 1, xxii. 6; Job xxxvii. 7; Ezek. xlvi. 10; Am. v. 26; Hag. i. 2.

It has been thought advisable in regard to the word 'JEHOVAH' to follow the usage of the Authorised Version, and not to insert it uniformly in place of 'LORD' or 'GOD', which when printed in small capitals represent the words substituted by Jewish custom for the ineffable Name according to the vowel points by which it is distinguished. It will be found therefore that in this respect the Authorised Version has been departed from only in a few passages, in which the introduction of a proper name seemed to be required.

Terms of natural history have been changed only where it was certain that the Authorised Version was incorrect, and where there was sufficient evidence for the substituted rendering. In cases of doubt the alternative rendering has been given in the margin; and even where no doubt existed, but where there was no familiar English equivalent for the original word, the Old Version has been allowed to remain[1], and the more accurate term has been placed in the margin.

In some words of very frequent occurrence, the Authorised Version being either inadequate or inconsistent, and sometimes misleading, changes have been introduced with as much uniformity as appeared practicable or desirable. For instance, 'the tabernacle of the congregation' has been everywhere changed to 'the tent of meeting', on account of Exodus xxv. 22, xxix. 42, 43, and also because 'the tabernacle of the congregation' conveys an entirely wrong sense. The words 'tabernacle' and 'tent,' as the renderings of two different Hebrew words, are in the Authorized Version frequently interchanged in such a manner as to lead to confusion; and the Revisers have endeavoured throughout the Pentateuch to preserve a consistent distinction between them. Their practice in regard to the words 'assembly' and 'congregation' has been the same in principle, although they have contented themselves with introducing greater consistency of rendering without aiming at absolute uniformity. In consequence of the changes which have taken place in the English language, the term 'meat offering' has become inappropriate to describe an offering of which flesh was no part; and by the alteration to 'meal offering' a sufficiently accurate representation of the original has been obtained with the least possible change of form.

As regards the use of words, there are only a few cases in which it has been found needful to deviate from the language employed in the Authorised Version. One of these deviations occurs so frequently that it may be well to state briefly why it was adopted. The word 'peoples' was nowhere used by King James's Translators in the Old Testament, and in the New Testament it occurs only twice (Rev. x. 11, xvii. 15.) The effect of this was to leave the rendering of numerous passages inadequate or obscure, or even positively misleading. Thus in one of the best known Psalms (Ps. lxvii.), where the Septuagint has λαοί and the Vulgate populi, the English had 'Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee'; leaving it at least doubtful whether the 'nations' of verse 4, or God's people, Israel, be referred to. And in Isaiah lv. 4, 'Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people', the word 'people' is naturally understood by the English reader to refer to Israel.

Again, the Hebrew word goyim 'nations', which is applied to the nations of Canaan dispossessed by the Hebrews, and then also to the surrounding nations among whom the people of Israel were afterwards dispersed, acquired in later times a moral significance, which is represented in the Authorised Version by the rendering 'heathen' or 'Gentiles'. While recognizing this moral sense of the word, the Revisers have employed it much more sparingly than their predecessors had done.

Similarly, the Hebrew Sheol, which signifies the abode of departed spirits, and corresponds to the Greek Hades, or the under world, is variously rendered in the Authorised Version by 'grave', 'pit' and 'hell'. Of these renderings 'hell', if it could be taken in its original sense as used in the Creeds, would be a fairly adequate equivalent for the Hebrew word; but it is so commonly understood of the place of torment that to employ it frequently would lead to inevitable misunderstanding. The Revisers therefore in the historical narratives have left the rendering 'the grave' or 'the pit' in the text, with a marginal note 'Heb. Sheol' to indicate that it does not signify 'the place of burial'; while in the poetical writings they have put most commonly 'Sheol' in the text and 'the grave' in the margin. In Isaiah xiv. however, where 'hell' is used in more of its original sense and is less liable to be misunderstood, and where any change in so familiar a passage which was not distinctly an improvement would be a decided loss, the Revisers have contented themselves with leaving 'hell' in the text, and have connected it with other passages by putting 'Sheol' in the margin.

In connexion with this it may be mentioned that 'Abaddon', which has hitherto been known to the English reader of the Bible only from the New Testament (Rev. ix. 11), has been introduced in three passages (Job xxvi. 6; Prov. xv. 11, xxvii. 20), where a proper name appears to be required for giving vividness and point.

The Hebrew word Ashêrah, which is uniformly and wrongly rendered 'grove' in the Authorised Version, most probably denotes the wooden symbol of a goddess; and the Revisers therefore have not hesitated to introduce it as a proper name in the singular (Judg. vi. 25, &c.), with the plurals Asherim (Ex. xxxiv. 13, &c.) and Asheroth (Judg. iii. 7, &c.), following the analogy of the Baalim (Judg. iii. 7) and the Ashtaroth (Judg. ii. 13), which are already familiar.

In regard to the language of the Authorised Version, the Revisers have thought it no part of their duty to reduce it to conformity with modern usage, and have therefore left untouched all archaisms, whether of language or construction, which though not in familiar use cause a reader no embarrassment and lead to no misunderstanding. They are aware that in so doing they will disappoint the large English-speaking race on the other side of the Atlantic, and it is a question upon which they are prepared to agree to a friendly difference of opinion. The principle by which they have been guided has been clear and consistent. Where an archaic word or expression was liable to be misunderstood or at least was not perfectly intelligible, they have substituted for it another, in equally good use at the time the Authorised Version was made, and expressing all that the archaism was intended to convey, but more familiar to the modern reader. In such cases the gain was greater than the loss. But in other instances where the word or expression, although obsolete, was not unintelligible, it was thought that the change would involve greater loss than gain, and the old rendering was therefore allowed to stand. More especially was this the case when the archaism was a perfectly correct rendering of the original and there was no exact modern equivalent for it. The principle adopted by the Company will be best illustrated by two typical examples. The verb 'to ear' in the sense of 'to plough' and the substantive 'earing' for 'ploughing' were very reluctantly abandoned, and only because it was ascertained that their meaning was unknown to many persons of good intelligence and education. But it was easy to put in their place equivalents which had a pedigree of almost equal antiquity, and it would have been an excess of conservatism to refuse to substitute for an unintelligible archaism an expression to which no ambiguity could be attached. On the other hand the word 'bolled' (Ex. ix. 31), which signifies 'podded for seed' and is known in provincial dialects, has no synonym in literary English. To have discarded it in favour of a less accurate or more paraphrastic expression would have been to impoverish the language; and it was therefore left, because it exactly expresses one view which is taken of the meaning of the original.

One of the few instances in which the language of the Authorised Version has been modified in accordance with later usage is the change of the neuter possessive pronoun from 'his' to 'its'. It is well known that 'its' does not occur in the Bible of 1611, and it does not appear to have been introduced into any edition before 1660. But it is found ten times in Shakespeare, and there is other evidence to shew that at the time of the Authorised Version it was coming into use. It was found necessary in some cases to substitute 'its' for 'his' in order to avoid obscurity, and there seemed no good reason, when it was once introduced, for refusing to admit it generally when it referred to purely inanimate objects.

In making minor changes, whether in translation or language, the Revisers have followed the example of the translators of the Authorised Version, who allowed themselves in this respect a reasonable freedom, without permitting their liberty to degenerate into license.

It will be at once seen that the old division of the books into chapters and verses has been abandoned in favour of the arrangement in paragraphs, the numbering of the chapters and verses being however retained for convenience of reference. Where the change of subject seemed to require a greater break than was marked by the beginning of a new paragraph, it has been indicated by a space before the paragraph. Occasionally the divisions of the chapters in the Authorised Version differ from those in the common Hebrew Bibles. In such cases the variations are given in the margin. In the Psalms, the titles are printed in smaller type, as in some modern English Bibles, which differ in this respect from the edition of 1611. One consequence of the arrangement in paragraphs has been the omission of the headings of chapters, which for other and more important reasons it was thought advisable to abandon, as involving questions which belong rather to the province of the commentator than to that of the translator. With the headings of chapters the head-lines of pages naturally disappeared also, and for the same reason.

In the poetical portions, besides the division into paragraphs, the Revisers have adopted an arrangement in lines, so as to exhibit the parallelism which is characteristic of Hebrew Poetry. But they have not extended this arrangement to the prophetical books, the language of which although frequently marked by parallelism is, except in purely lyrical passages, rather of the nature of lofty and impassioned prose.

In the use of italics the Revisers departed from the custom of the Authorised Version and adopted as their rule the following resolution of their Company:

'That all such words now printed in italics, as are plainly implied in the Hebrew and necessary in English, be printed in common type.'

But where any doubt existed as to the exact rendering of the Hebrew, all words which have been added in order to give completeness to the English expression are printed in italic type, so that the reader by omitting them may be able to see how far their insertion is justified by the words of the original. This of course is especially true of those renderings for which an alternative is given in the margin, where the roman and italic type play exactly opposite parts.

To complete the account of the Revised Version it remains only to describe the marginal notes. These will be found to contain

(1) The renderings of such variations in the Massoretic Text as appeared to be of sufficient importance. These variations are known by the technical names of K'ri (read) and C'thib (written), which denote that the K'ri, or reading in the margin of the Hebrew Bible, is to be substituted for the C'thib which appears in the written text. The Revisers have generally, though not uniformly, rendered the C'thib in the text, and left the K'ri in the margin, with the introductory note 'Or, according to another reading', or 'Another reading is'. When the K'ri has been followed in the text, the C'thib has been placed in the margin, if it represented a variation of sufficient importance.

(2) Alternative renderings, introduced by 'Or'. These are either different meanings of the word or passage, or they serve to connect it with other renderings elsewhere.

(3) Literal renderings of the Hebrew or Aramaic, indicated by the prefix 'Heb.' or 'Aram.'

(4) Changes of text made on the authority of the ancient Versions.

(5) Readings from ancient Versions which appeared to be of sufficient importance to be noticed.

(6) Renderings of the Hebrew consonants as read with different vowel points, or as differently divided. These are introduced by the words 'Or, as otherwise read.'

(7) Marginal references to other passages, which are either strictly parallel, or serve the purpose of illustrating or justifying a particular rendering.

(8) Explanations of certain proper names, the meaning of which is referred to in the text.

In the Proper Names the Revisers have endeavoured to ascertain the system of transliteration adopted by the Translators of the Authorised Version and to carry it out with somewhat greater consistency. They have not however attempted anything like rigid uniformity, and have left unchanged all those names which by usage have become English; as, for instance, Moses, Aaron, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and the like.

Among the Rules laid down by the Revision Committee of Convocation for the guidance of the Revisers was one that no change should be finally made in the text of the Authorised Version except by the vote of two-thirds of the Company present and voting; and this Rule has been invariably acted upon. The result has been that in many cases a rendering which was preferred by the majority of the Company voting has been recorded in the margin, the majority not being sufficient to give it a place in the text. But all questions of marginal readings, as well as of punctuation and division into paragraphs, except where these affected the sense of a passage, were decided by a simple majority.

It may be of some interest to describe the method observed by the Company in their work, if only to shew that every question raised was carefully and deliberately considered. In the first Revision it was the practice for the Secretary to read over each verse, first in the original and then in the Authorised Version: the proposals for change were then taken; first those communicated in writing by absent members, and next those made by the members present. Each proposal was moved, and if seconded was discussed and voted upon; the decision in the first Revision being by a majority only. If a proposal met with no seconder, it was not discussed but allowed to drop. In the second Revision, the Secretary read out in order the changes which had been made at the first Revision; if these were unchallenged they were allowed to remain, otherwise they were put to the vote and affirmed or rejected according as they were or were not supported by the requisite majority of two-thirds. In the second Revision new propositions could only be made by special permission of the Company, and discussion was limited, as far as possible, to exceptional cases. In the final review, which was in reality the completion of the second Revision, the Company employed themselves in making a general survey of what they had done, deciding finally upon reserved points, harmonizing inconsistencies, smoothing down roughnesses, removing unnecessary changes, and generally giving finish and completeness to their work. Everything in this final survey was decided by the vote of a majority of two-thirds.

The Revisers had already made some progress, and had in fact gone twice through the Pentateuch, before they secured the co-operation of the American Old Testament Revision Company. The first Revision of the several books was submitted to the consideration of the American Revisers, and, except in the case of the Pentateuch, the English Company had the benefit of their criticisms and suggestions before they proceeded to the second Revision. The second Revision was in like manner forwarded to America, and the latest thoughts of the American Revisers were in the hands of the English Company at their final review. In every instance the suggestions from America were treated with the same consideration as those proceeding from members of the English Company, and were adopted or rejected on their merits. It was a part of the terms of agreement with the American Company that all points of ultimate difference between them and the English Revisers should be placed on record, and they will accordingly be found fully stated at the end of the Old Testament, or at the end of the several portions, according as the Revised Version appears in one or more volumes. Many of them will be found to be changes of language which are involved in the essentially different circumstances of American and English readers; others express a preference for the marginal rendering over that given in the text; others again involve a real difference of opinion; but all shew that they have been dictated by the same leading principle, the sincere desire to give to modern readers a faithful representation of the meaning of the original documents.

JERUSALEM CHAMBER,
WESTMINSTER ABBEY
10 July, 1884.

It could not but be expected that in the course of fourteen years many changes would take place in the members of the Company. Of the original number who first put their hands to the work on the 30th of June 1870, only fifteen now remain. Ten of the Company have been removed by death, and two resigned: the places of these were filled from time to time by others; but since October 1875 no new members have been added. The Revision was completed in eighty-five sessions, ending on 20th June, 1884; and it occupied 792 days. The greater part of the sessions were for ten days each, and each day the Company generally sat for six hours. The labour therefore has been great, but it has been given ungrudgingly; and now with a feeling of deep thankfulness to Almighty God, and the earnest hope that their endeavours may with His blessing tend to a clearer knowledge of the Old Testament Scriptures, the Revisers bring their long task to a close.

HISTORY

ENGLISH TRANSLATIONS OF THE BIBLE.

THE earliest attempt to render the Scriptures into the language spoken by the common people in England, was during the Anglo-Saxon times, when Aldhelm, in the seventh century, translated the Psalter. Cædmon had already embodied the history of the Bible in alliterative meter, but his work can scarcely be denominated a translation. The venerable Bede spent his last moments in dictating a translation of John's Gospel into his mother tongue, and died with the Doxology upon his lips when the last lines had been written. King Alfred himself reduced to the same language portions of the divine law given to the Hebrews, as the basis of his own legislation; and other scholars of the realm in the years following translated additional portions both of the Old and New Testaments, so that the whole of the four Gospels was current in the Anglo-Saxon. After the Norman Conquest, a prose translation of the Bible into Norman French, made about A. D. 1260, indicates a demand for devotional reading within the circle of the court, or of the wealthier merchants, or of convents for women of high rank. Further signs of the same desire are found in three English versions of the Psalms—one toward the close of the thirteenth century, another by Schorham about A. D. 1320, and another, with other canticles from the Old and New Testaments, by Richard Rolle, of Hampole, in Yorkshire, about 1349. There was also a version of the Gospels of Mark and Luke, and of all Paul's Epistles.

The first translation into what may properly be called English—the real beginning of the language as we now speak it—was made by John de Wycliffe. He was born A. D. 1324, at Wycliffe, in Yorkshire, and was educated at Oxford. He became successively master of Baliol College, warden of Canterbury College, and professor of divinity in Oxford University. His piety and wisdom, as well as his great parts and extensive learning, gained for him general reputation; while his opposition to the corruptions of the Church of Rome drew down on him the vengeance of the prelates and clergy, and involved him in a series of troubles, which, in all probability, would have resulted in his death, had he not been protected by John of Gaunt, the duke of Lancaster, uncle of Richard II. The dates of commencing and of concluding the work which has made his name so famous in history, can not be determined with certainty. He accomplished his task by degrees. He began with a translation of the Apocalypse; next appeared the Gospels in English, with a commentary; then followed the other books of the New Testament, which it is believed were finished about 1380. A version of the Old Testament, as well as of the New, appeared not long afterward, upon which he appears to have employed himself, and which is supposed to have been completed before 1384. It was on December 28th of this year that Wycliffe peacefully died at the Lutterworth Rectory. Forty-one years after his death, his bones were dug up and reduced to ashes by order of Richard Fleming, bishop of London, according to a decree of the infamous Council of Constance, and scattered in the River Avon.

These efforts to circulate the Word of God in the vernacular language of the people were jealously discountenanced by the papal Church. At the Council of Toulouse in 1229, for the first time since the name of Christ was known, the laity were openly forbidden to read the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament, even in Latin—except that, for the purposes of devotion, they were permitted to have in that language the Psalter or Breviary or "Hours of the Blessed Virgin;" but they were strictly forbidden to have any of these books translated into their own tongue. Nevertheless, these prohibitions did not entirely prevent the circulation of the Scriptures, and translations of the whole or of parts were made in several countries of Europe.

The fruit of Wycliffe's labors did not immediately appear, but his influence was not confined alone to England. It extended to the Continent, particularly to Bohemia, and prepared the way for the great reformation in Europe a century and a half later. Copies of his Bible were multiplied as rapidly as the pens of transcribers could do the work, and were eagerly sought by all classes of people. A revised translation was completed about the year 1388, by John Purvey, assisted by others; but both Wycliffe's and Purvey's were made from the Latin Vulgate. Wycliffe's Bible was not printed until 1850. Purvey's was printed for the first time in 1731, and for a long time was supposed to be Wycliffe's. As such it was printed in Bagster's Hexapla, in 1841.

The next English version was that of William Tyndale, a native of Wales, about the year 1530. Two circumstances in his age were favorable to its enlarged circulation—the invention of paper and of the art of printing. Erasmus's edition of the Greek Testament was then just published, and the Hebrew Scriptures were about the same time printed in Italy—and both were easy to be obtained. Tyndale was a thorough scholar, and, instead of making his version at second-hand from the Latin, he took it directly from the original tongues. His English style is idiomatic and racy. Many of his renderings, through long passages, are repeated almost word for word in our present authorized version. He is really the father of our English Bible. His successors effected many improvements in detail, but the plan and spirit of the work have been left unchanged. "The peculiar genius," says Froude, "if such a word may be permitted, which breathes through it; the mingled tenderness and majesty; the Saxon simplicity; the preternatural grandeur, unequaled, unapproached in the attempts of modern scholars—all are here, and bear the impress of one man, William Tyndale." To that one man, more than to any other, the English language owes its present form and the permanence of its vocabulary. He fixed the speech of the common people for all time to come; and its rhythmic cadence, its poetic and picturesque beauty, its strong and nervous expressions, its homely and simple phrases, all appear in his work. Tyndale's printed version contained the New Testament, the Pentateuch, and the prophecy of Jonah, with a few lessons from the Prophecies; but there is good reason to believe that he left behind him in manuscript a translation of the books of the Old Testament from Joshua to 2 Chronicles, inclusive. Tyndale's Testament was printed in 1525, at Cologne, in quarto, and at Worms in octavo. Of each of these editions three thousand copies were printed. In 1534 a revised edition was issued at Antwerp, with an addition of lessons from the Old Testament.

Tyndale was in the midst of his labors when he was arrested for heretical pravity at Antwerp, by emissaries of the papal Church, and committed to the castle of Vilvorde, near Brussels. Notwithstanding all the efforts of his friends in England and in the Low Countries to procure for him protection, he was condemned to death. Rome could not forgive his vigorous assaults upon her priestly prerogative and hierarchical authority. On Friday, October 6, 1536, he was strangled at the stake and his body burnt to ashes.

In 1535 the first translation of the whole Bible ever printed in English was completed abroad under the direction of Myles Coverdale, and is, therefore, generally called Coverdale's Bible. The place of its printing was for many years unknown; but it is believed that the work was executed at Zurich, or at Antwerp, by Jacob Van Meteren, who seems afterward to have sold the sheets, type, etc., to James Nicolson, of Southwark, England, by whom a second and a third edition were published. Coverdale, born in 1488, was an Augustine monk; but embracing the doctrines of the Reformation, he entered into orders, and in 1551 was consecrated bishop of Exeter. During the persecutions of Queen Mary's time, he was ejected from his see, and retired to the Continent, but returned to England in 1568, and died in 1569. Coverdale availed himself of the labors of others, and made his translations, not from the original Hebrew and Greek, but from the Latin Vulgate, the German of Luther, Pagninus's Latin version, Leo Juda's Helvetic version (in Swiss-German), and from one or two others. Tyndale's text is closely followed in the New Testament, but is corrected and revised with the help of the other interpreters.

In 1537 the translations of Tyndale, with those of John Rogers, who completed and edited the whole, were published in a collected form under the name of Thomas Matthew. This edition is known as Matthew's Bible. Much credit is due to Rogers, who probably resided at the place of printing (supposed to be Lübeck), as the careful editor of this Bible; he was evidently a fine scholar, and he seems to have acted both as desiring to give his countrymen a translation as correct as possible, and likewise to perpetuate the labors of Tyndale, his friend and instructor in the truth of the Gospel. In the execution of the work, Rogers had the whole of Tyndale's translations, whether in print or manuscript, before him. The Old Testament is a reprint of Tyndale's Pentateuch; the remainder, as far as the second book of Chronicles, was copied from Tyndale's manuscripts, which were undoubtedly in Rogers's safekeeping. Coverdale's translation was also followed in the other portions of Scripture. This edition, printed in black letter, or Old English, is frequently and not inaptly called Tyndale's Bible. It appeared with the then much coveted words, "Set forth with the king's most gracious license;" hence, it is the first properly authorized edition of the English Bible. This became the foundation of the text of the version now in common use. Rogers was a native of Lancashire, and was born about the year 1500. He was educated at Pembroke Hall, Cambridge, and was graduated in 1525. Entering into holy orders, he became rector, in 1532, of a Church in London. In 1534 he left England, and went to Antwerp as chaplain of the "Merchant Adventurers," where he became acquainted with Tyndale. Here he embraced the reformed doctrine, and soon afterward broke off completely from Rome, and married. During the persecutions under Mary, he was tried and condemned for heresy, and was the first martyr who suffered death at the stake. He was burned alive at Smithfield, February 4, 1555. It is supposed that Thomas Matthew was only a name which Rogers assumed from prudential motives, lest his known connection with Tyndale should prove injurious to the undertaking. In favor of this view, which has been generally accepted, is the fact that in the official record of the apprehension of Rogers, he is described as "John Rogers, alias Matthew." It is possible, however, that the name is a real one, and belongs to some patron through whose aid the work was undertaken.

So great was the desire of the people to read or hear the Word of God, and so few copies could be procured, that in 1539 another revision of the English Bible was made by Richard Taverner, a counselor-at-law and a member of the Inner Temple. He was one of the young men imprisoned in the cellar of one of the college buildings in Oxford for reading Tyndale's New Testament. Taverner was a scholar, able and energetic, but somewhat capricious and uncertain. In 1552, though a layman, he received from Edward VI. a general license to preach. We are told that he preached before the king at court, and in some other places in the kingdom, wearing a velvet bonnet or round cap, a damask gown, and a chain of gold about his neck; in which habit he was seen and heard preaching several times in St. Mary's Church, Oxford, in the beginning of the reign of Elizabeth. During Mary's reign Taverner prudently remained in retirement. Elizabeth showed him marks of special favor, and made him high sheriff of the county of Oxford. He died in the year 1575. His Bible, known as Taverner's Bible, was allowed to be publicly read in the churches, and is only a revision of Matthew's Old Testament and Tyndale's New Testament. His changes are more numerous in the latter than in the former. Thus, in Matthew, chapters xxi, xxii, containing ninety-two verses, there are about forty variations, of which one-third are retained in the version now in use. In some of these changes his object was to remove superfluous words; in others, to give a more terse or expressive phrase, or a more literal rendering from the Greek. Taverner's Bible was published both in folio and quarto; his New Testament in quarto and in octavo in the same year.

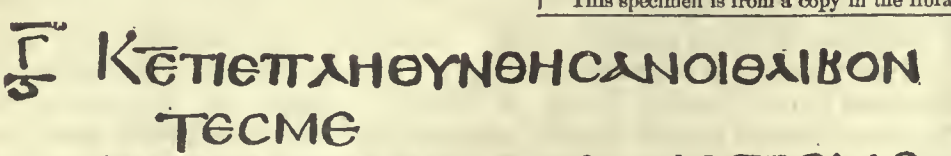
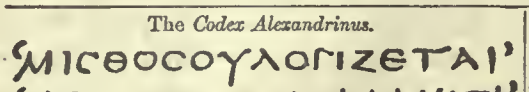
The Great Bible, so called from its size, being larger than any of the editions in folio previously published, was prepared by direction of Thomas Cromwell, chief minister of state under Henry VIII. It was a revision of Matthew's Bible, and was executed under the supervision of Coverdale, as corrector of the press. It was first issued in April, 1539, by Richard Grafton and Edward Whitchurch, printers. Cromwell, though not noted for piety, was a friend of the Reformation, and had a deep veneration for the Scriptures. Worldly, ambitious, and unscrupulous, he opposed the aggressions of the papal Church, and broke up the monasteries, which had become nests of corruption. He was rapidly advanced by the king, who created him Earl of Essex; but, being convicted of treason, he was put to death soon after attaining that honor. A second edition of this Bible was published in 1540, with a preface written by Archbishop Cranmer, and has been named Cranmer's Bible. This edition, of which only five hundred copies were printed, differed but slightly from the first, and the two are sometimes confounded. It continued to be the authorized English version (except, of course, during the reign of Mary) until 1568, when it was superseded by the Bishops' Bible.

The Geneva Bible, issued in 1560, is so called from the fact that it was translated and printed in Geneva by certain learned Englishmen who fled thither about the year 1556 to escape the persecutions of Queen Mary's reign. The exiles in Geneva, to whom this work is attributed, were William Whittingham, Anthony Gilby, Myles Coverdale, Thomas Sampson, Christopher Goodman, Thomas Cole, John Knox, John Bodleigh, and John Pullain. The principal part of the work was executed by Whittingham, Gilby, and Sampson. This version became very popular, and probably one hundred and thirty editions were issued. It was the first English Bible divided into verses. The example for doing this was set in the New Testament printed at the same city three years previously. This translation differed from all that had preceded it, not only in its plan, but also in its execution. The other versions had been generally the work or revision of an individual, or, at most, a revision in which certain individuals executed certain particular parts. In this translation many acted unitedly in the formation of a version, and in the plan of operation there was a principle of completeness which had not heretofore been acted on. Still, the basis of the translation was Tyndale's; but, with the scholarly labor bestowed upon it, the Geneva Bible was more accurate than any of its predecessors, and long held its popularity in England, even after the present authorized version was in use. It discarded the old black-letter type, and was printed from Roman type, which was soon adopted in all the printing-offices which published English books.



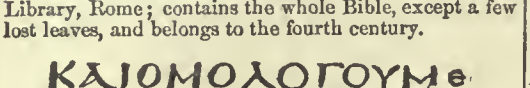
The next version was superintended by Matthew Parker, archbishop of Canterbury, and is sometimes called by his name. It was first published in 1568, and was executed with great care by more than fifteen men, whose names occur at the end of the portions prepared by them. From the fact that the majority of those engaged in its preparation were bishops, it has been named the Bishops' Bible. It continued to be the version authorized to be read in the churches for forty-three years; but in private use it never displaced the Geneva version. Its preparation seems to have extended over a period of three or four years. The basis of the translation was the Great Bible, but many of the corrections and improvements were taken from the Geneva version.

We have already noticed the opposition on the part of the papal Church to the general diffusion of the Word of God. But Rome had thundered in vain. What did she do? In 1582 she printed, or allowed to be printed, at Rheims, an English New Testament, "translated out of Latin, with notes and necessary helps." In 1609 the Old Testament also made its appearance, at Douay. The Rhemish New Testament, as the version printed at Rheims is called, was prepared at the English Roman Catholic College, then established at that place, and afterwards at Douay, by Gregory Martin, a distinguished Hebrew and Greek scholar. His translation was made from the Vulgate, and in his work he was assisted by Dr. William Allen, the founder of the college, Dr. Reynolds, Dr. Bristow, and Dr. Worthington. The last two are supposed to be the authors of the "Notes," which are bitterly controversial. The translation is literal, and, as a rule, scrupulously faithful and exact, but disfigured by a profusion of unfamiliar and Latinized words, which convey no meaning whatever to the ordinary English reader. This last peculiarity strikes the eye at the first opening of the volume. But from this version, unfamiliar as many of its words are, our translators obtained some of their happiest expressions. Nothing is easier than to accumulate instances of the eccentricity of its renderings, or of their obscure and inflated style; but a minute study of its pages will afford evidence of the care with which the translators have executed their work. "Every other English translation," says Dr. Moulton, in his History of the English Bible, "is to be preferred to this, if it is to be taken as a whole; but no other English version will prove more instructive to the student who will take the pains to separate what is good and useful from what is ill-advised and wrong."



When King James I. came to the throne of England he took measures to secure a uniform translation of the Scriptures, and appointed fifty-four of the most learned men of his kingdom to proceed with the work. The result of their labors was published in 1611; and being commanded by authority to be used in the churches, it soon became the standard translation for English-speaking people. This is the translation now called "the Authorized Version." But in process of time numerous errors were discovered in it, and new manuscripts of the original came to light. It was long thought by scholars that a new version should be made; and, accordingly, the subject of revision was brought by Professor Selwyn before the lower House of Convocation of the province of Canterbury in 1856, but his proposals then met with little favor.

No action was taken until 1870, when the matter was intrusted to a committee, consisting of eight members of the upper house and sixteen of the lower. They reported favorably; and the convocation then nominated a committee of eight members of each house to undertake the work of revision. They associated with them a number of the best scholars in Great Britain and America, and divided themselves into two companies for the revision of the Old Testament and New Testament respectively. The New Testament Company first concluded its labors, and published the revision in 1881. The Old Testament revision was not completed until 1884. The Authorized and Revised Versions appear together in parallel columns on the following pages.



The oldest version in any language of which there is a record is the Septuagint, written in Greek, at Alexandria, Egypt, B. C. 286–280. The oldest known copy of this version is written on thin vellum, contains the whole Bible, and is dated in the fifth century; now in the British Museum, and is called

The Codex Alexandrinus.

The Codex Vaticanus is a manuscript in the Vatican Library, Rome; contains the whole Bible, except a few lost leaves, and belongs to the fourth century.

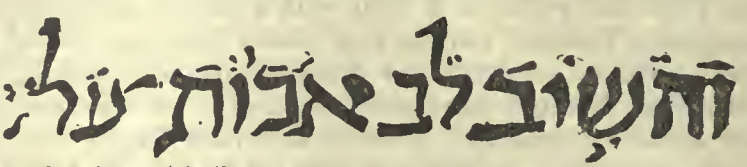
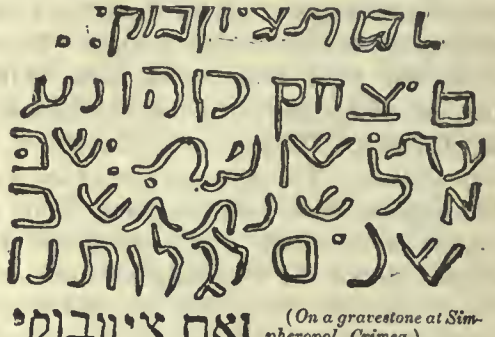
The Codex Sinaiticus was found in the Convent on Mount Sinai, and belongs to the sixth century, but is a copy of one of an earlier date. Besides the Old and New Testaments, it has the Gospel and Epistles of Barnabas and the Epistle of Hermas. Fragments of the Gospel are contained in a palimpsest MS. in a library at Wolfen-buttel, Germany, where the ancient Greek letters have been scraped off, and a modern text written over them, but not entirely obliterating the ancient writing. The first specimen is from Luke i. 6. The next is one which was found at the Convent on the Natron Lakes, Egypt, and is Luke xx. 9, 10, with a work of Severus of Antioch over it. It is dated A. D. 550. Both the specimens of writing are fine examples of the art. The great price of writing material, skins, parchment, vellum or cloth and papyrus, caused the loss of many old books, whose letters were erased to make room for some new work.



This specimen is from a copy in the library of Trinity College, Dublin, a palimpsest, and belongs to the sixth century. It is from the Gospel of Matthew, xix. 26.



This specimen is from a copy of the Book of Genesis, written for Origen, in Greek, A. D. 185 to 255, and shows a very neat and clear text, as well as all the others.

The oldest Hebrew MS. known is dated A. D. 489; is a roll, and was found in the Karaite Synagogue in the Crimea. The specimen given here is from a Pentateuch, written originally on a roll of leather, preserved in Odessa, and was brought from Darbend, in Daghestan. It was corrected in A. D. 580, and was therefore written before that time. The text is from Malachi iv. 6.

As a specimen of the ancient Hebrew letter used about the time that Paul was a pupil of Gamaliel, here is a copy from a gravestone in the Crimea, of the year A. D. 6. This style of letter is like that on the coins of the Maccabees, B. C. 139, and other coins down to A. D. 130.

"This is the grave of Buki, son of Isaac, the priest; may his rest be in Paradise! [Died] at the time of the deliverance of Israel, in the year 702 of our captivity" (i. e. A. D. 6).

The oldest printed Hebrew Bible (Old Testament) was issued at Soncino, Italy, A. D. 1487, in folio. The Complutensian Polyglott was published at the expense of Cardinal Ximenes in 1514–1522, in 6 vols. folio, and sold at fifteen dollars. The last specimen on this page is Greek, from the text of John i. 1, 2, and is dated A. D. 995. The initial letter is in blue and red colors, and is very finely "illuminated." The first book printed was the Bible, in Latin; and the splendid pages of the Mazarin Vulgate, printed by Gutenberg and Faust in 1455, at Mainz, are not surpassed at this day as specimens of typography. And the style of the letter has not been improved upon since that time for elegance of shape or distinctness.

The date of the beheading of Paul is placed in the 14th of Nero's reign. Dionysius, bishop of Corinth, A. D. 170, says that Peter and Paul went to Italy, preached together there, and suffered martyrdom about the same time. Caius of Rome, in the 2d century, names the grave of Peter on the Vatican, and of Paul on the Ostian Way; and others, as Eusebius, Tertullian, and Jerome, agree in this account. The locality around Paul's grave is now used as a cemetery for strangers who die in Rome.

The principle which harmonizes all the acts, and preaching, and letters of Paul, was a belief in Jesus as the Divine Spirit—a living Master, intimately related to every living soul, of whose Gospel he was the special Messenger. This purified his love of his own people and opened his heart toward all mankind.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED GENESIS.

CHAPTER I.

Creation of heaven and earth, and of man in the image of God.

IN the [a]beginning [b]God created the heaven and the earth.
2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. [c]And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
3 ¶[d]And God said, [e]Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided †the light from the darkness.
5 And God called the light [f]Day, and the darkness he called Night. †And the evening and the morning were the first day.
6 ¶And God said, [g]Let there be a †firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.
7 And God made the firmament, [h]and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were [i]above the firmament: and it was so.
8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.
9 ¶And God said, [k]Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.
11 And God said, Let the earth [l]bring forth †grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding [m]fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.
14 ¶And God said, Let there be [n]lights in the firmament of the heaven, to divide †the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and [o]for seasons, and for days, and years:
15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.
16 And God [p]made two great lights; the greater light †to rule the day, and [q]the lesser light to rule the night: he made [r]the stars also.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,
18 And to [s]rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.
19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 ¶And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the ‖moving creature that hath †life, and †fowl that may fly above the earth in the †open firmament of heaven.
21 And [u]God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
22 And God blessed them, saying, [v]Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.
23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.
24 ¶And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES, COMMONLY CALLED GENESIS.

1 In the beginning God created the heaven and the
2 earth. And the earth was waste and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep: and the spirit of God [1]moved upon the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was

10 land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was

12 and it was so. And the earth brought forth grass, herb yielding seed after its kind, and tree bearing fruit, wherein is the seed thereof, after its kind: and 13 God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.
14 And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶And God said, [x]Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and [y]let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, [z]in the image of God created he him; [a]male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, [b]Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that †moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb †bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; [c]to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to [d]every beast of the earth, and to every [e]fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is †life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And [f]God saw every thing that he had made, and behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

CHAPTER II.

The garden of Eden—Naming the creatures—Making of woman.

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and [a]all the host of them.

2 [b]And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God [c]blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God †created and made.

4 ¶[d]These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every [e]plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not [f]caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man [g]to till the ground.

6 But ‖there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man †of the [h]dust of the ground, and [i]breathed into his [k]nostrils the breath of life; and [l]man became a living soul.

8 ¶And the LORD God planted [m]a garden [n]eastward in [o]E'den; and there [p]he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow [q]every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; [r]the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, [s]and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 ¶And a river went out of E'den to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pi'son: that is it which compasseth [u]the whole land of Hav'i-lah, where there is gold;

12 And the gold of that land is good: [w]there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gi'hon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of †E-thi-o'pi-a.

14 And the name of the third river is [x]Hid'de-kel: that is it which goeth ‖toward the east of As-syr'i-a. And the fourth river is Eu-phra'tes.

15 ¶And the LORD God took ‖the man, and [y]put him into the garden of E'den, to dress it and to keep it.

16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden †thou mayest freely eat:

25 And God made the beast of the earth after its kind, and the cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the ground after its kind: and God saw
26 that it was good. And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the 27 earth. And God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female
28 created he them. And God blessed them: and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that [1]moveth
29 upon the earth. And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you
30 it shall be for meat: and to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is [2]life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.
31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2 And the heaven and the earth were finished, and
2 all the host of them. And on the seventh day God finished his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had
3 made. And God blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it: because that in it he rested from all his work which God had created and made.
4 These are the generations of the heaven and of the earth when they were created, in the day that
5 [3]the LORD God made earth and heaven. And no plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there
6 was not a man to till the ground; but there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole
7 face of the ground. And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living
8 soul. And the LORD God planted a garden eastward, in E'den; and there he put the man whom 9 he had formed. And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge
10 of good and evil. And a river went out of E'den to water the garden; and from thence it was parted,
11 and became four heads. The name of the first is Pi'shon: that is it which compasseth the whole land
12 of Hav'i-lah, where there is gold; and the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the [4]onyx
13 stone. And the name of the second river is Gi'hon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of 14 Cush. And the name of the third river is [5]Hid'de-kel: that is it which goeth [6]in front of As-syr'i-a.
15 And the fourth river is Eu-phra'tes. And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the 16 garden of E'den to dress it and to keep it. And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

CHAPTER III.

The serpent deceiveth Eve—Man's fall and banishment from paradise.

NOW [a]the serpent was [b]more subtile than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, †Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 [c]But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

4 [d]And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then [e]your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 ¶And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was †pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, [f]and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; [g]and he did eat.

7 And [h]the eyes of them both were opened, [i]and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves ‖aprons.

8 And they heard [k]the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the †cool of the day: and Ad'am and his wife [l]hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 ¶And the LORD God called unto Ad'am, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, [m]and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 Aud the man said, [n]The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, [o]The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 ¶And the LORD God said [p]unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and [q]dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help [1]meet
19 for him. And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto the man to see what he would call them: and whatsoever the man called every living creature, that was the name thereof.
20 And the man gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for [2]man there was not found an help meet for him.
21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs,
22 and closed up the flesh instead thereof: and the rib, which the LORD God had taken from the man, [3]made he a woman, and brought her unto the 23 man. And the man said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called [4]Woman, because she was taken out of [5]Man.
24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they 25 shall be of one flesh. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

3 Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye
2 shall not eat of [6]any tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, Of the fruit of the 3 trees of the garden we may eat: but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye
4 touch it, lest ye die. And the serpent said unto
5 the woman, Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as [7]God,
6 knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was [8]to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat; and she gave also unto
7 her husband with her, and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves
8 together, and made themselves [9]aprons. And they heard the [10]voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the [11]cool of the day: and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the 9 LORD God amongst the trees of the garden. And the LORD God called unto the man, and said unto 10 him, Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy [10]voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I
11 was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou 12 shouldest not eat? And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of 13 the tree, and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me,
14 and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, cursed art thou [12]above all cattle, and [12]above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

CHAPTER IV.

The murder of Abel and the curse of Cain.

AND Ad'am knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare || Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother †A'bel. And A'bel was †a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a [a]tiller of the ground.

3 And †in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought [b]of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And A'bel, he also brought of [c]the firstlings of his †flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had [d]respect unto A'bel and to his offering:

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect, and Cain was very wroth, [e]and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not || be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door: and || unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8 And Cain talked with A'bel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against A'bel his brother, and [f]slew him.

9 ¶And the LORD said unto Cain, [g]Where is A'bel thy brother? And he said, [h]I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's †blood [i]crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand.

12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, ||My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 [k]Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and [l]from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, [m]that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 and I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall [1]bruise thy head, and thou shalt [1]bruise his

19 shalt eat the herb of the field; in the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust
20 thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. And the man called his wife's name [3]Eve; because she

4 And the man knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have [4]gotten a
2 man with the help of the LORD. And again she bare his brother A'bel. And A'bel was a keeper of

9 him. And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is A'bel thy brother? And he said, I know not: am
10 I my brother's keeper? And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [n]sevenfold. And the LORD [o]set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶And Cain [p]went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of E'den.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare †E'noch: and he builded a city, [q]and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, E'noch.

18 And unto E'noch was born I'rad: and I'rad begat Me-hu'ja-el: and Me-hu'ja-el begat Me-thu'sa-el: and Me-thu'sa-el begat †La'mech.

19 ¶And La'mech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was A'dah, and the name of the other Zil'lah.

20 And A'dah bare Ja'bal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Ju'bal: he was the [r]father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zil'lah, she also bare Tu'bal-cain, an †instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tu'bal-cain was Na'a-mah.

23 And La'mech said unto his wives, A'dah and Zil'lah, Hear my voice; ye wives of La'mech, hearken unto my speech: for ‖I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man ‖to my hurt.

24 [s]If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly La'mech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶And Ad'am knew his wife again, and she bare a son, and [t]called his name †‖Seth: For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of A'bel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, [u]to him also there was born a son; and he called his name †E'nos: then began men ‖ [w]to call upon the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

The genealogy, age, and death of the Patriarchs from Adam unto Noah.

THIS is the [a]book of the generations of Ad'am. In the day that God created man, in [b]the likeness of God made he him;

2 [c]Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Ad'am, in the day when they were created.

3 And Ad'am lived a hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and [d]called his name Seth:

4 [e]And the days of Ad'am after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: [f]and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Ad'am lived were nine hundred and thirty years: [g]and he died.

6 And Seth lived a hundred and five years, and [h]begat E'nos:

7 And Seth lived after he begat E'nos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 ¶And E'nos lived ninety years, and begat †Cai'nan.

10 And E'nos lived after he begat Cai'nan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of E'nos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 ¶And Cai'nan lived seventy years, and begat †Ma-ha'la-le-el:

13 And Cai'nan lived after he begat Ma-ha'la-le-el eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cai'nan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 ¶And Ma-ha'la-le-el lived sixty and five years, and begat †Ja'red:

16 And Ma-ha'la-le-el lived after he begat Ja'red eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters:

17 And all the days of Ma-ha'la-le-el were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the LORD appointed a sign for Cain, lest any finding him should smite him.

16 And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of [1]Nod, [2]on the east of E'den.

17 And Cain knew his wife: and she conceived, and bare E'noch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, E'noch.

18 And unto E'noch was born I'rad: and I'rad begat Me-hu'ja-el: and Me-hu'ja-el begat Me-thu'sha-el:

19 and Me-thu'sha-el begat La'mech. And La'mech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was A'dah,

20 and the name of the other Zil'lah. And A'dah bare Ja'bal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents

21 and have cattle. And his brother's name was Ju'bal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and 22 pipe. And Zil'lah, she also bare Tu'bal-cain, [3]the forger of every cutting instrument of [4]brass and iron: and the sister of Tu'bal-cain was Na'a-mah.

23 And La'mech said unto his wives:
A'dah and Zil'lah, hear my voice;
Ye wives of La'mech, hearken unto my speech:
For [5]I have slain a man [6]for wounding me,
And a young man for bruising me:

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold,
Truly La'mech seventy and sevenfold.

25 And Ad'am knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name [7]Seth: For, said she, God [8]hath appointed me another seed instead of A'bel; for Cain

26 slew him. And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name E'nosh: then began men to call upon the name of the LORD.

5 This is the book of the generations of Ad'am. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of

2 God made he him; male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name

3 [9]Ad'am, in the day when they were created. And Ad'am lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called

4 his name Seth: and the days of Ad'am after he begat Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat

5 sons and daughters. And all the days that Ad'am lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and

7 begat E'nosh: and Seth lived after he begat E'nosh eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and 8 daughters: and all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

9 And E'nosh lived ninety years, and begat Ke'nan:

10 and E'nosh lived after he begat Ke'nan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 and all the days of E'nosh were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

12 And Ke'nan lived seventy years, and begat Ma-ha'-

13 la-lel: and Ke'nan lived after he begat Ma-ha'la-lel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and 14 daughters: and all the days of Ke'nan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

15 And Ma-ha'la-lel lived sixty and five years, and

16 begat Ja'red: and Ma-ha'la-lel lived after he begat Ja'red eight hundred and thirty years, and begat sons

17 and daughters: and all the days of Ma-ha'la-lel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

CHAPTER VI.

Wickedness of the world—God's wrath—Order and form of the ark.

AND it came to pass, [a]when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,
2 That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they [b]took them wives of all which they chose.
3 And the LORD said, [c]My Spirit shall not always strive with man, [d]for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.
4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them: the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

6 And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born

8 me that I have made them. But No'ah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 These are the generations of No'ah. No'ah was a
10 righteous man, and [8]perfect in his generations: No'ah walked with God. And No'ah begat three sons, Shem,

17 [r]And behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven: and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant: and [s]thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, [t]two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 [w]Thus did No'ah; [x]according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAPTER VII.

Noah, his family, and living creatures enter the ark—The flood.

2349.

AND the LORD said unto No'ah, [a]Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for [b]thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every [c]clean beast thou shalt take to thee by †sevens, the male and his female: [d]and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth [e]forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I †destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 [f]And No'ah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And No'ah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶[g]And No'ah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto No'ah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded No'ah.

10 And it came to pass ‖after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶In the six hundredth year of No'ah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all [h]the fountains of the great deep broken up, and ‖[i]the windows of heaven were opened.

12 [k]And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day [l]entered No'ah, and Shem, and Ham, and Ja'pheth, the sons of No'ah, and No'ah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 [m]They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every †sort.

15 And they [n]went in unto No'ah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all

15 And this is how thou shalt make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A [1]light shalt thou make to the ark, and to a cubit shalt thou finish it [2]upward; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou

17 make it. And I, behold, I do bring the flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; every thing

18 that is in the earth shall die. But I will establish my covenant with thee; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy

19 sons' wives with thee. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male

20 and female. Of the fowl after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort shall come

21 unto thee, to keep them alive. And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and gather it to thee;

22 and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. Thus did No'ah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7 And the LORD said unto No'ah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen right-

2 eous before me in this generation. Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee seven and seven, the male and his female; and of the beasts that are not

3 clean two, the male and his female; of the fowl also of the air, seven and seven, male and female: to keep

4 seed alive upon the face of all the earth. For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living thing that I have made will I [3]destroy from off the face of 5 the ground. And No'ah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And No'ah was six hundred years old when the

7 flood of waters was upon the earth. And No'ah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters

8 of the flood. Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that

9 creepeth upon the ground, there went in two and two unto No'ah into the ark, male and female, as God

10 commanded No'ah. And it came to pass after the seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon

11 the earth. In the six hundredth year of No'ah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven

12 were opened. And the rain was upon the earth

13 forty days and forty nights. In the selfsame day entered No'ah, and Shem, and Ham, and Ja'pheth, the sons of No'ah, and No'ah's wife, and the three

14 wives of his sons with them, into the ark; they, and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after its kind, and every

15 fowl after its kind, every bird of every [4]sort. And they went in unto No'ah into the ark, two and two 16 of all flesh wherein is the breath of life. And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, [o]as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 [p]And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lifted up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; [q]and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; [r]and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 [s]And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in [t]whose nostrils was †the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and [u]No'ah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 [w]And the waters prevailed upon the earth a hundred and fifty days.

CHAPTER VIII.

The ark resteth on Ararat—Noah buildeth an altar, and offereth sacrifice.

AND God [a]remembered No'ah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: [b]and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged.

2 [c]The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and [d]the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from off the earth †continually: and after the end [e]of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

4 ¶And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ar'a-rat.

5 And the waters †decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that No'ah opened [f]the window of the ark which he had made:

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth †to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark; for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. Then he put forth his hand, and took her, and †pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off: so No'ah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more.

2348. 13 ¶And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and No'ah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶And God spake unto No'ah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, [g]thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee [h]every living thing that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may flesh, as God commanded him: and the LORD

17 shut him in. And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up
18 the ark, and it was lift up above the earth. And the waters prevailed, and increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.
19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high mountains that were under the whole
20 heaven were covered. Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.
21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both fowl, and cattle, and beast, and every [1]creeping thing
22 that creepeth upon the earth, and every man: all in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of 23 all that was in the dry land, died. [2]And every living thing was [3]destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and creeping thing, and fowl of the heaven; and they were [3]destroyed from the earth: and No'ah only was left, and they 24 that were with him in the ark. And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

8 And God remembered No'ah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth,
2 and the waters assuaged; the fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and
3 the rain from heaven was restrained; and the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of an hundred and fifty days the waters
4 decreased. And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon
5 the mountains of Ar'a-rat. And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops
6 of the mountains seen. And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that No'ah opened the window of 7 the ark which he had made: and he sent forth a raven, and it went forth to and fro, until the waters
8 were dried up from off the earth. And he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated
9 from off the face of the ground; but the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him to the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: and he put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her in unto him into the ark.
10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he 11 sent forth the dove out of the ark; and the dove came in to him at eventide; and, lo, in her mouth [4]an olive leaf pluckt off: so No'ah knew that the 12 waters were abated from off the earth. And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; and she returned not again unto him any 13 more. And it came to pass in the sixth hundred and first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and No'ah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was 14 dried. And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dry.

CHAPTER IX.

God's covenant signified by the rainbow—Noah replenisheth the world.

AND God blessed No'ah and his sons, and said unto them, [a]Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 [b]And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 [c]Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the [d]green herb have I given you [e]all things.

4 [f]But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require: [g]at the hand of every beast will I require it, and [h]at the hand of man; at the hand of every [i]man's brother will I require the life of man.

6 [k]Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: [l]for in the image of God made he man.

7 And you, [m]be ye fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply therein.

8 ¶And God spake unto No'ah, and to his sons with him, saying,

9 And I, [n]behold, I establish [o]my covenant with you, and with your seed after you;

10 [p]And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And [q]I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, [r]This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

13 I do set [s]my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And [u]I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember [w]the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto No'ah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

20 the ark. And No'ah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the 21 altar. And the LORD smelled the sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's [1]sake, for that the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every

CHAPTER X.

The generations of Noah—Nimrod the first monarch.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of No'ah: Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth: [a]and unto them were sons born after the flood.
2 [b]The sons of Ja'pheth; Go'mer, and Ma'gog, and Mad'a-i, and Ja'van, and Tu'bal, and Me'shech, and Ti'ras.
3 And the sons of Go'mer; Ash'ke-naz, and Ri'phath, and To-gar'mah.
4 And the sons of Ja'van; E-li'shah, and Tar'shish, Kit'tim, and ‖ Do-da'nim.
5 By these were [c]the isles of the Gen'tiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.
6 ¶[d]And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Miz'ra-im, and Phut and Ca'naan.
7 And the sons of Cush; Se'ba, and Hav'i-lah, and Sab'tah, and Ra'a-mah, and Sab'te-cha: and the sons of Ra'a-mah; She'ba, and De'dan.

8 And Cush begat Nim'rod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.
9 He was a mighty [e]hunter [f]before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nim'rod the mighty hunter before the LORD.
10 [g]And the beginning of his kingdom was †Ba'bel, and E'rech, and Ac'cad, and Cal'neh, in the land of Shi'nar.
11 Out of that land ‖ went forth As'shur, and builded Nin'e-veh, and ‖ the city Re-ho'both, and Ca'lah, 12 And Re'sen between Nin'e-veh and Ca'lah: the same is a great city.
13 And Miz'ra-im begat Lu'dim, and An'a-mim, and Le'ha-bim, and Naph'tu-him, 14 And Path-ru'sim, and Cas-lu'him ([h]out of whom came Phi-lis'tim,) and Caph'to-rim.
15 ¶And Ca'naan begat †Si'don his firstborn, and Heth,

17 And the Hi'vite, and the Ark'ite, and the Sin'ite,
18 And the Ar'va-dite, and the Zem'a-rite, and the Ham'ath-ite: and afterward were the families of the Ca'naan-ites spread abroad.
19 [i]And the border of the Ca'naan-ites was from Si'don, as thou comest to Ge'rar, unto †Ga'za; as thou goest unto Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and Ad'mah, and Ze-bo'im, even unto La'sha.

A servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem;

CHAPTER XI.

Building the tower of Babel—The confusion of tongues.

AND the whole earth was of one †language, and of one †speech.

2 And it came to pass, as they journeyed ‖ from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shi'nar; and they dwelt there.

3 And †they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and †burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and slime had they for mortar.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, [a]whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be [b]scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 [b]And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the LORD said, Behold, [c]the people is one, and they have all [d]one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have [e]imagined to do.

7 Go to, [f]let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may [g]not understand one another's speech.

8 So [h]the LORD scattered them abroad from thence [i]upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called ‖ Ba'bel: [k]because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ [l]These are the generations of Shem: Shem was a hundred years old, and begat Ar-phax'ad two years after the flood:

11 And Shem lived after he begat Ar-phax'ad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Ar-phax'ad lived five and thirty years, [m]and begat Sa'lah.

13 And Ar-phax'ad lived after he begat Sa'lah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Sa'lah lived thirty years, and begat E'ber:

15 And Sa'lah lived after he begat E'ber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 [n]And E'ber lived four and thirty years, and begat [o]Pe'leg:

17 And E'ber lived after he begat Pe'leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Pe'leg lived thirty years, and begat Re'u:

19 And Pe'leg lived after he begat Re'u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

E'ber [1]the elder brother of Ja'pheth, to him also 22 were children born. The sons of Shem; E'lam, and As'shur, and Ar-pach'shad, and Lud, and A'ram.
23 And the sons of A'ram; Uz, and Hul, and Ge'ther, 24 and Mash. And Ar-pach'shad [2]begat She'lah; and 25 She'lah begat E'ber. And unto E'ber were born two sons: the name of the one was [3]Pe'leg; for in his days was the earth divided; and his brother's 26 name was Jok'tan. And Jok'tan begat Al-mo'dad, 27 and She'leph, and Ha-zar-ma'veth, and Je'rah; and 28 Ha-do'ram, and U'zal, and Dik'lah; and [4]O'bal, and 29 A-bim'a-el, and She'ba; and O'phir, and Hav'i-lah, and 30 Jo'bab: all these were the sons of Jok'tan. And their dwelling was from Me'sha, as thou goest 31 toward Se'phar, the [5]mountain of the east. These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.
32 These are the families of the sons of No'ah, after their generations, in their nations: and of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

11 And the whole earth was of one [6]language and of 2 one [7]speech. And it came to pass, as they journeyed [8]east, that they found a plain in the land of 3 Shi'nar; and they dwelt there. And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them throughly. And they had brick for stone, and 4 [9]slime had they for mortar. And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven, and let us make us a name; lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the 5 whole earth. And the LORD came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men 6 builded. And the LORD said, Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is what they begin to do: and now nothing will be withholden from them, which they purpose 7 to do. Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one 8 another's speech. So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: 9 and they left off to build the city. Therefore was the name of it called Ba'bel; because the LORD did there [10]confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.
10 These are the generations of Shem. Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Ar-pach'shad two 11 years after the flood: and Shem lived after he begat Ar-pach'shad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
12 And Ar-pach'shad lived five and thirty years, and 13 begat She'lah: and Ar-pach'shad lived after he begat
She'lah four hundred and three years, and begat
sons and daughters.
14 And She'lah lived thirty years, and begat E'ber:
15 and She'lah lived after he begat E'ber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.
16 And E'ber lived four and thirty years, and begat
17 Pe'leg: and E'ber lived after he begat Pe'leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18 And Pe'leg lived thirty years, and begat Re'u:
19 and Pe'leg lived after he begat Re'u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.

CHAPTER XII.

God calleth Abram, and blesseth him—He buildeth an altar unto the Lord.

NOW the [a]LORD had said unto A'bram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 [b]And I will make of thee a great nation, [c]and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; [d]and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 [e]And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: [f]and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So A'bram departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and A'bram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Ha'ran.
5 And A'bram took Sa'rai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and [g]the souls that they had gotten [h]in Ha'ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Ca'naan; and into the land of Ca'naan they came.
6 ¶And A'bram [i]passed through the land unto the place of Si'chem, [k]unto the plain of Mo'reh. [l]And the Ca'naan-ite was then in the land.
7 [m]And the LORD appeared unto A'bram, and said, [n]Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an [o]altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and Ha'i on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and [p]called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And A'bram journeyed, †[q]going on still toward the south.
10 ¶And there was [r]a famine in the land: and [s]A'bram went down into E'gypt to sojourn there; for the famine was [t]grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into E'gypt, that he said unto Sa'rai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art [u]a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the E-gyp'tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they [w]will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

20 And Re'u lived two and thirty years, and begat
21 Se'rug: and Re'u lived after he begat Se'rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Se'rug lived thirty years, and begat Na'hor:
23 and Se'rug lived after he begat Na'hor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Na'hor lived nine and twenty years, and 25 begat Te'rah: and Na'hor lived after he begat Te'rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Te'rah lived seventy years, and begat A'bram, Na'hor, and Ha'ran.
27 Now these are the generations of Te'rah. Te'rah begat A'bram, Na'hor, and Ha'ran; and Ha'ran begat
28 Lot. And Ha'ran died in the presence of his father Te'rah in the land of his nativity, in Ur of the Chal'-
29 dees. And A'bram and Na'hor took them wives: the name of A'bram's wife was Sa'rai; and the name of Na'hor's wife, Mil'cah, the daughter of Ha'ran, the 30 father of Mil'cah, and the father of Is'cah. And 31 Sa'rai was barren; she had no child. And Te'rah took A'bram his son, and Lot the son of Ha'ran, his son's son, and Sa'rai his daughter in law, his son A'bram's wife; and they went forth with them from Ur of the Chal'dees, to go into the land of Ca'naan;
32 and they came unto Ha'ran, and dwelt there. And the days of Te'rah were two hundred and five years: and Te'rah died in Ha'ran.

12 Now the LORD said unto A'bram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto the land that I will shew thee:
2 and I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and be thou
3 a blessing: and I will bless them that bless thee, and him that curseth thee will I curse; and in thee
4 shall all the families of the earth be blessed. So A'bram went, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lot went with him: and A'bram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Ha'ran.
5 And A'bram took Sa'rai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Ha'ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Ca'naan; and
6 into the land of Ca'naan they came. And A'bram passed through the land unto the place of She'chem, unto the [1]oak of Mo'reh. And the Ca'naan-ite was 7 then in the land. And the LORD appeared unto A'bram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land; and there builded he an altar unto the LORD,
8 who appeared unto him. And he removed from thence unto the mountain on the east of Beth-el, and pitched his tent, having Beth-el on the west, and A'i on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the 9 LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD. And A'bram journeyed, going on still toward the [2]South.
10 And there was a famine in the land: and A'bram went down into E'gypt to sojourn there; for the 11 famine was sore in the land. And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into E'gypt, that he said unto Sa'rai his wife, Behold now, I know that 12 thou art a fair woman to look upon: and it shall come to pass, when the E-gyp'tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will 13 kill me, but they will save thee alive. Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake, and that my soul may live because of thee.

14 ¶And it came to pass, that, when A'bram was come into E'gypt, the E-gyp'tians [v]beheld the woman that she was very fair.
15 The princes also of Pha'raoh saw her, and commended her before Pha'raoh: and the woman was [t]taken into Pha'raoh's house.
16 And he [a]entreated A'bram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she-asses, and camels.
17 And the LORD [b]plagued Pha'raoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sa'rai, A'bram's wife.
18 And Pha'raoh called A'bram, and said, [c]What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?
19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.
20 [d]And Pha'raoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAPTER XIII.

Abram and Lot return out of Egypt—God reneweth the promise to Abram.

AND A'bram went up out of E'gypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, [a]into the south.
2 [b]And A'bram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.
3 And he went on his journeys [c]from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Ha'i;
4 Unto the [d]place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there A'bram [e]called on the name of the LORD.
5 ¶And Lot also, which went with A'bram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.
6 And [f]the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.
7 And there was [g]a strife between the herdmen of A'bram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: [h]and the Ca'naan-ite and the Per'iz-zite dwelt then in the land.
8 And A'bram said unto Lot, [i]Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be †brethren.
9 [k]Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: [l]if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.
10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all [m]the plain of Jor'dan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD [n]destroyed Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, [o]even as the garden of the LORD, like the land of E'gypt, as thou comest unto [p]Zo'ar.
11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jor'dan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.
12 A'bram dwelt in the land of Ca'naan, and Lot [q]dwelt in the cities of the plain, and [r]pitched his tent toward Sod'om.
13 But the men of Sod'om [s]were wicked, and [t]sinners before the LORD exceedingly.
14 ¶And the LORD said unto A'bram, after that Lot [u]was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art [w]northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward:
15 For all the land which thou seest, [x]to thee will I give it, and [y]to thy seed for ever.
16 And [z]I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.
17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee.
18 Then A'bram removed his tent, and came and [a]dwelt in the †plain of Mam're, [b]which is in He'bron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

B. C. about 1920.

14 And it came to pass, that, when A'bram was come into E'gypt, the E-gyp'tians beheld the woman
15 that she was very fair. And the princes of Pha'raoh saw her, and praised her to Pha'raoh: and 16 the woman was taken into Pha'raoh's house. And he entreated A'bram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and menservants, and 17 maidservants, and she-asses, and camels. And the LORD plagued Pha'raoh and his house with great 18 plagues because of Sa'rai A'bram's wife. And Pha'raoh called A'bram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that 19 she was thy wife? Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so that I took her to be my wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.
20 And Pha'raoh gave men charge concerning him: and they brought him on the way, and his wife, and all that he had.

13 And A'bram went up out of E'gypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the
2 South. And A'bram was very rich in cattle, in 3 silver, and in gold. And he went on his journeys from the South even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el
4 and A'i; unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there A'bram called on
5 the name of the LORD. And Lot also, which went
6 with A'bram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that
7 they could not dwell together. And there was a strife between the herdmen of A'bram's cattle and the herdmen of Lot's cattle: and the Ca'naan-ite and the 8 Per'iz-zite dwelled then in the land. And A'bram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and thy 9 herdmen; for we are brethren. Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou take the right hand, then I will 10 go to the left. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the [1]Plain of Jor'dan, that it was well watered every where, before the LORD destroyed Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of E'gypt, as thou goest unto Zo'ar.
11 So Lot chose him all the Plain of Jor'dan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the 12 one from the other. A'bram dwelled in the land of Ca'naan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the Plain,
13 and moved his tent as far as Sod'om. Now the men of Sod'om were wicked and sinners against the LORD
14 exceedingly. And the LORD said unto A'bram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward and eastward and westward:
15 for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give 16 it, and to thy seed for ever. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed
17 also be numbered. Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for unto 18 thee will I give it. And A'bram moved his tent, and came and dwelt by the [2]oaks of Mam're, which are in He'bron, and built there an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER XIV.

Battle of the kings—Lot is taken prisoner—Melchizedek blesseth Abram.

B. C. about 1719.

AND it came to pass in the days of Am'ra-phel king [a]of Shi'nar, A'ri-och king of El'la-sar, Ched-or-la'o-mer king of [b]E'lam, and Ti'dal king of nations;

2 That these made war with Be'ra king of Sod'om, and with Bir'sha king of Go-mor'rah, Shi'nab king of [c]Ad'mah, and Shem'-e-ber king of Ze-bo'i-im, and the king of Be'la, which is [d]Zo'ar.

3 All these were joined together in the vale of Sid'dim, [e]which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve years [f]they served Ched-or-la'o-mer, and in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth year came Ched-or-la'o-mer, and the kings that were with him, and smote [g]the Reph'a-im [h]in Ash'te-roth Kar'na-im, and [i]the Zu'zim in Ham, [k]and the E'mim in ‖ Sha'veh Kir-i-a-tha'im,

6 [l]And the Ho'rites in their mount Se'ir, unto ‖ El-pa'ran, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mish'pat, which is Ka'desh, and smote all the country of the Am'a-lek-ites, and also the Am'o-rites, that dwelt [m]in Haz'e-zon-ta'mar.

8 And there went out the king of Sod'om, and the king of Go-mor'rah, and the king of Ad'mah, and the king of Ze-bo'i-im, and the king of Be'la, (the same is Zo'ar;) and they joined battle with them in the vale of Sid'dim;

9 With Ched-or-la'o-mer the king of E'lam, and with Ti'dal king of nations, and Am'ra-phel king of Shi'nar, and A'ri-och king of El'la-sar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Sid'dim was full of [n]slime pits; and the kings of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled [o]to the mountain.

11 And they took [p]all the goods of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, A'bram's [q]brother's son, [r]who dwelt in Sod'om, and his goods, and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one that had escaped, and told A'bram the He'brew; for [s]he dwelt in the plain of Mam're the Am'o-rite, brother of Esh'col, and brother of A'ner: [t]and these were confederate with A'bram.

14 And when A'bram heard that [u]his brother was taken captive, he ‖ armed his ‖ trained servants, [w]born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them [x]unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and [y]smote them, and pursued them unto Ho'bah, which is on the left hand of Da-mas'cus.

16 And he brought back [z]all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sod'om [a]went out to meet him, [b](after his return from the slaughter of Ched-or-la'o-mer, and of the kings that were with him,) at the valley of Sha'veh, which is the [c]king's dale.

18 And [d]Mel-chiz'e-dek king of Sa'lem brought forth bread and wine: and he was [e]the priest of [f]the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be A'bram of the most high God, [g]possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And [h]blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes [i]of all.

21 And the king of Sod'om said unto A'bram, Give me the †persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And A'bram said to the king of Sod'om, I [k]have lifted up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, [l]the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That [m]I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made A'bram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men [n]which went with me, A'ner, Esh'col, and Mam're; let them take their portion.

14 And it came to pass in the days of Am'ra-phel king of Shi'nar, A'ri-och king of El'la-sar, Ched-or-la'o-mer king of E'lam, and Ti'dal king of [1]Go'i-im,
2 that they made war with Be'ra king of Sod'om, and with Bir'sha king of Go-mor'rah, Shi'nab king of Ad'mah, and Shem'e-ber king of Ze-bo'i-im, and the 3 king of Be'la (the same is Zo'ar). All these [2]joined together in the vale of Sid'dim (the same is the Salt
4 Sea). Twelve years they served Ched-or-la'o-mer,
5 and in the thirteenth year they rebelled. And in the fourteenth year came Ched-or-la'o-mer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Reph'a-im in Ash'te-roth-kar'na-im, and the Zu'zim in Ham, and
6 the E'mim in [3]Sha'veh-kir-i-a-tha'im, and the Ho'rites in their mount Se'ir, unto El-pa'ran, which is by the 7 wilderness. And they returned, and came to En-mish'pat (the same is Ka'desh), and smote all the [4]country of the Am'a-lek-ites, and also the Am'o-rites,
8 that dwelt in Haz'a-zon-ta'mar. And there went out the king of Sod'om, and the king of Go-mor'rah, and the king of Ad'mah, and the king of Ze-bo'i-im, and the king of Be'la (the same is Zo'ar); and they set the battle in array against them in the vale of Sid'-
9 dim; against Ched-or-la'o-mer king of E'lam, and Ti'dal king of Go'i-im, and Am'ra-phel king of Shi'-nar, and A'ri-och king of El'la-sar; four kings against 10 the five. Now the vale of Sid'dim was full of [5]slime pits; and the kings of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah fled, and they fell there, and they that remained fled to 11 the mountain. And they took all the goods of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and all their victuals, and 12 went their way. And they took Lot, A'bram's brother's son, who dwelt in Sod'om, and his goods,
13 and departed. And there came one that had escaped, and told A'bram the He'brew: now he dwelt by the [6]oaks of Mam're the Am'o-rite, brother of Esh'col, and brother of A'ner; and these were 14 confederate with A'bram. And when A'bram heard that his brother was taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and 15 eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan. And he divided himself against them by night, he and his servants, and smote them, and pursued them unto Ho'bah, which is on the [7]left hand of Da-mas'cus.
16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and 17 the women also, and the people. And the king of Sod'om went out to meet him, after his return from the slaughter of Ched-or-la'o-mer and the kings that were with him, at the vale of Sha'veh (the same is 18 the King's Vale). And Mel-chiz'e-dek king of Sa'lem brought forth bread and wine: and he was priest
19 of [8]God Most High. And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be A'bram of [8]God Most High, [9]pos-
20 sessor of heaven and earth: and blessed be [8]God Most High, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him a tenth of all.
21 And the king of Sod'om said unto A'bram, Give me
22 the persons, and take the goods to thyself. And A'bram said to the king of Sod'om, I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, [8]God Most High, [9]pos-
23 sessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take a thread nor a shoelatchet nor aught that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made A'bram rich:
24 [10]save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which went with me; A'ner, Esh'col, and Mam're, let them take their portion.

CHAPTER XV.

Abram justified by faith—Canaan promised, and confirmed by a vision.

AFTER these things the word of the LORD came unto A'bram [a]in a vision, saying, [b]Fear not, A'bram: I am thy [c]shield, and thy exceeding [d]great reward.

2 And A'bram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, [e]seeing I go childless, and the steward of my house is this E'li-e'zer of Da-mas'cus?

3 And A'bram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, [f]one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that [g]shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and [h]tell the [i]stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, [k]So shall thy seed be.

6 And he [l]believed in the LORD; and he [m]counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that [n]brought thee out of [o]Ur of the Chal'dees, [p]to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord GOD, [q]whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and [r]divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but [s]the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcasses, A'bram drove them away.

12 And when the sun was going down, [t]a deep sleep fell upon A'bram; and, lo, a horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto A'bram, Know of a surety [u]that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and [w]they shall afflict them four hundred years;

14 And also that nation, whom they shall serve, [x]will I judge: and afterward [y]shall they come out with great substance.

15 And [z]thou shalt go [a]to thy fathers in peace; [b]thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 But [c]in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity [d]of the Am'o-rites [e]is not yet full.

17 And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and †a burning lamp that [f]passed between those pieces.

18 In that same day the LORD [g]made a covenant with A'bram, saying, [h]Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of E'gypt unto the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes:

19 The Ken'ites, and the Ken'iz-zites, and the Kad'mon-ites,

20 And the Hit'tites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Reph'a-im,

21 And the Am'o-rites, and the Ca'naan-ites, and the Gir'ga-shites, and the Jeb'u-sites.

CHAPTER XVI.

Sarai being barren giveth Hagar to Abram—Ishmael is born.

NOW Sa'rai, A'bram's wife, [a]bare him no children: and she had a handmaid, an [b]E-gyp'tian, whose name was [c]Ha'gar.

2 [d]And Sa'rai said unto A'bram, Behold now, the LORD [e]hath restrained me from bearing: I pray [f]thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may †obtain children by her. And A'bram [g]hearkened to the voice of Sa'rai.

3 And Sa'rai, A'bram's wife, took Ha'gar her maid the E-gyp'tian, after A'bram [h]had dwelt ten years in the land of Ca'naan, and gave her to her husband A'bram to be his wife.

4 ¶And he went in unto Ha'gar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was [i]despised in her eyes.

5 And Sa'rai said unto A'bram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: [k]the LORD judge between me and thee.

15 After these things the word of the LORD came unto A'bram in a vision, saying, Fear not, A'bram: I am thy shield, [1]and thy exceeding great reward.

2 And A'bram said, O Lord [2]GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I [3]go childless, and he that shall be possessor of my house is [4]Dam'me-sek E'li-e'zer?

3 And A'bram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And, behold, the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, This man shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall

5 be thine heir. And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to tell them: and he said unto

6 him, So shall thy seed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the LORD that brought thee out of Ur of the Chal'dees, to give thee this

8 land to inherit it. And he said, O Lord GOD,

9 whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtledove, and a young

10 pigeon. And he took him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each half over against 11 the other: but the birds divided he not. And the birds of prey came down upon the carcases, and

12 A'bram drove them away. And when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon A'bram; and, lo,

13 an horror of great darkness fell upon him. And he said unto A'bram, Know of a surety that thy seed shall be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict them four

14 hundred years; and also that nation, whom they shall serve, will I judge: and afterward shall they

15 come out with great substance. But thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a

16 good old age. And in the fourth generation they shall come hither again: for the iniquity of the 17 Am'o-rite is not yet full. And it came to pass, that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch that passed

18 between these pieces. In that day the LORD made a covenant with A'bram, saying, Unto thy seed have I given this land, from the river of E'gypt unto the

19 great river, the river Eu-phra'tes: the Ken'ite, and 20 the Ken'iz-zite, and the Kad'mon-ite, and the Hit'tite,

21 and the Per'iz-zite, and the Reph'a-im, and the Am'o-rite, and the Ca'naan-ite, and the Gir'ga-shite, and the Jeb'u-site.

16 Now Sa'rai A'bram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an E-gyp'tian, whose name

2 was Ha'gar. And Sa'rai said unto A'bram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing; go in, I pray thee, unto my handmaid; it may be that I shall [5]obtain children by her. And A'bram heark-

3 ened to the voice of Sa'rai. And Sa'rai A'bram's wife took Ha'gar the Egyptian, her handmaid, after A'bram had dwelt ten years in the land of Ca'naan, and gave

4 her to A'bram her husband to be his wife. And he went in unto Ha'gar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised

5 in her eyes. And Sa'rai said unto A'bram, My wrong be upon thee: I gave my handmaid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the LORD judge between me and thee.

CHAPTER XVII.

God reneweth his covenant—Circumcision instituted—Isaac is promised.

AND when A'bram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD [a]appeared to A'bram, and said unto him, [b]I am the Almighty God; [c]walk before me, and be thou || [d]perfect.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and [e]will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And A'bram [f]fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be [g]a father of †many nations.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called A'bram, but [h]thy name shall be || A'bra-ham; [i]for a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make [k]nations of thee, and [l]kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will [m]establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant: [n]to be a God unto thee, and to [o]thy seed after thee.

8 And [p]I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land †[q]wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Ca'naan, for an everlasting possession; and [r]I will be their God.

9 ¶And God said unto A'bra-ham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee in their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; [s]Every man child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be [t]a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And †he that is eight days old [u]shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

6 But A'bram said unto Sa'rai, Behold thy maid is in thy hand; do to her that which is good in thine eyes. And Sa'rai dealt hardly with her, and she fled from 7 her face. And the angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in 8 the way to Shur. And he said, Ha'gar, Sa'rai's handmaid, whence camest thou? and whither goest thou? And she said, I flee from the face of my mistress Sa'rai.
9 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.
10 And the angel of the LORD said unto her, I will greatly multiply thy seed, that it shall not be num-
11 bered for multitude. And the angel of the LORD said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son; and thou shalt call his name [1]Ish'ma-el,
12 because the LORD hath heard thy affliction. And he shall be as a wild-ass among men; his hand shall be against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell [2]in the presence of all his 13 brethren. And she called the name of the LORD that spake unto her, [3]Thou art [4]a God that seeth: for she said, Have I even here looked after him that 14 seeth me? Wherefore the well was called [5]Be'er-la-hai'-roi; behold, it is between Ka'desh and Be'red.
15 And Ha'gar bare A'bram a son: and A'bram called the name of his son, which Ha'gar bare, Ish'ma-el.
16 And A'bram was fourscore and six years old, when Ha'gar bare Ish'ma-el to A'bram.

17 And when A'bram was ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to A'bram, and said unto him, I am [6]God Almighty; walk before me, and be thou
2 perfect. And I will make my covenant between me
3 and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly. And A'bram fell on his face: and God talked with him,
4 saying, As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be the father of a multitude of nations.
5 Neither shall thy name any more be called A'bram, but thy name shall be A'bra-ham; for the father of a
6 multitude of nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make nations
7 of thee, and kings shall come out of thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God unto thee and 8 to thy seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land of thy sojournings, all the land of Ca'naan, for an everlasting pos-
9 session; and I will be their God. And God said unto A'bra-ham, And as for thee, thou shalt keep my covenant, thou, and thy seed after thee throughout 10 their generations. This is my covenant, which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee; every male among you shall be circumcised.
11 And ye shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin; and it shall be a token of a covenant be-
12 twixt me and you. And he that is eight days old shall be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not
13 of thy seed. He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh
14 for an everlasting covenant. And the uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.

15 ¶And God said unto A'bra-ham, As for Sa'rai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sa'rai, but ||Sa'rah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, [z]and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and †she shall be a mother [v]of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

17 Then A'bra-ham fell upon his face, [x]and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is a hundred years old? and shall Sa'rah, that is ninety years old, bear?

18 And A'bra-ham said unto God, O that Ish'ma-el might live before thee!

19 And God said, [a]Sa'rah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name I'saac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

20 And as for Ish'ma-el, I have heard thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [b]will multiply him exceedingly; [c]twelve princes shall he beget, [d]and I will make him a great nation.

21 But my covenant will I establish with I'saac, [e]which Sa'rah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from A'bra-ham.

23 ¶And A'bra-ham took Ish'ma-el his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of A'bra-ham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

24 And A'bra-ham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Ish'ma-el his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the self-same day was A'bra-ham circumcised, and Ish'ma-el his son.

27 And [f]all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The destruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham.

1898. AND the LORD appeared unto him in the [a]plains of Mam're: and he sat in the tent door in the heat of the day;

2 [b]And he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood by him: [c]and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and bowed himself toward the ground,

3 And said, My lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let [d]a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the tree:

5 And [e]I will fetch a morsel of bread, and †[f]comfort ye your hearts; after that ye shall pass on: [g]for therefore †are ye come to your servant. And they said, So do, as thou hast said.

6 And A'bra-ham hastened into the tent unto Sa'rah, and said, †Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And A'bra-ham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And [h]he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they did eat.

9 ¶And they said unto him, Where is Sa'rah thy wife? And he said, Behold, [i]in the tent.

10 And he said, I [k]will certainly return unto thee [l]according to the time of life; and, lo, [m]Sa'rah thy wife shall have a son. And Sa'rah heard it in the tent-door, which was behind him.

11 Now [n]A'bra-ham and Sa'rah were old and well stricken in age; and it ceased to be with Sa'rah [o]after the manner of women.

15 And God said unto A'bra-ham, As for Sa'rai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sa'rai, but [1]Sa'rah
16 shall her name be. And I will bless her, and moreover I will give thee a son of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of peo-
17 ples shall be of her. Then A'braham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old?
18 and shall Sa'rah, that is ninety years old, bear? And A'bra-ham said unto God, Oh that Ish'ma-el might 19 live before thee! And God said, Nay, but Sa'rah thy wife shall bear thee a son; and thou shalt call his name [2]I'saac: and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his seed
20 after him. And as for Ish'ma-el, I have heard thee: behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly; twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.
21 But my covenant will I establish with I'saac, which Sa'rah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next
22 year. And he left off talking with him, and God went 23 up from A'bra-ham. And A'bra-ham took Ish'ma-el his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of A'bra-ham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had 24 said unto him. And A'bra-ham was ninety years old and nine, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his 25 foreskin. And Ish'ma-el his son was thirteen years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his 26 foreskin. In the selfsame day was A'bra-ham circum-
27 cised, and Ish'ma-el his son. And all the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

18 And the LORD appeared unto him by the [3]oaks of Mam're, as he sat in the tent door in the heat of the
2 day; and he lift up his eyes and looked, and, lo, three men stood over against him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent door, and
3 bowed himself to the earth, and said, [4]My lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, pass not away,
4 I pray thee, from thy servant: let now a little water be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest yourselves
5 under the tree: and I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort ye your heart; after that ye shall pass on: [5]forasmuch as ye are come to your servant.
6 And they said, So do, as thou hast said. And A'bra-ham hastened into the tent unto Sa'rah, and said, Make ready quickly three measures of fine meal,
7 knead it, and make cakes. And A'bra-ham ran unto the herd, and fetched a calf tender and good, and gave it unto the servant; and he hasted to dress
8 it. And he took butter, and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree, and they
9 did eat. And they said unto him, Where is Sa'rah
10 thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent. And he said, I will certainly return unto thee when the season [6]cometh round; and, lo, Sa'rah thy wife shall have a son. And Sa'rah heard in the 11 tent door, which was behind him. Now A'bra-ham and Sa'rah were old, and well stricken in age; it had ceased to be with Sa'rah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sa'rah [p]laughed within herself, saying, [q]After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my [r]lord being old also?

15 Then Sa'rah denied, saying, I laughed not; for she was afraid. And he said, Nay; but thou didst laugh.
16 ¶ And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sod'om: and A'bra-ham went with them [u]to bring them on the way.
17 And the LORD said, [w]Shall I hide from A'bra-ham that thing which I do;
18 Seeing that A'bra-ham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be [x]blessed in him?
19 For I know him, [y]that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon A'bra-ham that which he hath spoken of him.
20 And the LORD said, Because [z]the cry of Sod'om and Go-mor'rah is great, and because their sin is very grievous,
21 [a]I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, [b]I will know.
22 And the men turned their faces from thence, [c]and went toward Sod'om: but A'bra-ham [d]stood yet before the LORD.
23 ¶ And A'bra-ham [e]drew near, and said, [f]Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

Sodom and Gomorrah destroyed—Lot's wife made a pillar of salt.

AND there [a]came two angels to Sod'om at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sod'om: and [b]Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;
2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, [c]turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and [d]wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, [e]Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

12 And Sa'rah laughed within herself, saying, After I am waxed old shall I have pleasure, my lord

25 That be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked, that so the righteous should be as the wicked; that be far from thee: shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?
26 And the LORD said, If I find in Sod'om fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; [f]and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sod'om, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 [g]And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? [h]bring them out unto us, that we [i]may know them.

6 And [k]Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him.

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 [l]Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; [m]for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow [n]came in to sojourn, [o]and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men [p]that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, [q]bring them out of this place:

13 For we will destroy this place, because the [r]cry of them is waxen great before the face of the LORD; and [s]the LORD hath sent us to destroy it.

14 And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, [t]which married his daughters, and said, [u]Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy this city. [x]But he seemed as one that mocked unto his sons in law.

15 ¶And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, [y]Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters, which †are here; lest thou be consumed in the ‖iniquity of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; [a]the LORD being merciful unto him: [b]and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

17 ¶And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, [c]Escape for thy life; [d]look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh, [e]not so, my Lord:

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I can not escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: O, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, [f]I have accepted †thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for [g]I can not do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore [h]the name of the city was called ‖Zo'ar.

23 ¶The sun was †risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zo'ar.

24 Then [i]the LORD rained upon Sod'om and upon Go-mor'rah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and [k]that which grew upon the ground.

B. C. 1898.

3 And he urged them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened
4 bread, and they did eat. But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sod'om, compassed the house round, both young and old, all the
5 people from every quarter; and they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us,
6 that we may know them. And Lot went out unto
7 them to the door, and shut the door after him. And he said, I pray you, my brethren, do not so wick-
8 edly. Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; [1]forasmuch as they are come under the shadow of 9 my roof. And they said, Stand back. And they said, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and drew near to break the door.
10 But the men put forth their hand, and brought Lot
11 into the house to them, and shut to the door. And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that 12 they wearied themselves to find the door. And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whomsoever thou hast in the city; bring them out
13 of the place: for we will destroy this place, because the ery of them is waxen great before the LORD;
14 and the LORD hath sent us to destroy it. And Lot went out, and spake unto his sons in law, which [2]married his daughters, and said, Up, get you out of this place; for the LORD will destroy the city. But he seemed unto his sons in law as one that 15 mocked. And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which are here; lest thou
16 be consumed in the [3]iniquity of the city. But he lingered; and the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him
17 without the city. And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the [4]Plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be 18 consumed. And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so,
19 [5]my lord: behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I can not escape to the mountain, lest
20 [6]evil overtake me, and I die: behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my 21 soul shall live. And he said unto him, See, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which thou hast spoken.
22 Haste thee, escape thither; for I can not do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore the 23 name of the city was called [7]Zo'ar. The sun was risen upon the earth when Lot came unto 24 Zo'ar. Then the LORD rained upon Sod'om and upon Go-mor'rah brimstone and fire from the LORD
25 out of heaven; and he overthrew those cities, and all the Plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

34 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the firstborn said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesternight with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

CHAPTER XX.

Abraham sojourneth at Gerar—He denieth his wife, and loseth her.

about 1898.

AND A'bra-ham journeyed from [a]thence toward the south country, and dwelt between [b]Ka'desh and Shur, and [c]sojourned in Ge'rar.

2 And A'bra-ham said of Sa'rah his wife, [d]She is my sister: and A-bim'e-lech king of Ge'rar sent, and [e]took Sa'rah.

3 But [f]God came to A-bim'e-lech [g]in a dream by night, and said to him, [h]Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is †a man's wife.

4 But A-bim'e-lech had not come near her: and he said, LORD, [i]wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: [k]in the ‖integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for [l]I also withheld thee from sinning [m]against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; [n]for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, [o]know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, [p]and all that are thine.

8 Therefore A-bim'e-lech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then A-bim'e-lech called A'bra-ham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, [q]that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me [r]that ought not to be done.

10 And A-bim'e-lech said unto A'braham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

26 But his wife looked back from behind him, and 27 she became a pillar of salt. And A'bra-ham gat up early in the morning to the place where he had 28 stood before the LORD: and he looked toward Sod'om and Go-mor'rah, and toward all the land of the Plain, and beheld, and, lo, the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.

37 of Lot with child by their father. And the firstborn bare a son, and called his name Mo'ab: the same is 38 the father of the Mo'ab-ites unto this day. And the younger, she also bare a son, and called his name Ben-am'mi: the same is the father of the children of Am'mon unto this day.

CHAPTER XXI.

Isaac born and circumcised—Hagar and Ishmael cast forth.

AND the LORD [a]visited Sa'rah as he had said, and the LORD did unto Sa'rah [b]as he had spoken.
2 For Sa'rah [c]conceived, and bare A'bra-ham a son in his old age, [d]at the set time of which God had spoken to him.
3 And A'bra-ham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sa'rah bare to him, [e]I'saac.
4 And A'bra-ham [f]circumcised his son I'saac being eight days old, [g]as God had commanded him.
5 And [h]A'bra-ham was a hundred years old, when his son I'saac was born unto him.
6 ¶ And Sa'rah said, [i]God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear [k]will laugh with me.
7 And she said, Who would have said unto A'bra-ham, that Sa'rah should have given children suck? [l]for I have borne him a son in his old age.
8 And the child grew, and was weaned: And A'bra-ham made a great feast the same day that I'saac was weaned.
9 ¶ And Sa'rah saw the son of Ha'gar [m]the E-gyp'tian, [n]which she had borne unto A'bra-ham, [o]mocking.
10 Wherefore she said unto A'bra-ham, [p]Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even with I'saac.
11 And the thing was very grievous in A'bra-ham's sight [q]because of his son.
12 ¶ And God said unto A'bra-ham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sa'rah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in [r]I'saac shall thy seed be called.
13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make [s]a nation, because he is thy seed.
14 And A'bra-ham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Ha'gar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and [t]sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Be'er-she'ba.
15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.
16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.
17 And [u]God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Ha'gar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Ha'gar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

11 And A'bra-ham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will 12 slay me for my wife's sake. And moreover she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became
13 my wife: and it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come,
14 say of me, He is my brother. And A-bim'e-lech took sheep and oxen, and menservants and womenservants, and gave them unto A'bra-ham, and restored
15 him Sa'rah his wife. And A-bim'e-lech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.
16 And unto Sa'rah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand pieces of silver: behold, [1]it is for thee a covering of the eyes to all that are with 17 thee; and [2]in respect of all thou art righted. And A'bra-ham prayed unto God: and God healed A-bim'e-lech, and his wife, and his maidservants; and they 18 bare children. For the LORD had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of A-bim'e-lech, because of Sa'rah A'bra-ham's wife.

21 And the LORD visited Sa'rah as he had said, and
2 the LORD did unto Sa'rah as he had spoken. And Sa'rah conceived, and bare A'bra-ham a son in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to 3 him. And A'bra-ham called the name of his son that was born unto him, whom Sa'rah bare to him, I'saac.
4 And A'bra-ham circumcised his son I'saac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him.
5 And A'bra-ham was an hundred years old, when his
6 son I'saac was born unto him. And Sa'rah said, God hath [3]made me to laugh; every one that heareth
7 will laugh with me. And she said, Who would have said unto A'bra-ham, that Sa'rah should give children suck? for I have borne him a son in his old age.
8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and A'bra-ham made a great feast on the day that I'saac was 9 weaned. And Sa'rah saw the son of Ha'gar the E-gyp'tian, which she had borne unto A'bra-ham,
10 [4]mocking. Wherefore she said unto A'bra-ham, Cast out this bondwoman and her son: for the son of this bondwoman shall not be heir with my son, even 11 with I'saac. And the thing was very grievous in 12 A'bra-ham's sight on account of his son. And God said unto A'bra-ham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad, and because of thy bondwoman; in all that Sa'rah saith unto thee, hearken unto her voice; for in I'saac shall thy seed be called.
13 And also of the son of the bondwoman will I make 14 a nation, because he is thy seed. And A'bra-ham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a [5]bottle of water, and gave it unto Ha'gar, putting it on her shoulder, and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of 15 Be'er-she'ba. And the water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.
16 And she went, and sat her down over against him a good way off, as it were a bowshot: for she said, Let me not look upon the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and 17 wept. And God heard the voice of the lad; and the angel of God called to Ha'gar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Ha'gar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for [w]I will make him a great nation.
19 And [x]God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.
20 And God [y]was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, [z]and became an archer.
21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Pa'ran: and his mother [a]took him a wife out of the land of E'gypt.
22 ¶And it came to pass at that time, that [b]A-bim'e-lech and Phi'chol the chief captain of his host spake unto A'bra-ham, saying, [c]God is with thee in all that thou doest:
23 Now therefore [d]swear unto me here by God, †that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son's son; but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned.
24 And A'bra-ham said, I will swear.
25 And A'bra-ham reproved A-bim'e-lech because of a well of water, which A-bim'e-lech's servants [e]had violently taken away.
26 And A-bim'e-lech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to-day.
27 And A'bra-ham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto A-bim'e-lech; and both of them [f]made a covenant.
28 And A'bra-ham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.
29 And A-bim'e-lech said unto A'bra-ham, [g]What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

Abraham tempted to offer Isaac—He giveth proof of his faith and obedience.

1872. Jos. Ant.

AND it came to pass after these things, that [a]God did tempt A'bra-ham, and said unto him, A'bra-ham: and he said, †Behold, here I am.
2 And he said, Take now thy son, [b]thine only son I'saac, whom thou lovest, and get thee [c]into the land of Mo-ri'ah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.
3 ¶And A'bra-ham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and I'saac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.
4 Then on the third day A'bra-ham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.
5 And A'bra-ham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.
6 And A'bra-ham took the wood of the burnt offering, and [d]laid it upon I'saac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife; and they went both of them together.
7 And I'saac spake unto A'bra-ham his father, and said, My father: and he said, †Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the ||lamb for a burnt offering?
8 And A'bra-ham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.
9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and A'bra-ham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound I'saac his son, and [e]laid him on the altar upon the wood.

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand;
19 for I will make him a great nation. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave 20 the lad drink. And God was with the lad, and he grew; and he dwelt in the wilderness, and [1]became 21 an archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Pa'ran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of E'gypt.
22 And it came to pass at that time, that A-bim'e-lech and Phi'col the captain of his host spake unto A'bra-ham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest:
23 now therefore swear unto me here by God that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with [2]my son, nor with my son's son: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me,
24 and to the land wherein thou hast sojourned. And 25 A'bra-ham said, I will swear. And A'bra-ham reproved A-bim'e-lech because of the well of water, which A-bim'e-lech's servants had violently taken away.
26 And A-bim'e-lech said, I know not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard
27 I of it, but to-day. And A'bra-ham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto A-bim'e-lech; and they two 28 made a covenant. And A'bra-ham set seven ewe
29 lambs of the flock by themselves. And A-bim'e-lech said unto A'bra-ham, What mean these seven ewe
30 lambs which thou hast set by themselves? And he said, These seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that it may be a witness unto me, that I have 31 digged this well. Wherefore he called that place Be'er-she'ba; because there they sware both of them.
32 So they made a coveuant at Be'er-she'ba: and A-bim'e-lech rose up, and Phi'col the captain of his host, and 33 they returned into the land of the Phi-lis'tines. And A'bra-ham planted a tamarisk tree in Be'er-she'ba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Ever-
34 lasting God. And A'bra-ham sojourned in the land of the Phi-lis'tines many days.

[1] Or, became, as he grew up, an archer.

22 And it came to pass after these things, that God did prove A'bra-ham, and said unto him, A'bra-ham;
2 and he said, Here am I. And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son, whom thou lovest, even I'saac, and get thee into the land of Mo-ri'ah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the 3 mountains which I will tell thee of. And A'bra-ham rose early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and I'saac his son; and he clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God
4 had told him. On the third day A'bra-ham lifted
5 up his eyes, and saw the place afar off. And A'bra-ham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass, and I and the lad will go yonder; and we
6 will worship, and come again to you. And A'bra-ham took the wood of the burnt offering, and laid it upon I'saac his son; and he took in his hand the fire and the knife; and they went both of them together.
7 And I'saac spake unto A'bra-ham his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold, the fire and the wood: but where
8 is the lamb for a burnt offering? And A'bra-ham said, God will [3]provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son: so they went both of them to-
9 gether. And they came to the place which God had told him of; and A'bra-ham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound I'saac his son, and laid him on the altar, upon the wood.

10 And A'bra-ham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.
11 And the Angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, A'bra-ham, A'bra-ham: and he said, Here am I.
12 And he said, [f] Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for [g] now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son, from me.
13 And A'bra-ham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and A'bra-ham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.
14 And A'bra-ham called the name of that place ‖ Je-ho'-vah-ji'reh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.
15 ¶ And the Angel of the LORD called unto A'bra-ham out of heaven the second time,

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed [i] as the stars of the heaven, and [k] as the sand which is upon the sea †shore; and [l] thy seed shall possess [m] the gate of his enemies;

19 So A'bra-ham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to [p] Be'er-she'ba; and A'bra-ham dwelt at Be'er-she'ba.
20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told A'bra-ham, saying, Behold, [q] Mil'cah, she hath also borne children unto thy brother Na'hor;
21 [r] Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kem'u-el the father [s] of A'ram, 1857. AND A'bra-ham ᵃwas old, and †well stricken in age: and the LORD ᵇhad blessed A'bra-ham in all things.

6 And A'bra-ham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

BETHLEHEM.—The allusions to Bethlehem in the Scriptures, are very numerous. It is sometimes spoken of as Ephratah, or Bethlehem-Ephratah, a Hebrew term expressive of the fruitfulness of the locality. This fruitfulness, especially in contrast to the barren wilderness of Judæa, almost in sight, is still very remarkable. And who has not pondered that beautiful prophecy: "But thou, Bethlehem-Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto Me, that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting"—(Micah. v, 2). The far-famed city of the Nativity of Christ is situated on an elongated hill, six miles from Jerusalem. This hill is well cultivated in terraces round the sides, and there are fertile corn fields in the valley below. The town lies 2550 feet above the level of the sea, and contains about 8000 inhabitants

THE GREAT PYRAMID FROM THE DESERT.—The time consumed in a journey from Bethlehem to Egypt is about three days. History does not inform us in what part of Egypt the Holy Family resided during the two years they remained there, but it is safe to assume it was somewhere in the Nile valley, and ascending the Nile the Pyramids would be almost directly in their path. At this time the Pyramids had been built over three thousand years. The sight of these great masses and their artistic construction excites surprise and admiration. The base of the one in the picture, the plan of which is quadrilateral, is 700 feet on each side and more than 600 feet high. It is said that more than 360,000 men were compulsorily employed in the work for a period of 20 years.

13 Behold, [t]I stand here by the well of water; and [u]the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:
14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant I'saac; and [w]thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.
15 ¶And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Re-bek'ah came out, who was born to Beth'u-el, son of [x]Mil'cah, the wife of Na'hor, A'bra-ham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.
16 And the damsel [y]was †very fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.
17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.
18 [z]And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.
19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.
20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.
21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether [a]the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.
22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [b]‖ earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;
23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?
24 And she said unto him, [c]I am the daughter of Beth'u-el the son of Mil'cah, which she bare unto Na'hor.
25 She said moreover unto him, We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.
26 And the man [d]bowed down his head, and worshipped the LORD.
27 And he said, [e]Blessed be the LORD God of my master A'bra-ham, who hath not left destitute my master of [f]his mercy and his truth: I being in the way, the LORD [g]led me to the house of my master's brethren.
28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.
29 ¶And Re-bek'ah had a brother, and his name was [h]La'ban: and La'ban ran out unto the man, unto the well.
30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring, and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Re-bek'ah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me, that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.
31 And he said, Come in, [i]thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.
32 ¶And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and [k]gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.
33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, [l]I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.
34 And he said, I am A'bra-ham's servant.
35 And the LORD [m]hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and menservants, and maidservants, and camels, and asses.

12 And he said, O LORD, the God of my master A'bra-ham, send me, I pray thee, good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master A'bra-
13 ham. Behold, I stand by the fountain of water; and the daughters of the men of the city come

26 And the man bowed his head, and worshipped the 27 LORD. And he said, Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master A'bra-ham, who hath not forsaken his mercy and his truth toward my master: as for me, the LORD hath led me in the way to the house of 28 my master's brethren. And the damsel ran, and told
29 her mother's house according to these words. And Re-bek'ah had a brother, and his name was La'ban: and La'ban ran out unto the man, unto the fountain.
30 And it came to pass, when he saw the ring, and the bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Re-bek'ah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and,

36 And Sa'rah my master's wife [n]bare a son to my master when she was old: and [o]unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master [p]made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Ca'naan-ites, in whose land I dwell:

38 [q]But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

39 [r]And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 [s]And he said unto me, The LORD, [t]before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my son of my kindred, and of my father's house:

41 [u]Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, [w]O LORD God of my master A'bra-ham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 [x]Behold, I stand by the well of water; and it shall come to pass, that when the virgin cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the LORD hath appointed out for my master's son.

45 [y]And before I had done [z]speaking in mine heart, behold, Re-bek'ah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water; and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Beth'u-el, Na'hor's son, whom Mil'cah bare unto him: and I [a]put the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 [b]And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master A'bra-ham, which had led me in the right way to take [c]my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now, if ye will [d]deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then La'ban and Beth'u-el answered and said, [e]The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot [f]speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Re-bek'ah [g]is before thee; take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when A'bra-ham's servant heard their words, he [h]worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth [†]jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Re-bek'ah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother [k]precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, [l]Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us ‖ a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and inquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Re-bek'ah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

CHAPTER XXV.

about 1853.

THEN again A'bra-ham took a wife, and her name was Ke-tu'rah.
2 And [a]she bare him Zim'ran, and Jok'shan, and Me'dan, and Mid'i-an, and Ish'bak, and Shu'ah.
3 And Jok'shan begat She'ba, and De'dan. And the sons of De'dan were As-shu'rim, and Le-tu'shim, and Le-um'mim.
4 And the sons of Mid'i-an; E'phah, and E'pher, and Ha'noch, and A-bi'dah, and El-da'ah. All these were the children of Ke-tu'rah.
5 ¶And [b]A'bra-ham gave all that he had unto I'saac.
6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which A'bra-ham had, A'bra-ham gave gifts, and [c]sent them away from I'saac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto [d]the east country.
7 And these are the days of the years of A'braham's life which he lived, a hundred threescore and fifteen years.
8 Then A'bra-ham gave up the ghost, and [e]died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and [f]was gathered to his people.
9 And [g]his sons I'saac and Ish'ma-el buried him in the cave of Mach-pe'lah, in the field of E'phron the son of Zo'har the Hit'tite, which is before Mam're;
10 [h]The field which A'bra-ham purchased of the sons of Heth: [i]there was A'bra-ham buried, and Sar'ah his wife.
11 ¶And it came to pass after the death of A'bra-ham, that God blessed his son I'saac; and I'saac dwelt by the [k]well La-hai'-roi.
12 ¶Now these are the generations of Ish'ma-el, A'bra-ham's son, [l]whom Ha'gar the E-gyp'tian, Sa'rah's handmaid, bare unto A'bra-ham:
13 And [m]these are the names of the sons of Ish'ma-el, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ish'ma-el, Ne-ba'joth; and Ke'dar, and Ad'be-el, and Mib'sam,
14 And Mish'ma, and Du'mah, and Mas'sa,
15 ‖ Ha'dar, and Te'ma, Je'tur, Na'phish, and Ked'e-mah:
16 These are the sons of Ish'ma-el, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; [n]twelve princes according to their nations.
17 And these are the years of the life of Ish'ma-el, a hundred and thirty and seven years: and he [o]gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people.
18 [p]And they dwelt from Hav'i-lah unto Shur, that is before E'gypt, as thou goest toward As-syr'i-a: and he †died [q]in the presence of all his brethren.

19 And these are the generations of I'saac, A'bra-ham's
20 son: A'bra-ham begat I'saac: and I'saac was forty years old when he took Re-bek'ah, the daughter of Beth'u-el [1]the Syr'ian of Pad'dan-a'ram, the sister of La'ban the 21 [1]Syr'ian, to be his wife. And I'saac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: and the LORD was intreated of him, and Re-bek'ah his wife

10 And A-bim'e-lech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lain with thy wife, and [p]thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.

11 And A-bim'e-lech charged all his people, saying, He that [q]toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.

12 Then I'saac sowed in that land, and †received in the same year [r]a hundredfold: and the LORD [s]blessed him:

13 And the man [t]waxed great, and †went forward, and grew until he became very great:

14 For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of || servants: and the Phi-lis'tines [u]envied him.

15 For all the wells [w]which his father's servants had digged in the days of A'bra-ham his father, the Phi-lis'tines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.

16 And A-bim'e-lech said unto I'saac, Go from us; for [z]thou art much mightier than we.

17 ¶And I'saac departed thence, and pitched his tent in the valley of Ge'rar, and dwelt there.

18 And I'saac digged again the wells of water, which they had digged in the days of A'bra-ham his father; for the Phi-lis'tines had stopped them after the death of A'bra-ham: [v]and he called their names after the names by which his father had called them.

19 And I'saac's servants digged in the valley, and found there a well of †springing water.

20 And the herdmen of Ge'rar [c]did strive with I'saac's herdmen, saying, The water is ours: and he called the name of the well || E'sek; because they strove with him.

21 And they digged another well, and strove for that also: and he called the name of it || Sit'nah.

22 And he removed from thence, and digged another well; and for that they strove not: and he called the name of it || Re-ho'both; and he said, For now the LORD hath made room for us, and we shall [a]be fruitful in the land.

23 And he went up from thence to Be'er-she'ba.

24 And the LORD appeared unto him the same night, and said, [b]I am the God of A'bra-ham thy father: [c]fear not, for [d]I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant A'bra-ham's sake.

25 And he [e]builded an altar there, and [f]called upon the name of the LORD, and pitched his tent there: and there I'saac's servants digged a well.

26 ¶Then A-bim'e-lech went to him from Ge'rar, and A-huz'zath one of his friends, [g]and Phi'chol the chief captain of his army.

27 And I'saac said unto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing [h]ye hate me, and have [i]sent me away from you?

28 And they said, †We saw certainly that the LORD [k]was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee;

29 †That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: [l]thou art now the blessed of the LORD.

30 [m]And he made them a feast, and they did eat and drink.

31 And they rose up betimes in the morning, and [n]sware one to another: and I'saac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace.

32 And it came to pass the same day, that I'saac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had digged, and said unto him, We have found water.

33 And he called it || She'bah: [o]therefore the name of the city is || Be'er-she'ba unto this day.

27 the captain of his host. And I'saac said unto them, Wherefore are ye come unto me, seeing ye hate me,

CHAPTER XXVII.

Isaac sendeth Esau for venison—Jacob obtaineth the blessing.

AND it came to pass, that when I'saac was old, and [c]his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called E'sau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I.

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I [b]know not the day of my death:

3 [c]Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and †take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul [d]may bless thee before I die.

5 And Re-bek'ah heard when I'saac spake to E'sau his son. And E'sau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶And Re-bek'ah spake unto Ja'cob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto E'sau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, [e]obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them [f]savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he [g]may bless thee before his death.

11 And Ja'cob said to Re-bek'ah his mother, Behold, [h]E'sau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will [i]feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring [k]a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, [l]Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother [m]made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

15 And Re-bek'ah took †[n]goodly raiment of her eldest son E'sau, which were with her in the house, and put them upon Ja'cob her younger son:

16 And she put the skins of the kids of the goats upon his hands, and upon the smooth of his neck:

17 And she gave the savoury meat and the bread, which she had prepared, into the hand of her son Ja'cob.

18 ¶And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Ja'cob said unto his father, I am E'sau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, [o]that thy soul may bless me.

20 And I'saac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God brought it †to me.

21 And I'saac said unto Ja'cob, Come near, I pray thee, that I [p]may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son E'sau or not.

22 And Ja'cob went near unto I'saac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Ja'cob's voice, but the hands are the hands of E'sau.

23 And he discerned him not, because [q]his hands were hairy, as his brother E'sau's hands: so he blessed him.

24 And he said, Art thou my very son E'sau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, [r]that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father I'saac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and blessed him, and said,

27 And it came to pass, that when I'saac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called E'sau his elder son, and said unto him, My

6 to bring it. And Re-bek'ah spake unto Ja'cob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto

See, [a]the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed:

28 Therefore [c]God give thee of [u]the dew of heaven, and [w]the fatness of the earth, and [z]plenty of corn and wine:

29 [y]Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and [z]let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: [a]cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶And it came to pass, as soon as I'saac had made an end of blessing Ja'cob, and Ja'cob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of I'saac his father, that E'sau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and [b]eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And I'saac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn, E'sau.

33 And I'saac †trembled very exceedingly, and said, Who? where is he that hath †taken venison and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, [c]and he shall be blessed.

34 And when E'sau heard the words of his father, [d]he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, [e]Is not he rightly named ‖ Ja'cob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: [f]he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And I'saac answered and said unto E'sau, [g]Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and [h]with corn and wine have I ‖ sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And E'sau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And E'sau lifted up his voice, [i]and wept.

39 And I'saac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, [k]thy dwelling shall be ‖ the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above:

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and [l]shalt serve thy brother; and [m]it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶And E'sau [n]hated Ja'cob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and E'sau said in his heart, [o]The days of mourning for my father are at hand; [p]then will I slay my brother Ja'cob.

42 And these words of E'sau her elder son were told to Re-bek'ah: and she sent and called Ja'cob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother E'sau, as touching thee, doth, [q]comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

43 Now therefore, my son, obey my voice; and arise, flee thou to La'ban my brother [r]to Ha'ran;

44 And tarry with him a few days, until thy brother's fury turn away;

45 Until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget that which thou hast done to him: then I will send, and fetch thee from thence: why should I be deprived also of you both in one day?

46 And Re-bek'ah said to I'saac, [s]I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth: [t]if Ja'cob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these which are of the daughters of the land, what good shall my life do me?

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Vision of Jacob's ladder—Stone of Beth-el—Jacob's vow.

B. C. 1760.

AND I'saac called Ja'cob, and [a]blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, [b]Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Ca'naan.

2 [c]Arise, go to [d]Pa'dan-a'ram, to the house of [e]Beth'u-el thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of [f]La'ban thy mother's brother.

3 [g]And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be †a multitude of people;

4 And give thee [h]the blessing of A'bra-ham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land †[i]wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto A'bra-ham.

5 And I'saac sent away Ja'cob: and he went to Pa'dan-a'ram unto La'ban, son of Beth'u-el the Syr'i-an, the brother of Re-bek'ah, Ja'cob's and E'sau's mother.

6 ¶When E'sau saw that I'saac had blessed Ja'cob, and sent him away to Pa'dan-a'ram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Ca'naan;

7 And that Ja'cob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Pa'dan-a'ram;

8 And E'sau seeing [k]that the daughters of Ca'naan †pleased not I'saac his father;

9 Then went E'sau unto Ish'ma-el, and took unto the wives which he had [l]Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Ish'ma-el A'bra-ham's son, [m]the sister of Ne-ba'joth, to be his wife.

10 ¶And Ja'cob [n]went out from Be'er-she'ba, and went toward [o]Ha'ran.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillows, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he [p]dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold [q]the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 [r]And, behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, [s]I am the LORD God of A'bra-ham thy father, and the God of I'saac: [t]the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed;

14 And [u]thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth: and thou shalt †spread abroad [w]to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and [x]in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And, behold, [y]I am with thee, and will [z]keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will [a]bring thee again into this land; for [b]I will not leave thee, [c]until I have done that which I have spoken to thee of.

16 ¶And Ja'cob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in [d]this place; and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Ja'cob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillows, and [e]set it up for a pillar, [f]and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of [g]that place ‖Beth'-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

20 [h]And Ja'cob vowed a vow, saying, If [i]God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me [k]bread to eat, and raiment to put on,

21 So that [l]I come again to my father's house in peace; [m]then shall the LORD be my God:

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, [n]shall be God's house: [o]and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

28 And I'saac called Ja'cob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him, Thou shalt not take a wife of 2 the daughters of Ca'naan. Arise, go to Pad'dan-a'ram, to the house of Beth'u-el thy mother's father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of 3 La'ban thy mother's brother. And [1]God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that
4 thou mayest be a company of peoples; and give thee the blessing of A'bra-ham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land of thy so-
5 journings, which God gave unto A'bra-ham. And I'saac sent away Ja'cob: and he went to Pad'dan-a'ram unto La'ban, son of Beth'u-el the [2]Syr'i-an, the brother of 6 Re-bek'ah, Ja'cob's and E'sau's mother. Now E'sau saw that I'saac had blessed Ja'cob and sent him away to Pad'dan-a'ram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the 7 daughters of Ca'naan; and that Ja'cob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Pad'dan-
8 a'ram: and E'sau saw that the daughters of Ca'naan
9 pleased not I'saac his father; and E'sau went unto Ish'ma-el, and took unto the wives which he had Ma'ha-lath the daughter of Ish'ma-el A'bra-ham's son, the sister of Ne-ba'ioth, to be his wife.
10 And Ja'cob went out from Be'er-she'ba, and went 11 toward Ha'ran. And he lighted upon [3]a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that 12 place to sleep. And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold the angels of God ascending
13 and descending on it. And, behold, the LORD stood [4]above it, and said, I am the LORD, the God of A'bra-ham thy father, and the God of I'saac: the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy 14 seed; and thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt [5]spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth
15 be blessed. And, behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee whithersoever thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee
16 of. And Ja'cob awaked out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the LORD is in this place; and I knew it not.
17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and 18 this is the gate of heaven. And Ja'cob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put under his head, and set it up for a pillar, and poured
19 oil upon the top of it. And he called the name of that place [6]Beth'el: but the name of the city was 20 Luz at the first. And Ja'cob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment
21 to put on, so that I come again to my father's house
22 in peace, [7]then shall the LORD be my God, and this stone, which I have set up for a pillar, shall be God's house: and of all that thou shalt give me I will surely give the tenth unto thee.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Jacob covenanteth for Rachel—Deceived with Leah—Marrieth Rachel also.

THEN Ja'cob †went on his journey, [c]and came into the land of the †people of the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Ja'cob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, of Ha'ran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye La'ban the son of Na'hor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, †[b]Is he well? And they said, He is well: and, behold, Ra'chel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, †it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We can not, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶And while he yet spake with them, [c]Ra'chel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Ja'cob saw Ra'chel the daughter of La'ban his mother's brother, and the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother, that Ja'cob went near, and [d]rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of La'ban his mother's brother.

11 And Ja'cob [e]kissed Ra'chel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Ja'cob told Ra'chel that he was [f]her father's brother, and that he was Re-bek'ah's son: [g]and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when La'ban heard the †tidings of Ja'cob his sister's son, that [h]he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told La'ban all these things.

14 And La'ban said to him, [i]Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him †the space of a month.

15 ¶And La'ban said unto Ja'cob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?

16 And La'ban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Le'ah, and the name of the younger was Ra'chel.

17 Le'ah was tender eyed; but Ra'chel was beautiful and well favoured.

18 And Ja'cob loved Ra'chel; and said, [k]I will serve thee seven years for Ra'chel thy younger daughter.

19 And La'ban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Ja'cob [l]served seven years for Ra'chel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her.

21 ¶And Ja'cob said unto La'ban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may [m]go in unto her.

22 And La'ban gathered together all the men of the place, and [n]made a feast.

23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Le'ah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.

24 And La'ban gave unto his daughter Le'ah Zil'pah his maid for a handmaid.

25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Le'ah: and he said to La'ban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Ra'chel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?

26 And La'ban said, It must not be so done in our country, †to give the younger before the firstborn.

29 Then Ja'cob [1]went on his journey, and came to the 2 land of the children of the east. And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, three flocks of sheep lying there by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and the stone upon the well's
3 mouth was great. And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone
4 again upon the well's mouth in its place. And Ja'cob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye?
5 And they said, Of Ha'ran are we. And he said unto them, Know ye La'ban the son of Na'hor? And 6 they said, We know him. And he said unto them, Is it well with him? And they said, It is well: and, behold, Ra'chel his daughter cometh with the sheep.
7 And he said, Lo, it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together:
8 water ye the sheep, and go and feed them. And they said, We can not, until all the flocks be gathered together, and they roll the stone from the well's
9 mouth; then we water the sheep. While he yet spake with them, Ra'chel came with her father's 10 sheep; for she kept them. And it came to pass, when Ja'cob saw Ra'chel the daughter of La'ban his mother's brother, and the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother, that Ja'cob went near, and rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the 11 flock of La'ban his mother's brother. And Ja'cob kissed Ra'chel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.
12 And Ja'cob told Ra'chel that he was her father's brother, and that he was Re-bek'ah's son: and she 13 ran and told her father. And it came to pass, when La'ban heard the tidings of Ja'cob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told 14 La'ban all these things. And La'ban said to him, Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he 15 abode with him the space of a month. And La'ban said unto Ja'cob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell 16 me, what shall thy wages be? And La'ban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Le'ah, and the 17 name of the younger was Ra'chel. And Le'ah's eyes were tender; but Ra'chel was beautiful and well
18 favoured. And Ja'cob loved Ra'chel; and he said, I will serve thee seven years for Ra'chel, thy younger
19 daughter. And La'ban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another
20 man: abide with me. And Ja'cob served seven years for Ra'chel; and they seemed unto him but a 21 few days, for the love he had to her. And Ja'cob said unto La'ban, Give me my wife, for my days are 22 fulfilled, that I may go in unto her. And La'ban gathered together all the men of the place, and made
23 a feast. And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Le'ah his daughter, and brought her to him;
24 and he went in unto her. And La'ban gave Zil'pah his handmaid unto his daughter Le'ah for an hand-
25 maid. And it came to pass in the morning that, behold, it was Le'ah: and he said to La'ban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Ra'chel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled 26 me? And La'ban said, It is not so done in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn.

CHAPTER XXX.

Rachel's grief for her barrenness—Leah beareth Gad—Rachel beareth Joseph.

AND when Ra'chel saw that ᵃshe bare Ja'cob no children, Ra'chel ᵇenvied her sister; and said unto Ja'cob, Give me children, ᶜor else I die.
2 And Ja'cob's anger was kindled against Ra'chel: and he said, ᵈ*Am* I in God's stead, who hath withheld from thee the fruit of the womb?
3 And she said, Behold ᵉmy maid Bil'hah, go in unto her; ᶠand she shall bear upon my knees, ᵍthat I may also † have children by her.
4 And she gave him Bil'hah her handmaid ʰto wife: and Ja'cob went in unto her.
5 And Bil'hah conceived, and bare Ja'cob a son.
6 And Ra'chel said, God hath ⁱjudged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name || Dan.
7 And Bil'hah Ra'chel's maid conceived again, and bare Ja'cob a second son.
8 And Ra'chel said, With †great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name ||ᵏNaph'ta-li.
9 When Le'ah saw that she had left bearing, she took Zil'pah her maid and ˡgave her Ja'cob to wife.
10 And Zil'pah Le'ah's maid bare Ja'cob a son.
11 And Le'ah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name || Gad.
12 And Zil'pah Le'ah's maid bare Ja'cob a second son.
13 And Le'ah said, †Happy am I, for the daughters ᵐwill call me blessed: and she called his name || Ash'er.
14 ¶And Reu'ben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Le'ah. Then Rachel said to Le'ah, ⁿGive me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.
15 And she said unto her, ᵒ*Is it* a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Ra'chel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to-night for thy son's mandrakes.
16 And Ja'cob came out of the field in the evening, and Le'ah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me: for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.
17 And God hearkened unto Le'ah, and she conceived, and bare Ja'cob the fifth son.

27 Fulfil the week of this one, and we will give thee the other also for the service which thou shalt serve 28 with me yet seven other years. And Ja'cob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Ra'chel his 29 daughter to wife. And La'ban gave to Ra'chel his daughter Bil'hah his handmaid to be her handmaid.

CHAPTER XXXI.

Jacob's complaint of Laban—Covenant of Laban and Jacob at Galeed.

AND he heard the words of La'ban's sons, saying, Ja'cob hath taken away all that was our father's; and of that which was our father's hath he gotten all this [a]glory.
2 And Ja'cob beheld [b]the countenance of La'ban, and, behold, it was not [c]toward him †as before.
3 And the LORD said unto Ja'cob, [d]Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.
4 And Ja'cob sent and called Ra'chel and Le'ah to the field unto his flock,
5 And said unto them, [e]I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father [f]hath been with me.
6 And [g]ye know that with all my power I have served your father.
7 And your father hath deceived me, and [h]changed my wages [i]ten times; but God [k]suffered him not to hurt me.
8 If he said thus, [l]The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstreaked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstreaked.
9 Thus God hath [m]taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.
10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the ‖ rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstreaked, speckled, and grizzled.
11 And [n]the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Ja'cob: And I said, Here am I.
12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstreaked, speckled, and grizzled: for [o]I have seen all that La'ban doeth unto thee.
13 I am the God of Beth'-el, [p]where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now [q]arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.
14 And Ra'chel and Le'ah answered and said unto him, [r]Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?
15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for [s]he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured also our money.
16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.
17 ¶Then Ja'cob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;
18 And he carried away all his cattle, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Pa'dan-a'ram, for to go to I'saac his father in the land of Ca'naan.
19 And La'ban went to shear his sheep: and Ra'chel had stolen the †[t]images that were her father's.
20 And Ja'cob stole away †unawares to La'ban the Syr'i-an, in that he told him not that he fled.
21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and [u]set his face toward the mount Gil'e-ad.
22 And it was told La'ban on the third day, that Ja'cob was fled.
23 And he took [z]his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gil'e-ad.
24 And God [v]came to La'ban the Syr'i-an in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed that thou [s]speak not to Ja'cob †either good or bad.
25 ¶Then La'ban overtook Ja'cob. Now Ja'cob had pitched his tent in the mount: and La'ban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gil'e-ad.

20 And Ja'cob [4]stole away unawares to La'ban, the thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and [a]carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and †steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

28 And hast not suffered me [b]to kiss my sons and my daughters? [c]thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power of my hand to do you hurt: but the [d]God of your father spake unto me [e]yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Ja'cob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou [f]stolen my gods?

31 And Ja'cob answered and said to La'ban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, [g]let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Ja'cob knew not that Ra'chel had stolen them.

33 And La'ban went into Ja'cob's tent, and into Le'ah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then he went out of Le'ah's tent, and entered into Ra'chel's tent.

34 Now Ra'chel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture, and sat upon them. And La'ban †searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I can not [h]rise up before thee: for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶And Ja'cob was wroth, and chode with La'ban: and Ja'cob answered and said to La'ban, What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before my brethren and thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 [i]That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of [k]my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house: I [l]served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle; and [m]thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 [n]Except the God of my father, the God of A'bra-ham, and [o]the fear of I'saac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. [p]God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and [q]rebuked thee yesternight.

43 ¶And La'ban answered and said unto Ja'cob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have borne?

44 Now therefore come thou, [r]let us make a covenant, I and thou; [s]and let it be for a witness between me and thee.

45 And Ja'cob [t]took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.

46 And Ja'cob said unto his brethren, Gather stones; and they took stones, and made a heap: and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And La'ban called it || Je'gar-sa-ha-du'tha: but Ja'cob called it || Gal'e-ed.

48 And La'ban said, [u]This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name of it called Gal'e-ed, Jacob wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, where he is called Israel.

AND Ja'cob went on his way, and the [a]angels of God met him.
2 And when Ja'cob saw them, he said, This is God's [b]host: and he called the name of that place || Ma-ha-na'im.
3 And Ja'cob sent messengers before him to E'sau his brother [c]unto the land of Se'ir, [d]the †country of E'dom.
4 And he commanded them, saying, [e]Thus shall ye speak unto my lord E'sau; Thy servant Ja'cob saith thus, I have sojourned with La'ban, and stayed there until now:
5 And [f] I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that [g]I may find grace in thy sight.
6 ¶And the messengers returned to Ja'cob, saying, We came to thy brother E'sau, and also [h]he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.
7 Then Ja'cob was greatly afraid and [i]distressed: and he divided the people that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;
8 And said, If E'sau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape.
9 ¶[k]And Ja'cob said, [l]O God of my father A'bra-ham, and God of my father I'saac, the LORD [m]which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, and I will deal well with thee:

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.
17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When E'sau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?
18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Ja'cob's; it is a present sent unto my lord E'sau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Meeting of Jacob and Esau—Jacob buyeth a field at Shalem.

AND Ja'cob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, [a]E'sau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Le'ah, and unto Ra'chel, and unto the two handmaids.
2 And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Le'ah and her children after, and Ra'chel and Jo'seph hindermost.
3 And he passed over before them, and [b]bowed himself to the ground seven times, until he came near to his brother.
4 [c]And E'sau ran to meet him, and embraced him, [d]and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.
5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those [†]with thee? And he said, The children [e]which God hath graciously given thy servant.
6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.
7 And Le'ah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves, and after came Jo'seph near and Ra'chel, and they bowed themselves.
8 And he said, [†]What meanest thou by [f]all this drove which I met? And he said, These are [g]to find grace in the sight of my lord.
9 And E'sau said, I have enough, my brother; [†]keep that thou hast unto thyself.
10 And Ja'cob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: for therefore I [h]have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.
11 Take, I pray thee, [i]my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have [†]enough. [k]And he urged him, and he took it.

19 And he commanded also the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto E'sau, when ye find him;
20 and ye shall say, Moreover, behold, thy servant Ja'cob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept 21 me. So the present passed over before him: and he himself lodged that night in the company.
22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two handmaids, and his eleven children, and 23 passed over the ford of Jab'bok. And he took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that he 24 had. And Ja'cob was left alone; and there wrestled
25 a man with him until the breaking of the day. And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Ja'cob's thigh was strained, as he wrestled with him.
26 And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.
27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And 28 he said, Ja'cob. And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Ja'cob, but [1]Is'ra-el: for [2]thou hast [3]striven with God and with men, and hast prevailed.
29 And Ja'cob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.
30 And Ja'cob called the name of the place [4]Pe-ni'el: for, said he, I have seen God face to face, and my 31 life is preserved. And the sun rose upon him as he passed over Pe-nu'el, and he halted upon his thigh.
32 Therefore the children of Is'ra-el eat not the sinew of the hip which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Ja'cob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

33 And Ja'cob lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, E'sau came, and with him four hundred men. And he divided the children unto Le'ah, and unto
2 Ra'chel, and unto the two handmaids. And he put the handmaids and their children foremost, and Le'ah and her children after, and Ra'chel and Jo'seph hind-
3 ermost. And he himself passed over before them, and bowed himself to the ground seven times, until 4 he came near to his brother. And E'sau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and

6 servant. Then the handmaids came near, they and 7 their children, and they bowed themselves. And Le'ah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Jo'seph near and Ra'chel,
8 and they bowed themselves. And he said, What meanest thou by all this company which I met? And he said, To find grace in the sight of my lord.
9 And E'sau said, I have enough; my brother, let 10 that thou hast be thine. And Ja'cob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: [5]forasmuch as I have seen thy face, as one seeth the face of 11 God, and thou wast pleased with me. Take, I pray thee, my [6]gift that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have [7]enough. And he urged him, and he took it.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

The sons of Jacob offer the condition of circumcision to the Shechemites.

about 1732.

AND [a]Di'nah the daughter of Le'ah, which she bare unto Ja'cob, [b]went out to see the daughters of the land.
2 And when She'chem the son of Ha'mor the Hi'vite, prince of the country, [c]saw her, he [d]took her, and lay with her, and †defiled her.
3 And his soul clave unto Di'nah the daughter of Ja'cob, and he loved the damsel, and spake †kindly unto the damsel.
4 And She'chem [e]spake unto his father Ha'mor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.
5 And Ja'cob heard that he had defiled Di'nah his daughter: (now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Ja'cob [f]held his peace until they were come.)
6 ¶And Ha'mor the father of She'chem went out unto Ja'cob to commune with him.
7 And the sons of Ja'cob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they [g]were very wroth, because he [h]had wrought folly in Is'-ra-el in lying with Ja'cob's daughter, [i]which thing ought not to be done.
8 And Ha'mor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son She'chem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.
9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.
10 And ye shall dwell with us: and the [k]land shall be before you; dwell and [l]trade ye therein, and [m]get you possessions therein.
11 And She'chem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.
12 Ask me never so much [n]dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.
13 And the sons of Ja'cob answered She'chem and Ha'mor his father [o]deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Di'nah their sister:
14 And they said unto them, We can not do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for [p]that were a reproach unto us:
15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised:
16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

AN EGYPTIAN WELL.—Watering the land of the Delta of Egypt seems to be one of the chief industries hereabouts, and this is done by means of very primitive appliances. The whole of the cultivable soil of Egypt is divided into two classes, in accordance with its relative height above the surface of the Nile. These are the Rai, or fields which retain their moisture after the subsidence of the overflow; and, secondly, the Sharaki, or those which always require artificial irrigation. This irrigation is effected by means of: (1) the Sakiyeh, or large wheel turned by domestic animals of various kinds and fitted with scoops of wood or clay, resembling a dredging machine; (2) the Shaduf, an apparatus resembling that of an ordinary well, set in motion by one person only, and drawing the water in a bucket resembling a basket in appearance.

PANORAMA OF DAMASCUS.—On the way from Caesarea Philippi to Damascus, the spot is reached where St. Paul beheld the wondrous vision which attended his conversion (see Acts IX). At this spot is gained the old Roman Road leading to Damascus from Egypt and Palestine. Damascus, whereof a panorama is reproduced here, is the oldest city in the world. Josephus makes it older than Abraham (Ant. I, 63). Founded before Baalbek and Palmyra, "The head of Syria" (Isaiah VII, 8) has outlived them both. The first view of the town from one of the overhanging ridges has been compared by travellers to a vision of the earthly paradise. Marble minarets, domes glittering with the crescent, massive towers and terraces of level roofs, rise out of a perfect sea of foliage; the white buildings shining with ivory softness through the broad, dark clumps of verdure that encircle them, and making the city, as the people love to say, "A pearl set in emeralds."

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.
18 And their words pleased Ha'mor and She'chem Ha'mor's son.
19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Ja'cob's daughter: and he was [q] more honourable than all the house of his father.
20 ¶And Ha'mor and She'chem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,
21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein: for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.
22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.
23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of theirs be ours? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.
24 And unto Ha'mor and unto She'chem his son hearkened all that [r] went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.
25 ¶And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Ja'cob, [s] Sim'e-on and Le'vi, Di'nah's brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.
26 And they slew Ha'mor and She'chem his son with the [†] edge of the sword, and took Di'nah out of She'chem's house, and went out.
27 The sons of Ja'cob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had defiled their sister.
28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,
29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.
30 And Ja'cob said to Sim'e-on and Le'vi, [t] Ye have [u] troubled me [x] to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among the Ca'naan-ites and the Per'iz-zites: [y] and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

AND God said unto Ja'cob, Arise, go up to [a] Beth'-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, [b] that appeared unto thee [c] when thou fleddest from the face of E'sau thy brother.

12 And the land [w]which I gave A'bra-ham and I'saac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

Joseph's two dreams—His brethren conspire his death—Sold to Potiphar.

AND Ja'cob dwelt in the land †[a]wherein his father was a stranger, in the land of Ca'naan.
2 These are the generations of Ja'cob. Jo'seph being seventeen years old, was feeding the flock with his brethren; and the lad was with the sons of Bil'hah, and with the sons of Zil'pah, his father's wives: and Jo'seph brought unto his father [b]their evil report.
3 Now Is'ra-el loved Jo'seph more than all his children, because he was [c]the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many ‖ colours.
4 And when his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, they [d]hated him, and could not speak peaceably unto him.
5 ¶ And Jo'seph dreamed a dream, and he told it his brethren: and they hated him yet the more.
6 And he said unto them, Hear, I pray you, this dream which I have dreamed:
7 For, [e]behold, we were binding sheaves in the field, and, lo, my sheaf arose, and also stood upright; and, behold, your sheaves stood round about, and made obeisance to my sheaf.
8 And his brethren said to him, Shalt thou indeed reign over us? or shalt thou indeed have dominion over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams, and for his words.
9 ¶ And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold, [f]the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me.
10 And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is this dream that thou hast dreamed? Shall I and thy mother and [g]thy brethren indeed come to bow down ourselves to thee to the earth?
11 And [h]his brethren envied him; but his father [i]observed the saying.
12 ¶ And his brethren went to feed their father's flock in She'chem.
13 And Is'ra-el said unto Jo'seph, Do not thy brethren feed the flock in She'chem? come, and I will send thee unto them. And he said to him, Here am I.

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Do'than. And Jo'seph went after his brethren, and found them in [m]Do'than.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, [n]they conspired against him to slay him.

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this †dreamer cometh.

20 [o]Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him; and we shall see what will become of his dreams.

21 And [p]Reu'ben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him.

22 And Reu'ben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again.

23 ¶And it came to pass, when Jo'seph was come unto his brethren, that they stripped Jo'seph out of his coat, his coat of many ‖ colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 [q]And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of [r]Ish'ma-el-ites came from Gil'e-ad, with their camels bearing spicery and [s]balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to E'gypt.

26 And Ju'dah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and [t]conceal his blood?

29 ¶And Reu'ben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Jo'seph was not in the pit; and he [c]rent his clothes.

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [d]is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took [e]Jo'seph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood;

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an [f]evil beast hath devoured him; Jo'seph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Ja'cob [g]rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters [h]rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For [i]I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

22 us not take his life. And Reu'ben said unto them, Shed no blood; cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, but lay no hand upon him: that he might deliver him out of their hand, to restore him

23 to his father. And it came to pass, when Jo'seph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Jo'seph of his coat, the coat of many colours that was on 24 him; and they took him, and cast him into the pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it.

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a traveling company of Ish'ma-el-ites came from Gil'e-ad, with their camels bearing [2]spicery and [3]balm and [4]myrrh,

26 going to carry it down to E'gypt. And Ju'dah said unto his brethren, what profit is it if we slay

27 our brother and conceal his blood? Come, and let us sell him to the Ish'ma-el-ites, and let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother, our flesh.

28 And his brethren hearkened unto him. And there passed by Mid'i-an-ites, merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Jo'seph out of the pit, and sold Jo'seph to the Ish'ma-el-ites for twenty pieces of silver.

29 And they brought Jo'seph into E'gypt. And Reu'-ben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Jo'seph was 30 not in the pit; and he rent his clothes. And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child is not;

31 and I, whither shall I go? And they took Jo'seph's coat, and killed a he-goat, and dipped the coat in the

32 blood: and they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or

33 not. And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Jo'seph is

34 without doubt torn in pieces. And Ja'cob rent his garments, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and

35 mourned for his son many days. And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down to [5]the grave to my son mourning. And 36 his father wept for him. And the [6]Mid'i-an-ites sold him into E'gypt unto Pot'i-phar, an officer of Pha'raoh's, the [7]captain of the guard.

38 And it came to pass at that time, that Ju'dah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain

2 A-dul'lam-ite, whose name was Hi'rah. And Ju'dah saw there a daughter of a certain Ca'naan-ite whose name was Shu'a; and he took her, and went in unto

3 her. And she conceived, and bare a son; and he

4 called his name Er. And she conceived again, and

5 bare a son; and she called his name O'nan. And she yet again bare a son, and called his name She'lah:

6 and he was at Che'zib, when she bare him. And Ju'dah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name

7 was Ta'mar. And Er, Ju'dah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD slew him.

8 And Ju'dah said unto O'nan, Go in unto [h]thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.
9 And O'nan knew that the seed should not be [i]his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.
10 And the thing which he did †displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew [m]him also.
11 Then said Ju'dah to Ta'mar his daughter in law, [n]Remain a widow at thy father's house, till She'lah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Ta'mar went and dwelt [o]in her father's house.
12 And †in process of time, the daughter of Shu'ah Ju'dah's wife died; and Ju'dah [p]was comforted, and went up unto his sheepshearers to Tim'nath, he and his friend Hi'rah the Adul'lam-ite.
13 And it was told Ta'mar, saying, Behold, thy father in law goeth up [q]to Tim'nath, to shear his sheep.
14 And she put her widow's garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and wrapped herself, and [s]sat in †an open place, which is by the way to Tim'nath; for she saw [t]that She'lah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law:) and she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?
17 And he said, [w]I will send thee †a kid from the flock. And she said, [w]Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

19 And she arose, and went away, and [y]laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.
20 And Ju'dah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the A-dul'lam-ite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.
21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot that was ‖ openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

23 And Ju'dah said, Let her take it to her, lest we †be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.
24 ¶And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Ju'dah, saying, Ta'mar thy daughter in law hath [z]played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Ju'dah said, Bring her forth, [a]and let her be burnt.
25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man whose these are, am I with child: and she said, [b]Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, [c]the signet, and bracelets, and staff.
26 And Ju'dah [d]acknowledged them, and said, [e]She hath been more righteous than I; because that [f]I gave her not to She'lah my son. And he knew her again [g]no more.

1 And it came to pass after these things, that the butler of the king of E'gypt and his baker offended
2 their lord the king of E'gypt. And Pha'raoh was wroth against his two officers, against the chief of
3 the butlers, and against the chief of the bakers. And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Jo'seph
4 was bound. And the captain of the guard charged Jo'seph with them, and he ministered unto them:
5 and they continued a season in ward. And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream, in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream, the butler and the baker of the king of E'gypt, which were bound in the 6 prison. And Jo'seph came in unto them in the morning, and saw them, and, behold, they were
7 sad. And he asked Pha'raoh's officers that were with him in the ward in his master's house, saying,
8 Wherefore look ye so sadly to-day? And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it. And Jo'seph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to 9 God? tell it me, I pray you. And the chief butler told his dream to Jo'seph, and said to him, In my 10 dream, behold, a vine was before me; and in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and its blossoms shot forth; and the clus-
11 ters thereof brought forth ripe grapes: and Pha'raoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pha'raoh's cup, and I gave 12 the cup into Pha'raoh's hand. And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: the three
13 branches are three days; within yet three days shall Pha'raoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thine office: and thou shalt give Pha'raoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast
14 his butler. But have me in thy remembrance when it shall be well with thee, and shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pha'-
15 raoh, and bring me out of this house: for indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the He'brews; and here also have I done nothing that they should 16 put me into the dungeon. When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Jo'seph, I also was in my dream, and, behold, three 17 baskets of white bread were on my head: and in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of bakemeats for Pha'raoh; and the birds did eat them
18 out of the basket upon my head. And Jo'seph answered and said, This is the interpretation thereof:
19 the three baskets are three days; within yet three days shall Pha'raoh lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall 20 eat thy flesh from off thee. And it came to pass the third day, which was Pha'raoh's birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and the head of the 21 chief baker among his servants. And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and he 22 gave the cup into Pha'raoh's hand: but he hanged the chief baker: as Jo'seph had interpreted to them.
23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Jo'seph, but forgat him.

CHAPTER XLI.

Pharaoh's two dreams—Joseph interpreteth them—the famine beginneth.

AND it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pha'raoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by the river.
2 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven well favoured kine and fatfleshed; and they fed in a meadow.
3 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill favoured and leanfleshed; and stood by the other kine upon the brink of the river.
4 And the ill favoured and leanfleshed kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pha'raoh awoke.
5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and, behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, †rank and good.
6 And, behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east wind sprung up after them.
7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears. And Pha'raoh awoke: and, behold, it was a dream.
8 And it came to pass in the morning [a]that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the [b]magicians of E'gypt, and all the [c]wise men thereof: and Pha'raoh told them his dream: but there was none that could interpret them unto Pha'raoh.
9 ¶Then spake the chief butler unto Pha'raoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day:
10 Pha'raoh was [d]wroth with his servants, [e]and put me in ward in the captain of the guard's house, both me and the chief baker:
11 And [f]we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.
12 And there was there with us a young man, a Hebrew, [g]servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he [h]interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to his dream he did interpret.
13 And it came to pass, [i]as he interpreted to us, so it was; me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.
14 ¶[k]Then Pha'raoh sent and called Jo'seph, and they [l]†brought him hastily [m]out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pha'raoh.
15 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: [n]and I have heard say of thee, that ‖ thou canst understand a dream to interpret it.
16 And Jo'seph answered Pha'raoh, saying, [o]It is not in me: [p]God shall give Pha'raoh an answer of peace.
17 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, [q]In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river:
18 And, behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fatfleshed and well favoured; and they fed in a meadow:
19 And, behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill favoured and leanfleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of E'gypt for badness:
20 And the lean and the ill favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine:
21 And when they had †eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill favoured, as at the beginning. So I awoke.
22 And I saw in my dream, and, behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good:
23 And, behold, seven ears, ‖ withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them:
24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and [r]I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it to me.
25 ¶And Jo'seph said unto Pha'raoh, The dream of Pha'raoh is one: [s]God hath shewed Pha'raoh what he is about to do.
26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.
27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be [t]seven years of famine.

41 And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pha'raoh dreamed: and, behold, he stood by 12 interpretation of his dream. And there was with us there a young man, an He'brew, servant to the captain of the guard; and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each man according to 13 his dream he did interpret. And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was; [5]me he restored unto 14 mine office, and him he hanged. Then Pha'raoh sent and called Jo'seph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pha'raoh.

15 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that when thou hearest a 16 dream thou canst interpret it. And Jo'seph answered Pha'raoh, saying, It is not in me: God shall 17 giv Pha'raoh an answer of peace. And Pha'raoh spake unto Jo'seph, In my dream, behold, I stood 28 [a]This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pha'raoh: What God is about to do he sheweth unto Pha'raoh.

29 Behold, there come [z]seven years of great plenty throughout all the land of E'gypt:
30 And there shall [y]arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of E'gypt; and the famine [x]shall consume the land;
31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land by reason of that famine following; for it shall be very †grievous.
32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pha'raoh twice; it is because the [a]thing is ‖ established by God, and God will shortly bring it to pass.
33 Now therefore let Pha'raoh look out a man discreet and wise, and set him over the land of E'gypt.
34 Let Pha'raoh do this, and let him appoint ‖ officers over the land, and [b]take up the fifth part of the land of E'gypt in the seven plenteous years.
35 And [c]let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pha'raoh, and let them keep food in the cities.
36 And that food shall be for store to the land against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of E'gypt; that the land †[d]perish not through the famine.
37 ¶And [e]the thing was good in the eyes of Pha'raoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.
38 And Pha'raoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man [f]in whom the spirit of God is?
39 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art:
40 [g]Thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people †be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.
41 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, See I have [h]set thee over all the land of E'gypt.
42 And Pha'raoh [i]took off his ring from his hand, and put it upon Jo'seph's hand, and [k]arrayed him in vestures of ‖ fine linen, [l]and put a gold chain about his neck;
43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had; [m]and they cried before him, ‖ †Bow the knee: and he made him ruler [n]over all the land of E'gypt.
44 And Pha'raoh said unto Jo'seph, I am Pha'raoh, and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or foot in all the land of E'gypt.
45 And Pha'raoh called Jo'seph's name ‖ Zaph'nath-pa-a-ne'ah; and he gave him to wife As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'i-phe-rah ‖ priest of On. And Jo'seph went out over all the land of E'gypt.
46 ¶And Jo'seph was thirty years old when he [o]stood before Pha'raoh king of E'gypt. And Jo'seph went out from the presence of Pha'raoh, and went throughout all the land of E'gypt.
47 And in the seven plenteous years the earth brought forth by handfuls.
48 And he gathered up all the food of the seven years, which were in the land of E'gypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was round about every city, laid he up in the same.
49 And Jo'seph gathered corn [p]as the sand of the sea, very much, until he left numbering; for it was without number.
50 [q]And unto Jo'seph were born two sons before the years of famine came: which As'e-nath the daughter of Pot'i-phe-rah ‖ priest of On bare unto him.
51 And Jo'seph called the name of the firstborn ‖ Ma-nas'seh: For God, said he, hath made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house.
52 And the name of the second called he ‖ E'phra-im: For God hath caused me to be [r]fruitful in the land of my affliction.

55 And when all the land of E'gypt was famished, the people cried to Pha'raoh for bread: and Pha'raoh said unto all the E-gyp'tians, Go unto Jo'seph; what he saith to you, do.

56 And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Jo'seph opened †all the storehouses, and [u]sold unto the E-gyp'tians; and the famine waxed sore in the land of E'gypt.

57 [x]And all countries came into E'gypt to Jo'seph for to buy corn; because that the famine was so sore in all lands.

CHAPTER XLII.

Jacob sendeth his ten sons to buy corn—They are imprisoned by Joseph.

1707. NOW when [a]Ja'cob saw that there was corn in E'gypt, Ja'cob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?

2 And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in E'gypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may [b]live, and not die.

3 ¶And Jo'seph's ten brethren went down to buy corn in E'gypt.

4 But Ben'ja-min, Jo'seph's brother, Ja'cob sent not with his brethren: for he said, [c]Lest peradventure mischief befall him.

5 And the sons of Is'ra-el came to buy corn among those that came: for the famine was [d]in the land of Ca'naan.

6 And Jo'seph was the governor [e]over the land, and he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Jo'seph's brethren came, and [f]bowed down themselves before him with their faces to the earth.

7 And Jo'seph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake †roughly unto them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Ca'naan to buy food.

8 And Jo'seph knew his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Jo'seph [g]remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

10 And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come.

11 We are all one man's sons; we are true men; thy servants are no spies.

12 And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come.

13 And they said, Thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Ca'naan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one [h]is not.

14 And Jo'seph said unto them, That is it that I spake unto you, saying, Ye are spies:

15 Hereby ye shall be proved: [i]By the life of Pha'raoh ye shall not go forth hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be †kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pha'raoh, surely ye are spies.

17 And he †put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Jo'seph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; [k]for I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But [l]bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶And they said one to another, [m]We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; [n]therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reu'ben answered them, saying, [o]Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is [p]required.

23 And they knew not that Jo'seph understood them; for †he spake unto them by an interpreter.

cording as Jo'seph had said: and there was famine in all lands; but in all the land of E'gypt there was bread. And when all the land of E'gypt was famished, the people cried to Pha'raoh for bread: and Pha'raoh said unto all the E-gyp'tians, Go unto Jo'seph; what he saith to you, do. And the famine was over all the face of the earth: and Jo'seph opened all the storehouses, and sold unto the E-gyp'tians; and the famine was sore in the land of E'gypt. And all countries came into E'gypt to Jo'seph for to buy corn; because the famine was sore in all the earth.

42 Now Ja'cob saw that there was corn in E'gypt, and Ja'cob said unto his sons, Why do ye look one upon another?. And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is corn in E'gypt: get you down thither, and buy for us from thence; that we may live, and not die. And Jo'seph's ten brethren went down to buy corn from E'gypt. But Ben'ja-min, Jo'seph's brother, Ja'cob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest peradventure mischief befall him. And the sons of Is'rael came to buy among those that came: for the famine was in the land of Ca'naan. And Jo'seph was the governor over the land: he it was that sold to all the people of the land: and Jo'seph's brethren came, and bowed down themselves to him with their faces to the earth. And Jo'seph saw his brethren, and he knew them, but made himself strange unto them, and spake roughly with them; and he said unto them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the land of Ca'naan to buy food. And Jo'seph knew his brethren, but they knew not him. And Jo'seph remembered the dreams which he dreamed of them, and said unto them, Ye are spies; to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. And they said unto him, Nay, my lord, but to buy food are thy servants come. We are all one man's sons; we are true men, thy servants are no spies. And he said unto them, Nay, but to see the nakedness of the land ye are come. And they said, We thy servants are twelve brethren, the sons of one man in the land of Ca'naan; and, behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is not. Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be bound, that your words may be proved, whether there be truth in you: or else by the life of Pha'raoh surely ye are spies. CHAPTER XLIV.

Joseph's policy to stay his brethren—Judah's humble supplication to Joseph.

AND he commanded †the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his sack's mouth.

2 And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that Jo'seph had spoken.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the city, and not yet far off, Jo'seph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he ‖ divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, [a]the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Ca'naan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, [b]both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

11 Then they speedily took down every man his sack to the ground, and opened every man his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Ben'ja-min's sack.

13 Then they [c]rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and returned to the city.

14 ¶ And Ju'dah and his brethren came to Jo'seph's house; for he was yet there: and they [d]fell before him on the ground.

15 And Jo'seph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? wot ye not that such a man as I can certainly ‖ divine?

16 And Ju'dah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold [e]we are my lord's servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, [f]God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Ju'dah came near unto him, and said, O my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and [g]let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pha'raoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and [h]a child of his old age, a little one: and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

21 And thou saidst unto thy servants, [i]Bring him down unto me, that I may set mine eyes upon him.

22 And we said unto my lord, The lad can not leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.

33 And they sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth: and the men marvelled one with another.

34 And [1]he took and sent messes unto them from before him: but Ben'ja-min's mess was five times so much as any of theirs. And they drank, and [2]were merry with him.

[1] Or, messes were taken
[2] Heb. drank largely.

44 And he commanded the steward of his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put every man's money in his
2 sack's mouth. And put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, and his corn money. And he did according to the word that
3 Jo'seph had spoken. As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.
4 And when they were gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Jo'seph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded
5 evil for good? Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby he indeed divineth? ye have 6 done evil in so doing. And he overtook them, and 7 he spake unto them these words. And they said unto him, Wherefore speaketh my lord such words as these? God forbid that thy servants should do
8 such a thing. Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Ca'naan: how then should we 9 steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold? With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, let him die,
10 and we also will be my lord's bondmen. And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my bondman;
11 and ye shall be blameless. Then they hasted, and took down every man his sack to the ground, and 12 opened every man his sack. And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and 13 the cup was found in Ben'ja-min's sack. Then they rent their clothes, and laded every man his ass, and 14 returned to the city. And Ju'dah and his brethren came to Jo'seph's house; and he was yet there: and 15 they fell before him on the ground. And Jo'seph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? know ye not that such a man as I can indeed divine?
16 And Ju'dah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear ourselves? God hath found out the iniquity of thy servants: behold, we are my lord's bondmen, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup is found.
17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my bondman; but as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.
18 Then Ju'dah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pha'raoh.
19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father,
20 or a brother? And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is 21 left of his mother, and his father loveth him. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down unto 22 me, that I may set mine eyes upon him. And we said unto my lord, The lad can not leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.
23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your

14 and I'ob, and Shim'ron. And the sons of Zeb'u-lun;
15 Se'red, and E'lon, and Jah'le-el. These are the sons of Le'ah, which she bare unto Ja'cob in Pad'dan-a'ram, with his daughter Di'nah: all the souls of his sons
16 and his daughters were thirty and three. And the sons of Gad; [2]Ziph'i-on, and Hag'gi, Shu'ni, and [3]Ez'-
17 bon, E'ri, and [4]Ar'o-di, and A-re'li. And the sons of Ash'er; Im'nah, and Ish'vah, and Ish'vi, and Be-ri'ah, and Se'rah their sister: and the sons of Be-ri'ah; He'ber, 18 and Mal'chi-el. These are the sons of Zil'pah, which La'ban gave to Le'ah his daughter, and these she 19 bare unto Ja'cob, even sixteen souls. The sons of 20 Ra'chel Ja'cob's wife; Jo'seph and Ben'jamin. And unto Jo'seph in the land of E'gypt were born Manas'seh and E'phra-im, which As'e-nath the daughter
21 of Pot'i-phe-ra priest of On bare unto him. And the sons of Ben'ja-min; Be'la, and Be'cher, and Ash'bel, Ge'ra, and Na'a-man, [5]E'hi, and Rosh, [6]Mup'pim, and 22 [7]Hup'pim, and Ard. These are the sons of Ra'chel, which were born to Ja'cob: all the souls were four-
23 24 teen. And the sons of Dan; [8]Hu'shim. And the sons of Naph'ta-li; [9]Jah'ze-el, and Gu'ni, and Je'zer,
25 and [10]Shil'lem. These are the sons of Bil'hah, which La'ban gave unto Ra'chel his daughter, and these 26 she bare unto Ja'cob: all the souls were seven. All the [11]souls that came with Ja'cob into E'gypt, which came out of his loins, besides Ja'cob's sons' wives,
27 all the souls were threescore and six; and the sons of Jo'seph, which were born to him in E'gypt, were two souls: all the souls of the house of Ja'cob, which came into E'gypt, were threescore and ten.
28 And he sent Ju'dah before him unto Jo'seph, to shew the way before him unto Go'shen; and they 29 came into the land of Go'shen. And Jo'seph made ready his chariot, and went up to meet Is'ra-el his father, to Go'shen; and he presented himself unto him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a 30 good while. And Is'ra-el said unto Jo'seph, Now let me die, since I have seen thy face, that thou art yet
31 alive. And Jo'seph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and tell Pha'raoh, and will say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Ca'naan, are come 32 unto me; and the men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.
33 And it shall come to pass, when Pha'raoh shall call
34 you, and shall say, What is your occupation? that ye shall say, Thy servants have been keepers of cattle from our youth even until now, both we, and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Go'shen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the E-gyp'tians.

47 Then Jo'seph went in and told Pha'raoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Ca'naan; and, behold, they are in
2 the land of Go'shen. And from among his brethren he took five men, and presented them unto Pha'-
3 raoh. And Pha'raoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pha'raoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and our 4 fathers. And they said unto Pha'raoh, To sojourn in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks, [o]for the famine is sore in the land of Ca'naan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants [k]dwell in the land of Go'shen.

5 And Pha'raoh spake unto Jo'seph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 [l]The land of E'gypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; [k]in the land of Go'shen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Jo'seph brought in Ja'cob his father, and set him before Pha'raoh: and Ja'cob blessed Pha'raoh.

8 And Pha'raoh said unto Ja'cob, †How old art thou?

9 And Ja'cob said unto Pha'raoh, [l]The days of the years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty years: [m]few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and [n]have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Ja'cob [o]blessed Pha'raoh, and went out from before Pha'raoh.

11 ¶And Jo'seph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of E'gypt, in the best of the land, in the land of [p]Ra-me'ses, [q]as Pha'raoh had commanded.

12 And Jo'seph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with ‖ †bread according to their families.

13 ¶And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, [r]so that the land of E'gypt and all the land of Ca'naan fainted by reason of the famine.

14 [s]And Jo'seph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of E'gypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, for the corn which they bought: and Jo'seph brought the money into Pha'raoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of E'gypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, all the E-gyp'tians came unto Jo'seph, and said, Give us bread: for [t]why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Jo'seph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Jo'seph: and Jo'seph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses; and he †fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not aught left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pha'raoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Jo'seph bought all the land of E'gypt for Pha'raoh; for the E-gyp'tians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pha'raoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of E'gypt even to the other end thereof.

22 [u]Only the land of the ‖ priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pha'raoh, and did eat their portion which Pha'raoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Jo'seph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pha'raoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pha'raoh, and four parts shall be your

the land are we come; for there is no pasture for thy servants' flocks; for the famine is sore in the land of Ca'naan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Go'shen. 5 And Pha'raoh spake unto Jo'seph, saying, Thy father and thy 6 brethren are come unto thee: the land of E'gypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and thy brethren to dwell; in the land of Go'shen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any [1]able men among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. 7 And Jo'seph brought in Ja'cob his father, and set him before Pha'raoh: and Ja'cob blessed Pha'raoh. 8 And Pha'raoh said unto Ja'cob, How many are the 9 days of the years of thy life? And Ja'cob said unto Pha'raoh, The days of the years of my [2]pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their [2]pil- 10 grimage. And Ja'cob blessed Pha'raoh, and went 11 out from the presence of Pha'raoh. And Jo'seph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of E'gypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ra-me'ses, as Pha'raoh had com- 12 manded. And Jo'seph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, [3]according to their families.

13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of E'gypt and the land of Ca'naan fainted by reason of the 14 famine. And Jo'seph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of E'gypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, for the corn which they bought: and Jo'seph brought the money into Pha'raoh's house. 15 And when the money was all spent in the land of E'gypt, and in the land of Ca'naan, all the E-gyp'tians came unto Jo'seph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for our money fail- 16 eth. And Jo'seph said, Give your cattle; and I will 17 give you for your cattle, if money fail. And they brought their cattle unto Jo'seph: and Jo'seph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the [4]flocks, and for the herds, and for the asses: and he [5]fed them with bread in exchange for all their cattle 18 for that year. And when that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide from my lord, how that our money is all spent; and the herds of cattle are my lord's; there is naught left in the sight of my lord, but our 19 bodies, and our lands: wherefore should we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pha'raoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land be not des- 20 olate. So Jo'seph bought all the land of E'gypt for Pha'raoh; for the E-gyp'tians sold every man his field, because the famine was sore upon them: and 21 the land became Pha'raoh's. And as for the people, [6]he removed them [7]to the cities from one end of the border of E'gypt even to the other end 22 thereof. Only the land of the priests bought he not: for the priests had a portion from Pha'raoh, and did eat their portion which Pha'raoh gave them; 23 wherefore they sold not their land. Then Jo'seph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pha'raoh: lo, here is seed 24 for you, and ye shall sow the land. And it shall come to pass at the ingatherings, that ye shall give a fifth unto Pha'raoh, and four parts shall be your

CHAPTER XLIX.

Jacob calleth his sons together—His speech to Reuben—His death.

AND Ja'cob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may [a]tell you that which shall befall you [b]in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Ja'cob; and [c]hearken unto Is'ra-el your father.

3 ¶ Reu'ben, thou art [d]my firstborn, my might, [e]and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as water, †[f]thou shalt not excel; because thou [g]wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: || he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ [h]Sim'e-on and Le'vi are [i]brethren; || [k]instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, [l]come not thou into their secret; [m]unto their assembly, [n]mine honour, be not thou united: for [o]in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they || digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: [p]I will divide them in Ja'cob and scatter them in Is'ra-el.

8 ¶ [q]Ju'dah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: [r]thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; [s]thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Ju'dah is [t]a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: [u]he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 [z]The sceptre shall not depart from Ju'dah, nor [y]a lawgiver [x]from between his feet, [a]until Shi'loh come; [b]and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

11 [c]Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His [d]eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ [e]Zeb'u-lun shall dwell at the haven of the sea; and he shall be for a haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zi'don.

17 And when Jo'seph saw that his father laid his right hand upon the head of E'phra-im, it displeased him: and he held up his father's hand, to remove it from 18 E'phra-im's head unto Ma-nas'seh's head. And Jo'seph said unto his father, Not so, my father: for this is the 19 firstborn; put thy right hand upon his head. And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: howbeit his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become [1]a mul-
20 titude of nations. And he blessed them that day, saying, [2]In thee shall Is'ra-el bless, saying, God make thee as E'phra-im and as Ma-nas'seh: and he set
21 E'phra-im before Ma-nas'seh. And Is'ra-el said unto Jo'seph, Behold, I die: but God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers.
22 Moreover I have given to thee one [3]portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Am'o-rite with my sword and with my bow.

Jo'seph spake unto [e]the house of Pha'raoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pha'raoh, saying,

5 [f]My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave [g]which I have digged for me in the land of Ca'naan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pha'raoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 ¶And Jo'seph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pha'raoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of E'gypt,

8 And all the house of Jo'seph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Go'shen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of A'tad, which is beyond Jor'dan; and there they [h]mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: [i]and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naan-ites, saw the mourning in the floor of A'tad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the E-gyp'tians: wherefore the name of it is called ‖ A'bel-miz'ra-im, which is beyond Jor'dan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For [k]his sons carried him into the land of Ca'naan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Mach-pe'lah, which A'bra-ham [l]bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of E'phron the Hit'tite, before Mam're.

14 ¶And Jo'seph returned into E'gypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶And when Jo'seph's brethren saw that their father was dead, [m]they said, Jo'seph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they †sent a messenger unto Jo'seph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Jo'seph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; [n]for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of [o]the God of thy father. And Jo'seph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and [p]fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Jo'seph said unto them, [q]Fear not: [r]for am I in the place of God?

20 [s]But as for you, ye thought evil against me; but [t]God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: [u]I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake †kindly unto them.

22 ¶And Jo'seph dwelt in E'gypt, he, and his father's house: and Jo'seph lived a hundred and ten years.

23 And Jo'seph saw E'phra-im's children [z]of the third generation: [v]the children also of Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'seh [r]were †brought up upon Jo'seph's knees.

24 And Jo'seph said unto his brethren, I die; and [a]God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land [b]which he sware to A'bra-ham, to I'saac, and to Ja'cob.

25 And [c]Jo'seph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Jo'seph died, being a hundred and ten years old: and they [d]embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in E'gypt.

CHAPTER II.

Moses is born—He slayeth an Egyptian—Marrieth Zipporah.

AND there went a [a]man of the house of Le'vi, and took to wife a daughter of Le'vi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a son: and [b]when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

4 [c]And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶And the [d]daughter of Pha'raoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's ride: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the He'brews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pha'raoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the He'brew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pha'raoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pha'raoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pha'raoh's daughter, and he became [e]her son. And she called his name ||Mo'ses: and she said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 ¶And it came to pass in those days, [f]when Mo'ses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [g]burdens: and he spied an E-gyp'tian smiting a He'brew, one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he [h]slew the E-gyp'tian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And [i]when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the He'brews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, [k]Who made thee †a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the E-gyp'tian? And Mo'ses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pha'raoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Mo'ses. But [l]Mo'ses fled from the face of Pha'raoh, and dwelt in the land of Mid'i-an: and he sat down by [m]a well.

16 [n]Now the ||priest of Mid'i-an had seven daughters: [o]and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Mo'ses stood up and helped them, and [p]watered their flock.

18 And when they came to [q]Reu'el their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to-day?

19 And they said, An E-gyp'tian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man? call him, that he may [r]eat bread.

21 And Mo'ses was content to dwell with the man: and he gave Mo'ses [s]Zip-po'rah his daughter.

22 And she bare him a son, and he called his name ||[t]Ger'shom: for he said, I have been [u]a stranger in a strange land.

23 ¶And it came to pass, [z]in process of time, that the king of E'gypt died: and the children of Is'ra-el [y]sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and [z]their cry came up unto God by reason of the bondage.

CHAPTER III.

God appeareth to Moses in a burning bush—His message to Israel.

NOW Mo'ses kept the flock of Je'thro his father in law, [a]the priest of Mid'i-an: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to [b]the mountain of God, even to Ho'reb.
2 And [c]the Angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.
3 And Mo'ses said, I will now turn aside, and see this [d]great sight, why the bush is not burnt.
4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called [e]unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Mo'ses, Mo'ses. And he said, Here am I.
5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: [f]put off thy shoes from off thy feet; for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.
6 Moreover he said, [g]I am the God of thy father, the God of A'bra-ham, the God of I'saac, and the God of Ja'cob. And Mo'ses hid his face; for [h]he was afraid to look upon God.
7 ¶And the LORD said, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in E'gypt, and [i]have heard their cry [k]by reason of their taskmasters; for [l]I know their sorrows:
8 And [m]I am come down to [n]deliver them out of the hand of the E-gyp'tians, and to bring them up out of that land [o]unto a good land and a large, unto a land [p]flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of [q]the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hit'tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u-sites.
9 Now therefore, behold, [r]the cry of the children of Is'ra-el is come unto me: and I have also seen the [s]oppression wherewith the E-gyp'tians oppress them.
10 [t]Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pha'raoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Is'ra-el out of E'gypt.
11 ¶And Mo'ses said unto God, [u]Who am I, that I should go unto Pha'raoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Is'ra-el out of E'gypt?
12 And he said, [z]Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of E'gypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.
13 And Mo'ses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Is'ra-el, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?
14 And God said unto Mo'ses, I AM THAT I AM: And he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'ra-el, [v]I AM hath sent me unto you.
15 And God said moreover unto Mo'ses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'ra-el, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, the God of I'saac, and the God of Ja'cob hath sent me unto you: this is [x]my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.
16 Go, and [a]gather the elders of Is'rael together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, of I'saac, and of Ja'cob, appeared unto me, saying, [b]I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in E'gypt:
17 And I have said, [c]I will bring you up out of the affliction of E'gypt unto the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hit'tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u-sites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

13 shall serve God upon this mountain. And Mo'ses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Is'ra-el, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I
14 say unto them? And God said unto Mo'ses, [1]I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'ra-el, [2]I AM hath sent me unto you.
15 And God said moreover unto Mo'ses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Is'ra-el, [3]The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, the God of I'saac, and the God of Ja'cob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my me-
16 morial unto all generations. Go, and gather the elders of Is'rael together, and say unto them, The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, of I'saac, and of Ja'cob, hath appeared unto me, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that 17 which is done to you in E'gypt: and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of E'gypt unto the land of the Ca'naan-ite, and the Hit'tite, and the Am'o-rite, and the Per'iz-zite, and the Hi'vite, and the Jeb'u-site, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.
18 And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of I'sra-el, unto the king of E'gypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the He'brews hath [f]met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 ¶And I am sure that the king of E'gypt [g]will not let you go, ||no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will [h]stretch out my hand, and smite E'gypt with [i]all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and [k]after that he will let you go.

21 And [l]I will give this people favour in the sight of the E-gyp'tians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 [m]But every woman shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and [n]ye shall spoil ||the E-gyp'tians.

CHAPTER IV.

Moses' rod is turned into a serpent—God's message to Pharaoh.

AND Mo'ses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, [a]A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Mo'ses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may [b]believe that the [c]LORD God of their fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, the God of I'saac, and the God of Ja'cob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous [d]as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, [e]it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and [f]the water which thou takest out of the river †shall become blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶And Mo'ses said unto the LORD, O my LORD, I am not †eloquent, neither †heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant; but [g]I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, [h]Who hath made man's mouth, or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be [i]with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, [k]send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou ||wilt send.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Mo'ses, and he said, Is not Aa'ron the Le'vite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, [l]he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And [m]thou shalt speak unto him, and [n]put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and [o]will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and [p]thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou shalt take [q]this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

B. C. 1491.

come, thou and the elders of Is'ra-el, unto the king of E'gypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD, the God of the He'brews, hath met with us: and now let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the 19 LORD our God. And I know that the king of E'gypt will not give you leave to go, no, not by a
20 mighty hand. And I will put forth my hand, and smite E'gypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you

5 hold of it, and it became a rod in his hand:) that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of A'bra-ham, the God of I'saac, and
6 the God of Ja'cob, hath appeared unto thee. And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his
7 hand was leprous, as white as snow. And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. (And he put his hand into his bosom again; and when he took it out of his bosom, behold, it was turned again as 8 his other flesh.) And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the 9 latter sign. And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe even these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and the water which thou takest out of the river shall be-
10 come blood upon the dry land. And Mo'ses said unto the LORD, Oh Lord, I am not [2]eloquent, neither heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: for I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.
11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh a man dumb, or deaf, or 12 seeing, or blind? is it not I the LORD? Now therefore go, and I will be with thy mouth, and teach
13 thee what thou shalt speak. And he said, Oh Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand of him whom thou
14 wilt send. And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Mo'ses, and he said, Is there not Aa'ron thy brother the Le'vite? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his 15 heart. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put the words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye 16 shall do. And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and it shall come to pass, that he shall be to thee a mouth, and thou shalt be to him as God.
17 And thou shalt take in thine hand this rod, wherewith thou shalt do the signs.

18 ¶And Mo'ses went and returned to †Je'thro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in E'gypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Je'thro said to Mo'ses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses in Mid'i-an, Go, return into E'gypt: for [r]all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Mo'ses took his wife, and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of E'gypt: and Mo'ses took [s]the rod of God in his hand.

21 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, When thou goest to return into E'gypt, see that thou do all those [t]wonders before Pha'raoh, which I have put in thine hand: but [u]I will harden his heart that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pha'raoh, Thus saith the LORD, [x]Is'ra-el is my son, [y]even my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, [z]I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

24 ¶And it came to pass by the way in the inn, that the LORD [a]met him, and sought to [b]kill him.

25 Then Zip-po'rah took [c]a sharp ‖ stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and †cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶And the LORD said to Aa'ron, Go into the wilderness [d]to meet Mo'ses. And he went, and met him in [e]the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Mo'ses [f]told Aa'ron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the [g]signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶And Mo'ses and Aa'ron [h]went, and gathered together all the elders of the children of Is'ra-el:

30 [i]And Aa'ron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Mo'ses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people [k]believed: and when they heard that the LORD had [l]visited the children of Is'ra-el, and that he [m]had looked upon their affliction, then [n]they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER V.

Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron—He increaseth the Israelites' task.

AND afterward Mo'ses and Aa'ron went in, and told Pha'raoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Is'ra-el, Let my people go, that they may hold [a]a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pha'raoh said, [b]Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Is'ra-el go? I know not the LORD, [c]neither will I let Is'ra-el go.

3 And they said, [d]The God of the He'brews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of E'gypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Mo'ses and Aa'ron, let the people from their works? get you unto your [e]burdens.

5 And Pha'raoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are [f]many, and ye make them rest from their burdens.

6 And Pha'raoh commanded the same day the [g]taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 †Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pha'raoh, I will not give you straw.

18 And Mo'ses went and returned to [1]Je'thro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return unto my brethren which are in E'gypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And 19 Je'thro said to Mo'ses, Go in peace. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses in Mid'i-an, Go, return into E'gypt: for all the men are dead which sought thy life.
20 And Mo'ses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of E'gypt: and Mo'ses took the rod of God in his hand.
21 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, When thou goest back into E'gypt, see that thou do before Pha'raoh all the wonders which I have put in thine hand: but I will [2]harden his heart, and he will not let the people
22 go. And thou shalt say unto Pha'raoh, Thus saith
23 the LORD, Is'ra-el is my son, my firstborn: and I have said unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me; and thou hast refused to let him go: behold, I
24 will slay thy son, thy firstborn. And it came to pass on the way at the lodging place, that the LORD
25 met him, and sought to kill him. Then Zip-po'rah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and [3]cast it at his feet; and she said, Surely a bridegroom
26 of blood art thou to me. So he let him alone. Then she said, [4]A bridegroom of blood art thou, because of the circumcision.
27 And the LORD said to Aa'ron, Go into the wilderness to meet Mo'ses. And he went, and met him in 28 the mountain of God, and kissed him. And Mo'ses told Aa'ron all the words of the LORD wherewith he had sent him, and all the signs wherewith he had 29 charged him. And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of 30 Is'ra-el: and Aa'ron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Mo'ses, and did the signs in 31 the sight of the people. And the people believed: and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Is'ra-el, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

5 And afterward Mo'ses and Aa'ron came, and said unto Pha'raoh, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Is'ra-el, Let my people go, that they may hold a
2 feast unto me in the wilderness. And Pha'raoh said, Who is the LORD, that I should hearken unto his voice to let Is'ra-el go? I know not the LORD,
3 and moreover I will not let Is'ra-el go. And they said, The God of the He'brews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the 4 sword. And the king of E'gypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Mo'ses and Aa'ron, loose the people from their works? get you unto your
5 burdens. And Pha'raoh said, Behold, the people of the land are now many, and ye make them
6 rest from their burdens. And the same day Pha'raoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and
7 their officers, saying, Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them
8 go and gather straw for themselves. And the tale of the bricks, which they did make heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish aught thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying,
9 Let us go and sacrifice to our God. Let heavier work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard lying words.
10 And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pha'raoh, I will not give you straw.

23 For since I came to Pha'raoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people: †neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

CHAPTER VI.

God reneweth his promise by his name JEHOVAH.

THEN the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pha'raoh: for [a]with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand [b]shall he drive them out of his land.
2 And God spake unto Mo'ses, and said unto him, I am ‖ the LORD:
3 And I appeared unto A'bra-ham, unto I'saac, and unto Ja'cob, by the name of [c]God Almighty; but by my name [d]JEHOVAH was I not known to them.
4 [e]And I have also established my covenant with them, [f]to give them the land of Ca'naan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.
5 And [g]I have also heard the groaning of the children of Is'ra-el, whom the E-gyp'tians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.
6 Wherefore say unto the children of Is'ra-el, [h]I am the LORD, and [i]I will bring you out from under the burdens of the E-gyp'tians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will [k]redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments:
7 And I will [l]take you to me for a people, and [m]I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God, which bringeth you out [n]from under the burdens of the E-gyp'tians.
8 And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning the which I did †[o]swear to give it to A'bra-ham, to I'saac, and to Ja'cob; and I will give it you for a heritage: I am the LORD.
9 ¶And Mo'ses spake so unto the children of Is'ra-el: [p]but they hearkened not unto Mo'ses for †anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.

18 LORD. Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver 19 the tale of bricks. And the officers of the children of Is'ra-el did see that they [2]were in evil case, when it was said, Ye shall not minish aught from your 20 bricks, your daily tasks. And they met Mo'ses and Aa'ron, who stood in the way, as they came forth
21 from Pha'raoh: and they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour to be abhorred in the eyes of Pha'raoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in 22 their hand to slay us. And Mo'ses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent 23 me? For since I came to Pha'raoh to speak in thy 6 name, he hath evil entreated this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pha'raoh: for by a strong hand shall he let them go, and by a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.
2 And God spake unto Mo'ses, and said unto
3 him, I am JEHOVAH: and I appeared unto A'bra-ham, unto I'saac, and unto Ja'cob, as [3]God Almighty, but [4]by my name JEHOVAH I was not [5]known to 4 them. And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Ca'naan, the land of their sojournings, wherein they sojourned.
5 And moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Is'ra-el, whom the E-gyp'tians keep in bondage; and I have remembered my covenant.
6 Wherefore say unto the children of Is'ra-el, I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the E-gyp'tians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with a
7 stretched out arm, and with great judgements: and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God: and ye shall know that I am Jehovah your God, which bringeth you out from under 8 the burdens of the E-gyp'tians. And I will bring you in unto the land, concerning which I lifted up my hand to give it to A'bra-ham, to I'saac, and to Ja'cob; and I will give it to you for an heritage: I
9 am Jehovah. And Mo'ses spake so unto the children of Is'ra-el: but they hearkened not unto Mo'ses for [6]anguish of spirit, and for cruel bondage.
10 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
11 Go in, speak unto Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, that he let the children of Is'ra-el go out of his land.

12 And Mo'ses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Is'ra-el have [q]not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pha'raoh hear me, [r]who am of uncircumcised lips?

13 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Is'ra-el, and unto Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, to bring the children of Is'ra-el out of the land of E'gypt.

14 ¶These be the heads of their fathers' houses: [s]The sons of Reu'ben the firstborn of Is'ra-el; Ha'noch, and Pal'lu, Hez'ron, and Car'mi: these be the families of Reu'ben.

15 [t]And the sons of Sim'e-on; Jem'u-el, and Ja'min, and O'had, and Ja'chin, and Zo'har, and Sha'ul the son of a Ca'naan-i-tish woman: these are the families of Sim'e-on.

16 ¶And these are the names of [u]the sons of Le'vi according to their generations; Ger'shon, and Ko'hath, and Mer'a-ri: and the years of the life of Le'vi were a hundred thirty and seven years.

17 [x]The sons of Ger'shon; Lib'ni, and Shi'mi, according to their families.

18 And [y]the sons of Ko'hath; Am'ram, and Iz'har, and He'bron, and Uz'zi-el: and the years of the life of Ko'hath were a hundred thirty and three years.

19 And [z]the sons of Mer'a-ri; Ma'ha-li and Mu'shi: these are the families of Le'vi, according to their generations.

20 And [a]Am'ram took him Joch'e-bed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aa'ron and Mos'es: and the years of the life of Am'ram were a hundred and thirty and seven years.

21 ¶And [b]the sons of Iz'har; Ko'rah, and Ne'pheg, and Zich'ri.

22 And the [c]sons of Uz'zi-el; Mish'a-el, and El'za-phan, and Zith'ri.

23 And Aa'ron took him E-lish'e-ba, daughter of [d]Am-min'a-dab, sister of Na-ash'on, to wife; and she bare him [e]Na'dab and A-bi'hu, El-e-a'zar and Ith'a-mar.

24 And the [f]sons of Ko'rah; As'sir, and El'-ka-nah, and A-bi'a-saph: these are the families of the Kor'hites.

25 And El-e-a'zar Aa'ron's son took him one of the daughters of Pu'ti-el to wife; and [g]she bare him Phin'e-has: these are the heads of the fathers of the Le'vites, according to their families.

26 These are that Aa'ron and Mo'ses, [h]to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Is'ra-el from the land of E'gypt according to their [i]armies.

27 These are they which [k]spake to Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, [l]to bring out the children of Is'ra-el from E'gypt: these are that Mo'ses and Aa'ron.

28 ¶And it came to pass on the day when the LORD spake unto Mo'ses in the land of E'gypt, 29 That the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, [m]I am the LORD: [n]speak thou unto Pha'raoh king of E'gypt all that I say unto thee.

30 And Mo'ses said before the LORD, Behold, [o]I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pha'raoh hearken unto me?

CHAPTER VII.

Moses' rod is turned into a serpent—The river is turned into blood.

AND the LORD said unto Mo'ses, See, I have made thee [a]a god to Pha'raoh; and Aa'ron thy brother shall be [b]thy prophet.

2 Thou [c]shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aa'ron thy brother shall speak unto Pha'raoh, that he send the children of Is'ra-el out of his land.

3 And [d]I will harden Pha'raoh's heart, and [e]multiply my [f]signs and my wonders in the land of E'gypt.

4 But Pha'raoh shall not hearken unto you, [g]that I may lay my hand upon E'gypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Is'ra-el, out of the land of E'gypt [h]by great judgments.

5 And the E-gyp'tians [i]shall know that I am the LORD, when I [k]stretch forth mine hand upon E'gypt, and bring out the children of Is'ra-el from among them.

12 And Mo'ses spake before the LORD, saying, Behold, the children of Is'ra-el have not hearkened unto me; how then shall Pha'raoh hear me, who am of uncir-
13 cumcised lips? And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, and gave them a charge unto the children of Is'ra-el, and unto Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, to bring the children of Is'ra-el out of the land of E'gypt.

14 These are the heads of their fathers' houses: the sons of Reu'ben the firstborn of Is'ra-el; Ha'noch, and Pal'lu, Hez'ron, and Car'mi: these are the fami-
15 lies of Reu'ben. And the sons of Sim'e-on; Jem'u-el, and Ja'min, and O'had, and Ja'chin, and Zo'har, and Sha'ul the son of a Ca'naan-i-tish woman: these are 16 the families of Sim'e-on. And these are the names of the sons of Le'vi according to their generations; Ger'shon, and Ko'hath, and Mer'a-ri: and the years of the life of Le'vi were an hundred thirty and seven 17 years. The sons of Ger'shon; Lib'ni and Shim'e-i,
18 according to their families. And the sons of Ko'hath; Am'ram, and Iz'har, and He'bron, and Uz'zi-el: and the years of the life of Ko'hath were an hundred
19 thirty and three years. And the sons of Mer'a-ri; Mah'li and Mu'shi. These are the families of the 20 Le'vites according to their generations. And Am'ram took him Joch'e-bed his father's sister to wife; and she bare him Aa'ron and Mo'ses: and the years of the life of Am'ram were an hundred and thirty and 21 seven years. And the sons of Iz'har; Ko'rah, and 22 Ne'pheg, and Zich'ri. And the sons of Uz'zi-el;
23 Mish'a-el, and El'za-phan, and Sith'ri. And Aa'ron took him E-lish'e-ba, the daughter of Am-min'a-dab, the sister of Nah'shon, to wife; and she bare him
24 Na'dab and A-bi'hu, El-e-a'zar and Ith'a-mar. And the sons of Ko'rah; As'sir, and El'ka-nah, and A-bi'a-
25 saph; these are the families of the Ko'ra-hites. And El-e-a'zar Aa'ron's son took him one of the daughters of Pu'ti-el to wife; and she bare him Phin'e-has. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the 26 Le'vites according to their families. These are that Aa'ron and Mo'ses, to whom the LORD said, Bring out the children of Is'ra-el from the land of E'gypt
27 according to their hosts. These are they which spake to Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, to bring out the children of Is'ra-el from E'gypt: these are that Mo'ses and Aa'ron.

28 And it came to pass on the day when the LORD
29 spake unto Mo'ses in the land of E'gypt, that the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, I am the LORD: speak thou unto Pha'raoh king of E'gypt all that I
30 speak unto thee. And Mo'ses said before the LORD,
7 Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pha'raoh hearken unto me? And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, See, I have made thee a god to Pha'raoh: and Aa'ron thy brother shall be thy
2 prophet. Thou shalt speak all that I command thee: and Aa'ron thy brother shall speak unto Pha'raoh, that he let the children of Is'ra-el go out
3 of his land. And I will harden Pha'raoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land
4 of E'gypt. But Pha'raoh will not hearken unto you, and I will lay my hand upon E'gypt, and bring forth my hosts, my people the children of Is'ra-el,
5 out of the land of E'gypt by great judgements. And the E-gyp'tians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch forth mine hand upon E'gypt, and bring out the children of Is'ra-el from among them.

B. C. 1491.

6 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron [l]did as the LORD commanded them, so did they.

7 And Mo'ses was [m]fourscore years old, and Aa'ron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pha'raoh.

8 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, and unto Aa'ron, saying,

9 When Pha'raoh shall speak unto you, saying, [n]Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aa'ron, [o]Take thy rod, and cast it before Pha'raoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 ¶And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went in unto Pha'raoh, and they did so [p]as the LORD had commanded: and Aa'ron cast down his rod before Pha'raoh, and before his servants, and it [q]became a serpent.

11 Then Pha'raoh also [r]called the wise men and [s]the sorcerers: now the magicians of E'gypt, they also [t]did in like manner with their enchantments.

12 For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents: but Aa'ron's rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pha'raoh's heart that he hearkened not unto them; [u]as the LORD had said.

14 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [x]Pha'raoh's heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pha'raoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink against he come; and [y]the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, [z]The LORD God of the He'brews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, [a]that they may serve me in the wilderness: and, behold, hitherto thou wouldest not hear.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this [b]thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and [c]they shall be turned [d]to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the E-gyp'tians shall [e]loathe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, Say unto Aa'ron, Take thy rod, and [f]stretch out thine hand upon the waters of E'gypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their †pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of E'gypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he [g]lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pha'raoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the [h]waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the E-gyp'tians [i]could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of E'gypt.

22 [k]And the magicians of E'gypt did so with their enchantments: and Pha'raoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; [l]as the LORD had said.

23 And Pha'raoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

24 And all the E-gyp'tians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

CHAPTER VIII.

Frogs are sent—Pharaoh inclineth to let the people go, but yet is hardened.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, Go unto Pha'raoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, [a]that they may serve me.

2 And if thou [b]refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with [c]frogs:

B. C. 1491.

6 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron did so; as the LORD com-
7 manded them, so did they. And Mo'ses was four-score years old, and Aa'ron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pha'raoh.

8 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto
9 Aa'ron, saying, When Pha'raoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a wonder for you: then thou shalt say unto Aa'ron, Take thy rod, and cast it down before Pha'raoh, that it become a [1]serpent.
10 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went in unto Pha'raoh, and they did so, as the LORD had commanded: and Aa'ron cast down his rod before Pha'raoh and before
11 his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pha'raoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers: and they also, the [2]magicians of E'gypt, did in like 12 manner with their [3]enchantments. For they cast down every man his rod, and they became serpents:
13 but Aa'ron's rod swallowed up their rods. And Pha'raoh's heart [4]was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken.
14 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Pha'raoh's heart
15 is [5]stubborn, he refuseth to let the people go. Get thee unto Pha'raoh in the morning; lo, he goeth out unto the water; and thou shalt stand by the river's brink to meet him; and the rod which was turned 16 to a [6]serpent shalt thou take in thine hand. And thou shalt say unto him, the LORD, the God of the He'brews, hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:
17 and, behold, hitherto thou hast not hearkened. Thus saith the LORD, In this thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the 18 river, and they shall be turned to blood. And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the E-gyp'tians shall loathe to drink
19 water from the river. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Say unto Aa'ron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the waters of E'gypt, over their rivers, over their [7]streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of E'gypt, both in vessels of wood and in ves-
20 sels of stone. And Mo'ses and Aa'ron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pha'raoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to 21 blood. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the E-gyp'tians could not drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout 22 all the land of E'gypt. And the magicians of E'gypt did in like manner with their enchantments: and Pha'raoh's heart [4]was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken.
23 And Pha'raoh turned and went into his house,
24 neither did he [8]lay even this to heart. And all the E-gyp'tians digged round about the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the 25 river. And seven days were fulfilled, after that the LORD had smitten the river.

8 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, Go in unto Pha'raoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve
2 me. And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs:

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into [d]thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy ||kneadingtroughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, Say unto Aa'ron, [e]Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of E'gypt.

6 And Aa'ron stretched out his hand over the waters of E'gypt; and [f]the frogs came up, and covered the land of E'gypt.

7 [g]And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of E'gypt.

8 ¶Then Pha'raoh called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron, and said, [h]Entreat the LORD, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Mo'ses said unto Pha'raoh, ||Glory over me: ||when shall I entreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, †to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

10 And he said, ||To-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that [i]there is none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

12 ¶And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went out from Pha'raoh: and Mo'ses [k]cried unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pha'raoh.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Mo'ses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank.

15 But when Pha'raoh saw that there was [l]respite, [m]he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

16 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Say unto A'aron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of E'gypt.

17 And they did so; for Aa'ron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and [n]it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of E'gypt.

18 And [o]the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they [p]could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pha'raoh, This is [q]the finger of God: and Pha'raoh's [r]heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

20 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [s]Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pha'raoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [t]Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send ||swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the E-gyp'tians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And [u]I will sever in that day the land of Go'shen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put †a division between my people and thy people: ||to-morrow shall this sign be.

3 and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into thy bed-chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine
4 ovens, and into thy kneadingtroughs: and the frogs shall come up both upon thee, and upon thy people,
5 and upon all thy servants. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Say unto Aa'ron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the rivers, over the [1]streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up upon
6 the land of E'gypt. And Aa'ron stretched out his hand over the waters of E'gypt; and the frogs came
7 up, and covered the land of E'gypt. And the magicians did in like manner with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of E'gypt.
8 Then Pha'raoh called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron, and said, Intreat the LORD, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice unto the LORD.
9 And Mo'ses said unto Pha'raoh, Have thou this glory over me: against what time shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, that the frogs be destroyed from thee and thy houses, and 10 remain in the river only? And he said, Against to-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that there is none like unto 11 the LORD our God. And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the 12 river only. And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went out from Pha'raoh: and Mo'ses cried unto the LORD concerning the frogs [2]which he had brought upon Pha'raoh.
13 And the LORD did according to the word of Mo'ses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the 14 courts, and out of the fields. And they gathered 15 them together in heaps: and the land stank. But when Pha'raoh saw that there was respite, he [3]hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken.
16 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Say unto Aa'ron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the earth, that it may become [4]lice throughout all the land of 17 E'gypt. And they did so; and Aa'ron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and there were lice upon man, and upon beast; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all
18 the land of E'gypt. And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: and there were lice upon man, and upon beast.
19 Then the magicians said unto Pha'raoh, This is the finger of God: and Pha'raoh's heart [5]was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken.
20 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pha'raoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, that they may serve
21 me. Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the E-gyp'tians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground
22 whereon they are. And I will sever in that day the land of Go'shen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the 23 earth. And I will [6]put a division between my people and thy people: by to-morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and [z]there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pha'raoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of E'gypt: the land was ‖ corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶And Pha'raoh called for Mo'ses, and for Aa'ron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Mo'ses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice [y]the abomination of the E-gyp'tians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the E-gyp'tians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27 We will go [z]three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as [a]he shall command us.

28 And Pha'raoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: [b]entreat for me.

29 And Mo'ses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will entreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pha'raoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: but let not Pha'raoh [c]deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Mo'ses went out from Pha'raoh, and [d]entreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Mo'ses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pha'raoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pha'raoh [e]hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

CHAPTER IX.

Murrain of beasts—Pharaoh sueth to Moses, but yet is hardened.

THEN the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [a]Go in unto Pha'raoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD God of the He'brews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 For if thou [b]refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3 Behold, the [c]hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4 And [d]the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Is'ra-el and the cattle of E'gypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Is'ra-el.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To-morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and [e]all the cattle of E'gypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Is'ra-el died not one.

7 And Pha'raoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Is'ra-el-ites dead. And [f]the heart of Pha'raoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Mo'ses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pha'raoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of E'gypt, and shall be [g]a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of E'gypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pha'raoh; and Mo'ses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became [h]a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the [i]magicians could not stand before Mo'ses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the E-gyp'tians.

12 And the LORD hardened the heart of Pha'raoh, and he hearkened not unto them; [k]as the LORD had spoken unto Mo'ses.

13 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [l]Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pha'raoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the He'brews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

24 And the LORD did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pha'raoh, and into his servants' houses: and in all the land of E'gypt the land was [1]corrupted by reason of the swarms of 25 flies. And Pha'raoh called for Mo'ses and for Aa'ron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.
26 And Mo'ses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the E-gyp'tians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the E-gyp'tians before their eyes, and will they 27 not stone us? We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God,
28 as he shall command us. And Pha'raoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very 29 far away: intreat for me. And Mo'ses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pha'raoh, from his servants, and from his people, to-morrow: only let not Pha'raoh deal deceitfully any more in not 30 letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD. And Mo'ses went out from Pha'raoh, and intreated the 31 LORD. And the LORD did according to the word of Mo'ses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pha'raoh, from his servants, and from his people;
32 there remained not one. And Pha'raoh [2]hardened his heart this time also, and he did not let the people go.

9 Then the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go in unto Pha'raoh, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD, the God of the He'brews, Let my people go, that they
2 may serve me. For if thou refuse to let them go,
3 and wilt hold them still, behold, the hand of the LORD is upon thy cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the herds, and upon the flocks: there shall be a very
4 grievous murrain. And the LORD shall sever between the cattle of Is'ra-el and the cattle of E'gypt: and there shall nothing die of all that belongeth to 5 the children of Is'ra-el. And the LORD appointed a set time saying, To-morrow the LORD shall do this
6 thing in the land. And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of E'gypt died: but of 7 the cattle of the children of Is'ra-el died not one. And Pha'raoh sent, and, behold, there was not so much as one of the cattle of the Is'ra-el-ites dead. But the heart of Pha'raoh was [3]stubborn, and he did not let the people go.
8 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, Take to you handfuls of [4]ashes of the furnace, and let Mo'ses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight
9 of Pha'raoh. And it shall become small dust over all the land of E'gypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains upon man and upon beast, through-
10 out all the land of E'gypt. And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pha'raoh; and Mo'ses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man and upon
11 beast. And the magicians could not stand before Mo'ses because of the boils; for the boils were upon 12 the magicians, and upon all the E-gyp'tians. And the LORD [5]hardened the heart of Pha'raoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Mo'ses.
13 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pha'raoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, the God of the He'brews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

24 So there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of E'gypt since it became a nation.

33 And Mo'ses went out of the city from Pha'raoh, and [c]spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

CHAPTER X.

Pharaoh inclineth to let the Israelites go—Plague of the locusts.

AND the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go in unto Pha'raoh: [a]for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, [b]that I might shew these my signs before him:
2 And that [c]thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son,

14 For I will this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none
15 like me in all the earth. For now I had put forth my hand, and smitten thee and thy people with pestilence, and thou hadst been cut off from the 16 earth: but in very deed for this cause have I made thee to stand, for to shew thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.
17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that 18 thou wilt not let them go? Behold, to-morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in E'gypt since the 19 day it was founded even until now. Now therefore send, hasten in thy cattle and all that thou hast in the field; for every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall 20 die. He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pha'raoh made his servants and his 21 cattle flee into the houses: and he that regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.
22 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of E'gypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the 23 land of E'gypt. And Mo'ses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and the LORD sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down unto the earth; and the LORD
24 rained hail upon the land of E'gypt. So there was hail, and fire [1]mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as had not been in all the land of E'gypt since
25 it became a nation. And the hail smote throughout all the land of E'gypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail smote every herb of the 26 field, and brake every tree of the field. Only in the land of Go'shen, where the children of Is'ra-el were,
27 was there no hail. And Pha'raoh sent, and called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron, and said unto them, I have sinned this time: the LORD is righteous, and I and 28 my people are wicked. Intreat the LORD; for there hath been enough of these [2]mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no
29 longer. And Mo'ses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou may-30 est know that the earth is the LORD's. But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet
31 fear the LORD God. And the flax and the barley were smitten: for the barley was in the ear, and the 32 flax [3]was bolled. But the wheat and the spelt were 33 not smitten: for they were not grown up. And Mo'ses went out of the city from Pha'raoh, and spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon 34 the earth. And when Pha'raoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and [4]hardened his heart, he and his serv-
35 ants. And the heart of Pha'raoh [5]was hardened, and he did not let the children of Is'ra-el go; as the LORD had spoken by Mo'ses.

10 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go in unto Pha'raoh: for I have [4]hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs in the midst of 2 them: and that thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things I have wrought in E'gypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD.

3 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron came in unto Pha'raoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the He'brews, How long wilt thou refuse to [d]humble thyself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to-morrow will I bring the [e]locusts into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the †face of the earth, that one cannot be able to see the earth: and [f]they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they [g]shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the E-gyp'tians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pha'raoh.

7 And Pha'raoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be [h]a snare unto us? let the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that E'gypt is destroyed?

8 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron were brought again unto Pha'raoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but †who are they that shall go?

9 And Mo'ses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for [i]we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pha'raoh's presence.

12 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [k]Stretch out thine hand over the land of E'gypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of E'gypt, and [l]eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

13 And Mo'ses stretched forth his rod over the land of E'gypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

14 And [m]the locusts went up over all the land of E'gypt, and rested in all the coasts of E'gypt: very grievous were they; [n]before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

15 For they [o]covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they [p]did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the herbs of the field, through all the land of E'gypt.

16 ¶Then Pha'raoh †called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron in haste; and he said, [q]I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and [r]entreat the LORD your God that he may take away from me this death only.

18 And he [s]went out from Pha'raoh, and entreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and †cast them [t]into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of E'gypt.

20 But the LORD [u]hardened Pha'raoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Is'ra-el go.

21 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [z]Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of E'gypt, †even darkness which may be felt.

12 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Stretch out thine hand over the land of E'gypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of E'gypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath

13 left. And Mo'ses stretched forth his rod over the land of E'gypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the 14 locusts. And the locusts went up over all the land of E'gypt, and rested in all the borders of E'gypt; very grievous were they; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be

15 such. For they covered the face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing, either tree or herb of the field, through 16 all the land of E'gypt. Then Pha'raoh called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and intreat the LORD your God, that he may 18 take away from me this death only. And he went

19 out from Pha'raoh, and intreated the LORD. And the LORD turned an exceeding strong west wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into the Red Sea; there remained not one locust in all the border of E'gypt. But the LORD [3]hardened Pha'raoh's heart, and he did not let the children of I'ra-el go.

21 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of E'gypt, [4]even darkness which may be felt.

22 And Mo'ses stretched forth his hand toward heaven;

CHAPTER XI.

The Israelites borrow jewels of their neighbours—Death of the firstborn.

AND the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pha'raoh, and upon E'gypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: [e]when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, [b]jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 [c]And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the E-gyp'tians. Moreover, the man [d]Mo'ses was very great in the land of E'gypt, in the sight of Pha'raoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Mo'ses said, Thus saith the LORD, [e]About midnight will I go out into the midst of E'gypt:

5 And [f]all the firstborn in the land of E'gypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pha'raoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 [g]And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of E'gypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 [h]But against any of the children of Is'rael [i]shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the E-gyp'tians and Is'ra-el.

8 And [k]all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people †that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pha'raoh in †a great anger.

9 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [l]Pha'raoh shall not hearken unto you; that [m]my wonders may be multiplied in the land of E'gypt.

10 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron did all these wonders before Pha'raoh: [n]and the LORD hardened Pha'raoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Is'ra-el go out of his land.

CHAPTER XII.

Beginning of the year changed—Passover instituted—Israelites driven out.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron in the land of E'gypt, saying,

2 [a]This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 ¶Speak ye unto all the congregation of Is'ra-el, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a ‖ lamb according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for a house:

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be [b]without blemish, a male †of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep or from the goats:

6 And ye shall keep it up until the [c]fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Is'ra-el shall kill it †in the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side posts, and on the upper door post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and [d]unleavened bread; and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but [e]roast with fire; his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 [f]And ye shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; and that which remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.

11 ¶And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste: [g]it is the LORD'S passover.

12 For I [h]will pass through the land of E'gypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of E'gypt, both man and beast; and [i]against all the ||gods of E'gypt I will execute judgment: [k]I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you †to destroy you, when I smite the land of E'gypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you [l]for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a [m]feast to the LORD throughout your generations: ye shall keep it a feast [n]by an ordinance for ever.

15 [o]Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, [p]that soul shall be cut off from Is'ra-el.

16 And in the first day there shall be [q]a holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be a holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every †man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for [r]in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of E'gypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶[s]In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 [t]Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, [u]even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Is'ra-el, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶Then Mo'ses called for all the elders of Is'ra-el, and said unto them, [x]Draw out and take you a ||lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 [y]And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and [z]strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the basin; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.

23 [a]For the Lord will pass through to smite the E-gyp'tians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and [b]will not suffer [c]the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, [d]according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 [e]And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, [f]It is the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Is'ra-el in E'gypt, when he smote the E-gyp'tians, and delivered our houses. And the people [g]bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Is'ra-el went away, and [h]did as the LORD had commanded Mo'ses and Aa'ron, so did they.

29 ¶ [i]And it came to pass, that at midnight [k]the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of E'gypt, [l]from the firstborn of Pha'raoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the †dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pha'raoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the E-gyp'tians; and there was a [m]great cry in E'gypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And [n]he called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, [o]both ye and the children of Is'ra-el; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 [p]Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and [q]bless me also.

33 [r]And the E-gyp'tians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, [s]We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their ‖ kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Is'ra-el did according to the word of Mo'ses; and they borrowed of the E-gyp'tians [t]jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 [u]And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the E-gyp'tians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and [z]they spoiled the E-gyp'tians.

37 ¶ And [v]the children of Is'ra-el journeyed from [z]Ra-me'ses to Suc'coth, about [a]six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children.

38 And †a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of E'gypt, for it was not leavened; because [b]they were thrust out of E'gypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victuals.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Is'ra-el who dwelt in E'gypt was [c]four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all [d]the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of E'gypt.

42 It is †[e]a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of E'gypt: this is that night of the LORD to be observed of all the children of Is'ra-el in their generations.

43 ¶ And the LORD said unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron, This is [f]the ordinance of the passover: There shall no stranger eat thereof:

44 But every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast [g]circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 [h]A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth aught of the flesh abroad out of the house; [i]neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 [k]All the congregation of Is'ra-el shall †keep it.

B. C. 1491.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance
25 to thee and to thy sons for ever. And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath prom-
26 ised, that ye shall keep this service. And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto 27 you, What mean ye by this service? that ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD'S passover, [1]who passed over the houses of the children of Is'ra-el in E'gypt, when he smote the E-gyp'tians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the 28 head and worshipped. And the children of Is'ra-el went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Mo'ses and Aa'ron, so did they.

29 And it came to pass at midnight, that the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of E'gypt, from the firstborn of Pha'raoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon;
30 and all the firstborn of cattle. And Pha'raoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the E-gyp'tians; and there was a great cry in E'gypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.
31 And he called for Mo'ses and Aa'ron by night, and said, Rise up, get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Is'ra-el; and go, serve 32 the LORD, as ye have said. Take both your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and 33 bless me also. And the E-gyp'tians were urgent upon the people, to send them out of the land in 34 haste; for they said, We be all dead men. And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneadingtroughs being bound up in their 35 clothes upon their shoulders. And the children of Is'ra-el did according to the word of Mo'ses; and they asked of the E-gyp'tians jewels of silver, and 36 jewels of gold, and raiment: and the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the E-gyp'tians, so that they let them have what they asked. And they spoiled the E-gyp'tians.

37 And the children of Is'ra-el journeyed from Ra-me'ses to Suc'coth, about six hundred thousand on 38 foot that were men, beside children. And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and 39 herds, even very much cattle. And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of E'gypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of E'gypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.
40 Now the sojourning of the children of Is'ra-el, which they sojourned in E'gypt, was four hundred and
41 thirty years. And it came to pass at the end of four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD
42 went out from the land of E'gypt. It is [2]a night to be much observed unto the LORD for bringing them out from the land of E'gypt: [3]this is that night of the LORD, to be much observed of all the children of Is'ra-el throughout their generations.

43 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron, This is the ordinance of the passover: there shall no alien eat 44 thereof: but every man's servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall
45 he eat thereof. A sojourner and an hired servant
46 shall not eat thereof. In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth aught of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone
47 thereof. All the congregation of Is'ra-el shall [4]keep it.

50 Thus did all the children of Is'ra-el; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses and Aa'ron, so did they.

CHAPTER XIII.

The Israelites go out of Egypt—The pillar of a cloud, and the pillar of fire.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 [a]Sanctify unto me all the firstborn, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Is'ra-el, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶And Mo'ses said unto the people, [b]Remember this day, in which ye came out from E'gypt, out of the house of †bondage; for [c]by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place: [d]there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 [e]This day came ye out in the month A'bib.

5 ¶And it shall be when the LORD shall [f]bring thee into the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hit'tites, and the Am'o-rites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u-sites, which he [g]sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, [h]that thou shalt keep this service in this month.

6 [i]Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven days; and there shall [k]no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 ¶And thou shalt [l]shew thy son in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the LORD did unto me when I came forth out of E'gypt.

9 And it shall be for [m]a sign unto thee upon thine hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the LORD'S law may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the LORD brought thee out of E'gypt.

10 [n]Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in his season from year to year.

11 ¶And it shall be when the LORD shall bring thee into the land of the Ca'naan-ites, as he sware unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee,

12 [o]That thou shalt †set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the male shall be the LORD'S.

13 And [p]every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a ‖lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children [q]shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶[r]And it shall be when thy son asketh thee †in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, [s]By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from E'gypt, from the house of bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pha'raoh would hardly let us go, that [t]the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of E'gypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for [u]a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of E'gypt.

17 ¶And it came to pass, when Pha'raoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Phi-lis'tines, although that was near; for God

CHAPTER XIV.

Pharaoh pursueth the Israelites—The Egyptians drowned in the Red sea.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, [a]that they turn and encamp before [b]Pi'ha-hi'roth, between [c]Mig'dol and the sea, over against Ba'al-ze'phon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pha'raoh will say of the children of Is'rael, [d]They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And [e]I will harden Pha'raoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I [f]will be honoured upon Pha'raoh, and upon all his host; [g]that the E-gyp'tians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

5 ¶And it was told the king of E'gypt that the people fled: and [h]the heart of Pha'raoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Is'ra-el go from serving us?

6 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

7 And he took [i]six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of E'gypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD [k]hardened the heart of Pha'raoh king of E'gypt, and he pursued after the children of Is'ra-el: and [l]the children of Is'ra-el went out with a high hand.

9 But the [m]E-gyp'tians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pha'raoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi'ha-hi'roth, before Ba'al-ze'phon.

10 ¶And when Pha'raoh drew nigh, the children of Is'ra-el lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the E-gyp'tians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Is'ra-el [n]cried out unto the LORD.

11 [o]And they said unto Mo'ses, Because there were no graves in E'gypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of E'gypt?

unto the children of Is-rael, that they turn back and encamp before Pi'ha-hi'roth, between Mig'dol and the 17 And I, behold, I will [u]harden the hearts of the E-gyp'tians, and they shall follow them: and I will [x]get me honour upon Pha'raoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the E-gyp'tians [y]shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pha'raoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶And the Angel of God [z]which went before the camp of Is'ra-el, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the E-gyp'tians and the camp of Is'ra-el; and [a]it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Mo'ses [b]stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and [c]made the sea dry land, and the waters were [d]divided.

22 And [e]the children of Is'ra-el went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were [f]a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶And the E-gyp'tians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pha'raoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

24 And it came to pass, that in the morning watch [g]the LORD looked unto the host of the E-gyp'tians through the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the E-gyp'tians.

25 And took off their chariot wheels, ‖that they drave them heavily: so that the E-gyp'tians said, Let us flee from the face of Is'ra-el; for the LORD [h]fighteth for them against the E-gyp'tians.

26 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [i]Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the E-gyp'tians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 And Mo'ses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea [k]returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the E-gyp'tians fled against it; and the LORD [l]†overthrew the E-gyp'tians in the midst of the sea.

28 And [m]the waters returned, and [n]covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pha'raoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 [o]But the children of Is'ra-el walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD [p]saved Is'ra-el that day out of the hand of the E-gyp'tians; and Is'ra-el [q]saw the E-gyp'tians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Is'ra-el saw that great †work which the LORD did upon the E-gyp'tians: and the people feared the LORD, and [r]believed the LORD, and his servant Mo'ses.

CHAPTER XV.

Moses' song—Waters at Marah are bitter—The people remove to Elim.

THEN sang [a]Mo'ses and the children of Is'ra-el this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will [b]sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and [c]song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him [d]a habitation; my [e]father's God, and I [f]will exalt him.

3 The LORD is a man of [g]war: the LORD is his [h]name.

4 [i]Pha'raoh's chariots and his host hath he cast into the sea: [k]his chosen captains also are drowned in the Red sea.

5 [l]The depths have covered them: [m]they sank into the bottom as a stone.

B. C. 1491.

17 And I, behold, I will [1]harden the hearts of the E-gyp'tians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get me honour upon Pha'raoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the E-gyp'tians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pha'raoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Is'ra-el, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud removed from before them,

20 and stood behind them: and it came between the camp of E'gypt and the camp of Is'ra-el; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet gave it light by night: and the one came not near the other all the

21 night. And Mo'ses stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry

22 land, and the waters were divided. And the children of Is'ra-el went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto

23 them on their right hand, and on their left. And the E-gyp'tians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea, all Pha'raoh's horses, his char-

24 iots, and his horsemen. And it came to pass in the morning watch, that the LORD looked forth upon the host of the E-gyp'tians through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and discomfited the host of the E-gyp'tians.

25 And he [2]took off their chariot wheels, [3]that they drave them heavily: so that the E-gyp'tians said, Let us flee from the face of Is'ra-el; for the LORD fighteth for them against the E-gyp'tians.

26 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the E-gyp'tians, upon their chariots, and upon

27 their horsemen. And Mo'ses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its [4]strength when the morning appeared; and the E-gyp'tians fled against it; and the LORD [5]overthrew the E-gyp'tians

28 in the midst of the sea. And the waters returned, and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, even all the host of Pha'raoh that went in after them into the sea; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Is'ra-el walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD saved Is'ra-el that day out of the hand of the E-gyp'tians; and Is'ra-el saw the E-gyp'tians

31 dead upon the sea shore. And Is'ra-el saw the great [6]work which the LORD did upon the E-gyp'tians, and the people feared the LORD: and they believed in the LORD, and in his servant Mo'ses.

2 [8]The LORD is my strength and song,

6 [n]Thy right hand, O LORD, is become glorious in power: thy right hand, O LORD, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.

7 And in the greatness of thine [o]excellency thou hast overthrown them that rose up against thee: thou sentest forth thy wrath, which [p]consumed them [q]as stubble.

8 And [r]with the blast of thy nostrils the waters were gathered together, [s]the floods stood upright as a heap, and the depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.

9 [t]The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake, I will [u]divide the spoil; my lust shall be satisfied upon them; I will draw my sword, my hand shall ||destroy them.

10 Thou didst [x]blow with thy wind, [y]the sea covered them: they sank as lead in the mighty waters.

11 [a]Who is like unto thee, O LORD, among the ||gods? who is like thee, [c]glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, [b]doing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out [c]thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercy hast [d]led forth the people which thou hast redeemed: thou hast guided them in thy strength unto [e]thy holy habitation.

14 [f]The people shall hear, and be afraid: [g]sorrow shall take hold on the inhabitants of Pal-es-ti'na.

15 [h]Then [i]the dukes of E'dom shall be amazed; [k]the mighty men of Mo'ab, trembling shall take hold upon them; [l]all the inhabitants of Ca'naan shall melt away.

16 [m]Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thine arm they shall be as still [n]as a stone; till thy people pass over, O LORD, till the people pass over [o]which thou hast purchased.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and [p]plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, in the place, O LORD, which thou hast made for thee to dwell in; in the [q]sanctuary, O LORD, which thy hands have established.

18 [r]The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

19 For the [s]horse of Pha'raoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and [t]the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Is'ra-el went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶And Mir'i-am [u]the prophetess, [z]the sister of Aa'ron, [y]took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her [z]with timbrels and with dances.

21 And Mir'i-am [a]answered them, [b]Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Mo'ses brought Is'ra-el from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of [c]Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶And when they came to [d]Ma'rah, they could not drink of the waters of Ma'rah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called ||Ma'rah.

24 And the people [e]murmured against Mo'ses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he [f]cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, [h]which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he [i]made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there [k]he proved them,

CHAPTER XVI.

God promiseth bread from heaven—Quails are sent, and manna.

AND they [a]took their journey from E'lim, and all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el came unto the wilderness of [b]Sin, which is between E'lim and Si'nai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of E'gypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Is'ra-el [c]murmured against Mo'ses and Aa'ron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Is'ra-el said unto them, [d]Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of E'gypt, [e]when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

4 ¶Then said the LORD unto Mo'ses, Behold, I will rain [f]bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather †a certain rate every day, that I may [g]prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and [h]it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron said unto all the children of Is'ra-el, [i]At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of E'gypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see [k]the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and [l]what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Mo'ses said, This shall be when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but [m]against the LORD.

9 ¶And Mo'ses spake unto Aa'ron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, [n]Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aa'ron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD [o]appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

12 [p]I have heard the murmurings of the children of Is'ra-el: speak unto them, saying, [q]At even ye shall eat flesh, and [r]in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even [s]the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning [t]the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay [u]a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Is'ra-el saw it, they said one to another, ‖ It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Mo'ses said unto them, [x]This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

27 And they came to E'lim, where were twelve springs of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters. 16 And they took their journey from E'lim, and all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between E'lim and Si'nai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of 2 the land of E'gypt. little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Mo'ses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Mo'ses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank: and Mo'ses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Mo'ses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is [a]the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to-day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

25 And Mo'ses said, Eat that to-day; for to-day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to-day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 [c]Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, How long [d]refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days: abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Is'ra-el called the name thereof Manna: and [e]it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 ¶And Mo'ses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of E'gypt.

33 And Mo'ses said unto Aa'ron, [f]Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so Aa'ron laid it up [g]before the Testimony, to be kept.

35 And the children of Is'ra-el did eat manna [h]forty years, [i]until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Ca'naan.

And they gathered it morning by morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sun waxed hot, it melted. And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for each one: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Mo'ses. And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath spoken, To-morrow is a solemn rest, a holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake, and seethe that which ye will seethe; and all that remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning. And they laid it up till the morning, as Mo'ses bade: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein. 23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be [i]able to endure, and all this people shall also go to [k]their place in peace.

24 So Mo'ses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And [n]all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Mo'ses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Lo, I come unto thee [o]in a thick cloud, [p]that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and [q]believe thee for ever. And Mo'ses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go unto the people, and [r]sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let them [s]wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD [t]will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Si'nai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: [u]whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the ||[z]trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶And Mo'ses went down from the mount unto the people, and [v]sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, [x]Be ready against the third day: [y]come not at your wives.

16 ¶And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were [b]thunders and lightnings, and a [c]thick cloud upon the mount, and the [d]voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp [e]trembled.

17 And [f]Mo'ses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And [g]mount Si'nai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it [h]in fire: [i]and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and [k]the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And [l]when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, [m]Mo'ses spake, and [n]God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Si'nai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Mo'ses up to the top of the mount; and Mo'ses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go down, †charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD [o]to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, [p]sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [q]break forth upon them.

23 And Mo'ses said unto the LORD, The people can not come up to mount Si'nai: for thou chargedst us, saying, [r]Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aa'ron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Mo'ses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAPTER XX.

The ten commandments—Idolatry is forbidden.

AND God spake [c]all these words, saying,

[b]I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of E'gypt, [c]out of the house of †bondage.

3 [d]Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 [e]Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 [f]Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am [g]a jealous God, [h]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

8 the LORD commanded him. And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Mo'ses reported the 9 words of the people unto the LORD. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and may also believe thee for ever. And Mo'ses told the words of the people unto the LORD.
10 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to-day and to-morrow, and let 11 them wash their garments, and be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount
12 Si'nai. And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely 13 put to death: no hand shall touch [1]him, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the [2]trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.
14 And Mo'ses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed
15 their garments. And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not near a woman.
16 And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of a trumpet exceeding loud; and all the people
17 that were in the camp trembled. And Mo'ses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the nether part of the

20 voice. And the LORD came down upon mount Si'nai, to the top of the mount: and the LORD called Mo'ses to the top of the mount; and Mo'ses went 21 up. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the 22 LORD to gaze, and many of them perish. And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon 23 them. And Mo'ses said unto the LORD, The people can not come up to mount Si'nai: for thou didst charge us, saying, Set bounds about the mount,
24 and sanctify it. And the LORD said unto him, Go, get thee down; and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aa'ron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD,
25 lest he break forth upon them. So Mo'ses went down unto the people, and told them.

7 ¶[k]Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD [l]will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 [m]Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 [n]Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the [o]seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, [p]nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For [q]in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 ¶[r]Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 [s]Thou shalt not kill.

14 [t]Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 [u]Thou shalt not steal.

16 [w]Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 [x]Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, [y]thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

18 ¶And [z]all the people [a]saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain [b]smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Mo'ses, [c]Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but [d]let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Mo'ses said unto the people, [e]Fear not: [f]for God is come to prove you, and [g]that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Mo'ses drew near unto [h]the thick darkness where God was.

22 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Is'ra-el, Ye have seen that I have talked with you [i]from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make [k]with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 ¶An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, [l]thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all [m]places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will [n]bless thee.

25 And [o]if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not †build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

Sundry laws for men servants, etc.

NOW these are the jndgments which thou shalt [a]set before them.

2 [b]If thou buy a He'brew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have borne him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 [c]And if the servant †shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the [d]judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall [e]bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 ¶And if a man [f]sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out [g]as the menservants do.
8 If she †please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.
9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.
10 If he take him another wife, her food, her raiment, [h]and her duty of marriage shall he not diminish.
11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money.
12 ¶[i]He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.
13 And [k]if a man lie not in wait, but God [l]deliver him into his hand; then [m]I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.
14 But if a man come [n]presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; [o]thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.
15 ¶And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.
16 ¶And [p]he that stealeth a man, and [q]selleth him, or if he be [r]found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.
17 ¶And [s]he that || curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

26 ¶And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.
27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

B. C. 1491.

7 And if a man sell his daughter to be a [1]maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.
8 If she please not her master, [2]who hath espoused her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange people he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.
9 And if he espouse her unto his son, he shall deal
10 with her after the manner of daughters. If he take him another wife; her [3]food, her raiment, and her 11 duty of marriage, shall he not diminish. And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out for nothing, without money.
12 He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall surely 13 be put to death. And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint 14 thee a place whither he shall flee. And if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.
15 And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.
16 And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.
17 And he that [4]curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.
18 And if men contend, and one smiteth the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but 19 keep his bed: if he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for [5]the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.
20 And if a man smite [6]his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall surely 21 be punished. Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.
22 And if men strive together, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely fined, according as the woman's husband shall lay upon him; and he
23 shall pay as the judges determine. But if any mis-
24 chief follow, then thou shalt give life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, 25 burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, and destroy it; he shall let him go
27 free for his eye's sake. And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.
28 And if an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die, the ox shall be surely stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.
29 But if the ox were wont to gore in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also 30 shall be put to death. If there be laid on him a ransom, then he shall give for the redemption of his 31 life whatsoever is laid upon him. Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to 32 this judgement shall it be done unto him. If the ox gore a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.
33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein,

Of slander, false witness; justice, charitableness, the Sabbath, etc.

12 [o]Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.
13 And in all things that I have said unto you, [p]be circumspect: and [q]make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 [v]Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the LORD God.

18 [s]Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my ||sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 [a]The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. [b]Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 ¶[c]Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, [d]provoke him not; for he will [e]not pardon your transgressions: for [f]my name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then [g]I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and ||an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 [h]For mine Angel shall go before thee, and [i]bring thee in unto the Am'o-rites, and the Hit'tites, and the Per'iz-zites, and the Ca'naan-ites, and the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u-sites; and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not [k]bow down to their gods, nor serve them, [l]nor do after their works: [m]but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall [n]serve the LORD your God, and [o]he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and [p]I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 ¶[q]There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will [r]fulfil.

27 I will send [s]my fear before thee, and will [t]destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come; and I will make all thine enemies turn their †backs unto thee.

28 And [u]I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hi'vite, the Ca'naan-ite, and the Hit'tite, from before thee.

29 [w]I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And [x]I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Phi-lis'tines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will [y]deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 [z]Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, [a]it will surely be a snare unto thee.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Moses buildeth an altar, and twelve pillars—The glory of God appeareth.

AND he said unto Mo'ses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aa'ron, [c]Na'dab, and A-bi'hu, [b]and seventy of the elders of Is'ra-el; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Mo'ses [c]alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶And Mo'ses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, [d]All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Mo'ses [e]wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve [f]pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Is'ra-el.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Is'ra-el, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Mo'ses [g]took half of the blood, and put it in basins; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

ingathering, at the end of the year, when thou gath-
17 erest in thy labours out of the field. Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the LORD God.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my 19 feast remain all night until the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy ground thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in its mother's milk.

20 Behold, I send an angel before thee, to keep thee by the way, and to bring thee into the place which 21 I have prepared. Take ye heed of him, and hearken unto his voice; [1]provoke him not: for he will not pardon your transgression; for my name is in him.
22 But if thou shalt indeed hearken unto his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversa-
23 ries. For mine angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Am'o-rite, and the Hit'tite, and the Per'iz-zite, and the Ca'naan-ite, the Hi'vite, and 24 the Jeb'u-site: and I will cut them off. Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow
25 them, and break in pieces their [2]pillars. And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness
26 away from the midst of thee. There shall none cast her young, nor be barren, in thy land: the 27 number of thy days I will fulfil. I will send my terror before thee, and will discomfit all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine
28 enemies turn their backs unto thee. And I will send the hornet before thee, which shall drive out the Hi'vite, the Ca'naan-ite, and the Hit'tite, from be-
29 fore thee. I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and 30 the beast of the field multiply against thee. By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.
31 And I will set thy border from the Red Sea even unto the sea of the Phi-lis'tines, and from the wilderness unto [3]the River: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand: and thou shalt
32 drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no
33 covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

24 And he said unto Mo'ses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aa'ron, Na'dab, and A-bi'hu, and seventy of the elders of Is'ra-el; and worship ye afar
2 off: and Mo'ses alone shall come near unto the LORD; but they shall not come near; neither shall
3 the people go up with him. And Mo'ses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgements: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD
4 hath spoken will we do. And Mo'ses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the mount, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of 5 Is'ra-el. And he sent young men of the children of Is'ra-el, which offered burnt offerings, and sacri-
6 ficed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD. And Mo'ses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

B. C. 1491.

7 And he [h]took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, [i]All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Mo'ses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold [k]the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 ¶Then [l]went up Mo'ses, and Aa'ron, Na'dab, and A-bi'hu, and seventy of the elders of Is'ra-el;

10 And they [m]saw the God of Is'ra-el: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a [n]sapphire stone, and as it were the [o]body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Is'ra-el he [p]laid not his hand: also [q]they saw God, and did [r]eat and drink.

12 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [s]Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee [t]tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Mo'ses rose up, and [u]his minister Josh'u-a; and Mo'ses [w]went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aa'ron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Mo'ses went up into the mount, and [z]a cloud covered the mount.

16 And [y]the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Si'nai, and the cloud covered it six days; and the seventh day he called unto Mo'ses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like [a]devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Is'ra-el.

18 And Mo'ses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and [b]Mo'ses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

CHAPTER XXV.

The form of the ark—The mercy seat with the cherubim, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, that they †bring me an ‖offering: [c]of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and ‖fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

6 [b]Oil for the light, [c]spices for anointing oil, and for [d]sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the [e]ephod, and in the [f]breastplate.

8 And let them make me a [g]sanctuary; that [h]I may dwell among them.

9 [i]According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶[k]And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 [l]The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

[l]1 Kings 8. 8.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath spoken will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Mo'ses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you [1]concerning all

9 these words. Then went up Mo'ses, and Aa'ron, Na'dab, and A-bi'hu, and seventy of the elders of Is'-

10 ra-el: and they saw the God of Is'ra-el; and there was under his feet as it were [2]a paved work of sapphire stone, and as it were the very heaven for 11 clearness. And upon the nobles of the children of Is'ra-el he laid not his hand: and they beheld God, and did eat and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee the tables of stone, and the law and the commandment, which I have written, that thou mayest teach

13 them. And Mo'ses rose up, and Josh'u-a his minister:

14 and Mo'ses went up into the mount of God. And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aa'ron and Hur are with you: whosoever hath a cause, let him

15 come near unto them. And Mo'ses went up into

16 the mount, and the cloud covered the mount. And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Si'nai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Mo'ses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the 18 eyes of the children of Is'ra-el. And Mo'ses entered into the midst of the cloud, and went up into the mount: and Mo'ses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

25 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, that they take for me an [3]offering: of every man whose heart maketh

3 him willing ye shall take my [3]offering. And this is the [3]offering which ye shall take of them; gold,

4 and silver, and brass; and blue, and purple, and

5 scarlet, and [4]fine linen, and goats' hair; and rams' skins dyed red, and [5]sealskins, and acacia wood;

6 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil,

7 and for the sweet incense: [6]onyx stones, and stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the breast-

8 plate. And let them make me a sanctuary; that

9 I may dwell among them. According to all that I shew thee, the pattern of the [7]tabernacle, and the pattern of all the furniture thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 And they shall make an ark of acacia wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a

11 cubit and a half the height thereof. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it

12 a [8]crown of gold round about. And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four feet thereof; and two rings shall be on the one [9]side of it, and two rings on the other [9]side of 13 it. And thou shalt make staves of acacia wood,

14 and overlay them with gold. And thou shalt put the staves into the rings on the sides of the ark,

15 to bear the ark withal. The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

CHAPTER XXVI.

Directions for the tabernacle.

MOREOVER [a]thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubim †of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 ¶And [b]thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the || tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the back side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side †of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And [c]thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 ¶And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two †tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards,

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be †coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

38 And it shall be upon Aa'ron's forehead, that Aa'ron may [u]bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Is'ra-el shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be [w]accepted before the LORD.

39 ¶And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 ¶[x]And for Aa'ron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aa'ron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt [y]anoint them, and †[z]consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them [a]linen breeches to cover †their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall †reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aa'ron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near [b]unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they [c]bear not iniquity and die: [d]it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

CHAPTER XXIX.

Consecrating the Priests—The continual burnt offering—God's promise.

AND this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: [a]Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

2 And [b]unleavened bread, and cakes unleavened tempered with oil, and wafers unleavened anointed with oil: of wheaten flour shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock and the two rams.

4 And Aa'ron and his sons thou shalt bring unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, [e]and shalt wash them with water.

5 [d]And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aa'ron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and gird him with [e]the curious girdle of the ephod:

6 [f]And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing [g]oil, and pour it upon his head, and anoint him.

8 And [h]thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.

9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aa'ron and his sons, and †put the bonnets on them: and [i]the priest's office shall be theirs for a perpetual statute: and thou shalt †[k]consecrate Aa'ron and his sons.

10 And thou shalt cause a bullock to be brought before the tabernacle of the congregation; and [l]Aa'ron and his sons shall put their hands upon the head of the bullock.

11 And thou shalt kill the bullock before the LORD, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And thou [m]shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it upon [n]the horns of the altar with thy finger, and pour all the blood beside the bottom of the altar.

13 And [o]thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and ‖the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But [p]the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sin offering.

36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, HOLY 37 TO THE LORD. And thou shalt put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be upon the [1]mitre; upon the fore-

8 pour it upon his head, and anoint him. And thou shalt bring his sons, and put coats upon them.
9 And thou shalt gird them with girdles, Aa'ron and his sons, and bind headtires on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and thou shalt consecrate Aa'ron and his sons.

26 And thou shalt take [a]the breast of the ram of Aa'ron's consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and [b]it shall be thy part.

37 Seven days thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctify it; [s]and it shall be an altar most holy: [t]whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

38 ¶Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; [u]two lambs of the first year [w]day by day continually.

39 The one lamb thou shalt offer [x]in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even:

40 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil: and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering.

41 And the other lamb thou shalt [y]offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

42 This shall be [z]a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD, [a]where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

43 And there I will meet with the children of Is'ra-el, and ‖ the tabernacle [b]shall be sanctified by my glory.

44 And I will sanctify the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will [c]sanctify also both Aa'ron and his sons, to minister to me in the priest's office.

46 And they shall know that [e]I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of E'gypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

CHAPTER XXX.

Altar of incense—The brazen laver—The holy anointing oil.

AND thou shalt make [a]an altar [b]to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be; and two cubits shall be the height thereof; the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the †top thereof, and the †sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two †corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the [c]mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aa'ron shall burn thereon †[d]sweet incense every morning: when [e]he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aa'ron ‖†lighteth the lamps †at even, he shall buru incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no [f]strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And [g]Aa'ron shall make an atouement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood of the sin offering of atonements; once in a year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

35 And thus shalt thou do unto Aa'ron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded thee: seven 36 days shalt thou consecrate them. And every day shalt thou offer the bullock of sin offering for atonement: and thou shalt [1]cleanse the altar, when thou makest atonement for it; and thou shalt anoint it, to 37 sanctify it. Seven days thou shalt make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; [2]whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.
38 Now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar; two lambs of the first year day by day con-
39 tinually. The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer [3]at even:
40 and with the one lamb a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil; and the fourth part of an hin of wine for 41 a drink offering. And the other lamb thou shalt offer [3]at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to the drink offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offer-
42 ing made by fire unto the LORD. It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the tent of meeting before the LORD: where I will meet with you, to speak there unto 43 thee. And there I will meet with the children of Is'ra-el; and the Tent shall be sanctified by my glory.
44 And I will sanctify the tent of meeting, and the altar: Aa'ron also and his sons will I sanctify, to 45 minister to me in the priest's office. And I will dwell among the children of Is'ra-el, and will be 46 their God. And they shall know that I am the LORD their God, that brought them forth out of the land of E'gypt, that I may dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

30 And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense
2 upon: of acacia wood shalt thou make it. A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be
3 of one piece with it. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the [4]top thereof, and the [5]sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt
4 make unto it a [6]crown of gold round about. And two golden rings shalt thou make for it under the crown thereof, upon the two ribs thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make them; and they shall be for
5 places for staves to bear it withal. And thou shalt make the staves of acacia wood, and overlay them
6 with gold. And thou shalt put it before the veil that is by the ark of the testimony, before the mercy-seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.
7 And Aa'ron shall burn thereon incense of sweet spices: every morning, when he dresseth the lamps,
8 he shall burn it. And when Aa'ron [7]lighteth the lamps [3]at even, he shall burn it, a perpetual incense
9 before the LORD throughout your generations. Ye shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt offering, nor meat offering; and ye shall pour no
10 drink offering thereon. And Aa'ron shall make atonement [8]upon the horns of it once in the year: with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year shall he make atonement [9]for it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

17 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
18 [s]Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt [t]put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.
19 For Aa'ron and his sons [u]shall wash their hands and their feet thereat:

30 [f]And thou shalt anoint Aa'ron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.
31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil unto me throughout your generations.

33 [h]Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, [i]shall even be cut off from his people.
34 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [k]Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:

CHAPTER XXXI.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 [a]See, I have called by name Be-zal'e-el the [b]son of U'ri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Ju'dah:
3 And I have [c]filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,
4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
5 And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.
6 And I, behold, I have given with him [d]A-ho'li-ab the son of A-his'a-mach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are [e]wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee;

11 [o]And the anointing oil, and [p]sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.
12 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
13 Speak thou also unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, [q]Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.
14 [r]Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you. Every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for [s]whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

AND when the people saw that Mo'ses [a]delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aa'ron, and said unto him, [b]Up, make us gods which shall [c]go before us; for as for this Mo'ses, the man that brought us up out of the land of E'gypt, we wot not what is become of him.

37 most holy. And the incense which thou shalt make, according to the composition thereof ye shall not make for yourselves: it shall be unto 38 thee holy for the LORD. Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, he shall be cut off from his people.

31 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 See, I have called by name Bez'a-lel the son of U'ri,
3 the son of Hur, of the tribe of Ju'dah: and I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner
4 of workmanship, to devise cunning works, to work
5 in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work
6 in all manner of workmanship. And I, behold, I have appointed with him O-ho'li-ab, the son of A-his'a-mach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee:
7 the tent of meeting, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is thereupon, and all the 8 furniture of the Tent; and the table and its vessels, and the pure candlestick with all its vessels, and the 9 altar of incense; and the altar of burnt offering
10 with all its vessels, and the laver and its base; and the [1]finely wrought garments, and the holy garments for Aa'ron the priest, and the garments of his 11 sons, to minister in the priest's office; and the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.
12 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
13 Speak thou also unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, Verily ye shall keep my sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD which sanc-
14 tify you. Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that profaneth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from 15 among his people. Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.
16 Wherefore the children of Is'ra-el shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their 17 generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Is'ra-el for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.
18 And he gave unto Mo'ses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Si'nai, the two tables of the testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

[1]Some ancient versions render, garments of service.

32 And when the people saw that Mo'ses delayed to come down from the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aa'ron, and said unto him, Up, make us [2]gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Mo'ses, the man that brought us up out of the land of E'gypt, we know not what is become of him.

earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.

3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aa'ron.

4 [c]And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graven tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Is'ra-el, which brought thee up out of the land of E'gypt.

5 And when Aa'ron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aa'ron made [f]proclamation, and said, To-morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the [g]people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [h]Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of E'gypt, [i]have corrupted themselves:

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which [k]I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, [l]These be thy gods, O Is'ra-el, which have brought thee up out of the land of E'gypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [m]I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore [n]let me alone, that [o]my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and [p]I will make of thee a great nation.

11 [q]And Mo'ses besought †the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of E'gypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 [r]Wherefore should the E-gyp'tians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and [s]repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember A'bra-ham, I'saac, and Is'ra-el, thy servants, to whom thou [t]swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, [u]I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD [w]repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶And [x]Mo'ses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the [y]tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Josh'u-a heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Mo'ses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for †being overcome; but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that [z]he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Mo'ses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 [a]And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed it upon the water, and made the children of Is'ra-el drink of it.

21 And Mo'ses said unto Aa'ron, [b]What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aa'ron said, Let not the anger of my lord wax hot: [c]thou knowest the people, that they are set on mischief.

The Lord refuseth to go with the people—The Lord talketh with Moses.

19 And he said, [l]I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the LORD before thee; [m]and will be [n]gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

18 shalt make thee no molten gods. The feast of unleavened bread shalt thou keep. Seven days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, as I commanded thee, at the time appointed in the month A'bib: for in the 19 month A'bib thou camest out from E'gypt. All that openeth the womb is mine; and all thy cattle that 20 is male, the firstlings of ox and sheep. And the firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a [4]lamb: and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break its neck. All the firstborn of thy sons thou shalt redeem. And none shall appear before me empty.
21 Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest; in plowing time and in harvest thou
22 shalt rest. And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, even of the firstfruits of wheat harvest, and 23 the feast of ingathering at the year's [5]end. Three times in the year shall all thy males appear before
24 the Lord GOD, the God of Is'ra-el. For I will cast out nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou goest up to appear before the LORD thy God three 25 times in the year. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto 26 the morning. The first of the firstfruits of thy ground thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in its mother's 27 milk. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Is'ra-el.
28 And he was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tables the words of the covenant, the ten [6]commandments.

AND of [c]the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made [b]clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aa'ron; [c]as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

2 [d]And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

6 ¶[e]And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Is'ra-el.

B. C. 1491.

18 And the screen for the gate of the court was the work of the embroiderer, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, answerable to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four, and their sockets four, of brass; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying

20 of their chapiters and their fillets of silver. And all the pins of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of brass.

21 This is the sum of the things for the tabernacle, even the tabernacle of the testimony, as they were counted, according to the commandment of Mo'ses, for the service of the Le'vites, by the hand of Ith'a-

22 mar, the son of Aa'ron the priest. And Bez'a-lel the son of U'ri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Ju'dah, 23 made all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses. And with him was O-ho'li-ab, the son of A-his'a-mach, of the tribe of Dan, [1]an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

[1] Or, a craftsman

24 All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and fifteen

26 shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: a beka a head, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that passed over to them that were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand

27 and five hundred and fifty men. And the hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; an hundred sockets for the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred seventy and five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, and over-

29 laid their chapiters, and made fillets for them. And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and

30 two thousand and four hundred shekels. And therewith he made the sockets to the door of the tent of meeting, and the brasen altar, and the brasen

31 grating for it, and all the vessels of the altar, and the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the gate of the court, and all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins of the court round about.

39 And of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made finely wrought garments, for ministering in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aa'ron; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

2 [2]And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and

[2] See ch. xxviii. 6—12.

3 purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen. And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, the work of

4 the cunning workman. They made shoulderpieces for it, joined together: at the two ends was it joined

5 together. And the cunningly woven band, that was upon it, to gird it on withal, was of the same piece and like the work thereof; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

6 And they wrought the onyx stones, inclosed in ouches of gold, graven with the engravings of a signet, according to the names of the children of Is'ra-el.

B. C. 1491.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a [f]memorial to the children of Is'ra-el; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

8 ¶ [g]And he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 [h]And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a ||sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Is'ra-el, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

22 ¶ [i]And he made the robe of the ephod of woven work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rend.

24 And they made upon the hems of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made [k]bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the hem of the robe, round about between the pomegranates;

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, round about the hem of the robe to minister in; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

27 ¶ [l]And they made coats of fine linen of woven work for Aa'ron, and for his sons,

28 [m]And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and [n]linen breeches of fine twined linen,

29 [o]And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needlework; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

30 ¶ [p]And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, HOLINESS TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

32 ¶ Thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished: and the children of Is'ra-el did [q]according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did they.

7 And he put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, to be stones of memorial for the children of Is'ra-el; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

8 [1]And he made the breastplate, the work of the cunning workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined
9 linen. It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a 10 span the breadth thereof, being double. And they set in it four rows of stones: a row of sardius, 11 topaz, and carbuncle was the first row. And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.
12 And the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an ame-
13 thyst. And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in 14 their settings. And the stones were according to the names of the children of Is'ra-el, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, every one according to his name, for the twelve
15 tribes. And they made upon the breastplate chains
16 like cords, of wreathen work of pure gold. And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-
17 plate. And they put the two wreathen chains of gold on the two rings at the ends of the brcastplate.
18 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains they put on the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, in the forepart thereof.
19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them upon the two ends of the breastplate, upon the edge thereof, which was toward the side of the ephod
20 inward. And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulderpieces of the ephod underneath, in the forepart thereof, close by the coupling thereof, above the cunningly woven band of the 21 ephod. And they did bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be upon the cunningly woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

22 [2]And he made the robe of the ephod of woven
23 work, all of blue; and the hole of the robe in the midst thereof, as the hole of a coat of mail, with a binding round about the hole of it, that it should 24 not be rent. And they made upon the skirts of the robe pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet,
25 and twined linen. And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates upon the skirts of the robe round about, between the pome-
26 granates; a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, upon the skirts of the robe round about, to minister in; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

27 [3]And they made the coats of fine linen of woven
28 work for Aa'ron, and for his sons, and the [4]mitre of fine linen, and the goodly headtires of fine linen,
29 and the linen breeches of fine twined linen, and the girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, the work of the embroiderer; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

30 [5]And they made the plate of the holy crown of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like the en-
31 gravings of a signet, HOLY TO THE LORD. And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it upon the [4]mitre above; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

32 Thus was finished all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting: and the children of Is'ra-el did according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did they.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES, COMMONLY CALLED LEVITICUS.

1 And the LORD called unto Mo'ses, and spake unto 2 him out of the tent of meeting, saying, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When any man of you offereth an oblation unto the LORD ye shall offer your oblation of the cattle, even of the herd and of the flock.

B. C. 1490.

3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male [d]without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.

4 [e]And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be [f]accepted for him [g]to make atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the [h]bullock before the LORD: [i]and the priests, Aa'-ron's sons, shall bring the blood, [k]and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aa'ron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and [l]lay the wood in order upon the fire:

8 And the priests, Aa'ron's sons, shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

9 But his inwards and his legs shall he wash in water: and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a [m]sweet savour unto the LORD.

10 ¶And if his offering be of the flocks, namely, of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt sacrifice; he shall bring it a male [n]without blemish.

11 [o]And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the LORD: and the priests, Aa'ron's sons, shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar:

13 But he shall wash the inwards and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

14 ¶And if the burnt sacrifice for his offering to the LORD be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of [p]turtledoves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and ‖ wring off his head, and burn it on the altar; and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar:

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with ‖ his feathers, and cast it [q]beside the altar on the east part, by the place of the ashes.

17 And he shall cleave it with the wings thereof, but [r]shall not divide it asunder: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: [s]it is a burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

CHAPTER II.

The meat offering of flour with oil and incense.

AND when any will offer [a]a meat offering unto the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon.

2 And he shall bring it to Aa'ron's sons the priests: and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the priest shall burn [b]the memorial of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD:

3 And [c]the remnant of the meat offering shall be Aa'ron's and his sons': [d]it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

4 And if thou bring an oblation of a meat offering baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers [e]anointed with oil.

5 ¶And if thy oblation be a meat offering baken ‖ in a pan, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

8 pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. And thou shalt bring the meal offering that is made of these things unto the LORD: and it shall be presented unto the priest, and he shall bring it unto 9 the altar. And the priest shall take up from the meal offering the memorial thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: an offering made by fire, of a
10 sweet savour unto the LORD. And that which is left of the meal offering shall be Aa'ron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the 11 LORD made by fire. No meal offering, which ye shall offer unto the LORD, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, as an 12 offering made by fire unto the LORD. As an oblation of first*fruits* ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not come up for a sweet savour on 13 the altar. And every oblation of thy meal offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meal offering: with all thine oblations thou shalt offer salt.
14 And if thou offer a meal offering of firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meal offering of thy firstfruits corn in the ear parched with fire,

CHAPTER IV.

The sin-offering of ignorance, for the priest, for any of the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, [a]If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them:

3 [b]If the priest that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, [c]a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock [d]unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed [e]shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall [f]put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour [g]all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

10 [h]As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace offerings: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt offering.

11 [i]And the skin of the bullock, and all his flesh, with his head, and with his legs, and his inwards, and his dung,

12 Even the whole bullock shall he carry forth †without the camp unto a clean place, [k]where the ashes are poured out, and [l]burn him on the wood with fire: †where the ashes are poured out shall he be burnt.

13 ¶And [m]if the whole congregation of Is'ra-el sin through ignorance, [n]and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty;

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation [o]shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD; and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

CHAPTER V.

The trespass offering in sacrilege, and in sins of ignorance.

AND if a soul sin, [a]and hear the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath seen or known of it; if he do not utter it, then he shall [b]bear his iniquity.

2 Or [c]if a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcass of an unclean beast, or a carcass of unclean cattle, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him; he also shall be unclean, and [d]guilty.

3 Or if he touch [e]the uncleanness of man, whatsoever uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withal, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 Or if a soul swear, pronouncing with his lips [f]to do evil, or [g]to do good, whatsoever it be that a man shall pronounce with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall [h]confess that he hath sinned in that thing:

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sin.

7 And [i]if †he be not able to bring a lamb, then he shall bring for his trespass, which he hath committed, two [k]turtledoves, or two young pigeons, unto the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sin offering first, and [l]wring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder:

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin offering upon the side of the altar; and [m]the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sin offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ‖[n]manner: [o]and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 ¶But if he be not able to bring two turtle doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; [p]he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering.

15 [u]If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then [x]he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after [y]the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering:

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and [z]shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: [a]and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶And if [b]a soul sin, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; [c]though he wist it not, yet is he [d]guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering unto the priest: [f]and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAPTER VI.

Offering at the consecration of a priest—The sin offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and [a]commit a trespass against the LORD, and [b]lie unto his neighbour in that [c]which was delivered him to keep, or in ||†fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath [d]deceived his neighbour;

3 Or [e]have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and [f]sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he had sworn falsely; he shall even [g]restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, ||†in the day of his trespass offering.

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, [h]a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:

7 [i]And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

9 Command Aa'ron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, ||because of the burning upon the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it.

10 [k]And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them [l]beside the altar.

11 And [m]he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp [n]unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon [o]the fat of the peace offerings.

13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

14 ¶[p]And this is the law of the meat offering: The sons of Aa'ron shall offer it before the LORD, before the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the [q]memorial of it, unto the LORD.

16 And [r]the remainder thereof shall Aa'ron and his sons eat: [s]with unleavened bread shall it be eaten in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it.

17 [t]It shall not be baken with leaven. [u]I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire: [z]It is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 [y]All the males among the children of Aa'ron shall eat of it. [z]It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: [a]every one that toucheth them shall be holy.

19 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

20 [b]This is the offering of Aa'ron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is the flock, according to thy estimation, for a guilt offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing wherein he erred unwittingly and knew it not, and he shall be 19 forgiven. It is a guilt offering: he is certainly guilty before the LORD.

6 ½ And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, If any [Ch. v. 20 in Heb.]
one sin and commit a trespass against the LORD, and deal falsely with his neighbour in a matter of deposit, or of [1]bargain, or of robbery, or have op- [1]Or, pledge
3 pressed his neighbour; or have found that which was lost, and deal falsely therein, and swear to a lie; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:
4 then it shall be, if he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he hath gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost
5 thing which he found, or any thing about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even restore it in full, and shall add the fifth part more thereto: unto him to whom it appertaineth shall he give it, in the day
6 of his being found guilty. And he shall bring his guilt offering unto the LORD, a ram without blemish out of the flock, according to thy estimation, for a
7 guilt offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he shall be forgiven; concerning whatsoever he doeth so as to be guilty thereby.

8 9 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, Com- [Ch. vi. 1 in Heb.]
mand Aa'ron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: the burnt offering shall be [2]on the hearth upon the altar all night unto the [2]Or, on its fire-wood morning; and the fire of the altar shall be kept 10 burning thereon. And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh; and he shall take up the ashes whereto the fire hath consumed the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar.
11 And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the 12 camp unto a clean place. And the fire upon the altar shall be kept burning thereon, it shall not go out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning: and he shall lay the burnt offering in order upon it, and shall burn thereon the fat of the 13 peace offerings. Fire shall be kept burning upon the altar continually; it shall not go out.
14 And this is the law of the meal offering: the sons of Aa'ron shall offer it before the LORD, before the 15 altar. And he shall take up therefrom his handful, of the fine flour of the meal offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meal offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, as the memorial thereof, unto the 16 LORD. And that which is left thereof shall Aa'ron and his sons eat: it shall be eaten without leaven in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting
17 they shall eat it. It shall not be baken with leaven. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire; it is most holy, as the sin offering, and as 18 the guilt offering. Every male among the children of Aa'ron shall eat of it, as a due for ever throughout your generations, from the offerings of the LORD made by fire: whosoever toucheth them shall be holy.

19 20 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, This is the oblation of Aa'ron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an [c]ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night.

21 In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

22 And the priest of his sons [d]that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; [e]it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aa'ron and to his sons, saying, [f]This is the law of the sin offering: [g]In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: [h]it is most holy.

26 [i]The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: [k]in the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 [l]Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that whereon it was sprinkled in the holy place.

28 But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden [m]shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brazen pot, it shall be both scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 [n]All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: [o]it is most holy.

30 [p]And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt in the fire.

CHAPTER VII.

Law of the trespass offering and peace offerings—The priest's portion.

LIKEWISE [a]this is the law of the trespass offering: [b]it is most holy.

2 [c]In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the trespass offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle round about upon the altar.

3 And he shall offer of it [d]all the fat thereof; the rump, and the fat that covereth the inwards,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away:

5 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a trespass offering.

6 [e]Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: [f]it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is [g]the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And [h]all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and ‖in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aa'ron have, one as much as another.

11 And [i]this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers [k]anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering, [l]leavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for a heave offering unto the LORD, [m]and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

anointed; the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering perpetually, half of it in the 21 morning, and half thereof in the evening. On a [1]baking pan it shall be made with oil; when it is soaked, thou shalt bring it in: in [2]baken pieces shalt thou offer the meal offering for a sweet savour
22 unto the LORD. And the anointed priest that shall be in his stead from among his sons shall offer it: by a statute for ever it shall be wholly burnt unto 23 the LORD. And every meal offering of the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.
24 25 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, Speak unto Aa'ron and to his sons, saying, This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed
26 before the LORD: it is most holy. The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in a holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tent of meeting.
27 [3]Whatsoever shall touch the flesh thereof shall be holy: and when there is sprinkled of the blood thereof upon any garment, thou shalt wash that 28 whereon it was sprinkled in a holy place. But the earthen vessel wherein it is sodden shall be broken: and if it be sodden in a brasen vessel, it shall be
29 scoured, and rinsed in water. Every male among 30 the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy. And no sin offering, whereof any of the blood is brought into the tent of meeting to make atonement in the holy place, shall be eaten: it shall be burnt with fire.

7 And this is the law of the guilt offering: it is most
2 holy. In the place where they kill the burnt offering shall they kill the guilt offering: and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle upon the altar round about.
3 And he shall offer of it all the fat thereof; the fat
4 tail, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the caul upon the liver, [4]with the 5 kidneys, shall he take away: and the priest shall burn them upon the altar for an offering made by
6 fire unto the LORD: it is a guilt offering. Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be
7 eaten in a holy place: it is most holy. As is the sin offering, so is the guilt offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement there-
8 with, he shall have it. And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he
9 hath offered. And every meal offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed in the frying pan, and on the [1]baking pan, shall be the priest's that 10 offereth it. And every meal offering, mingled with oil, or dry, shall all the sons of Aa'ron have, one as well as another.
11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which one shall offer unto the LORD.
12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with 13 oil, of fine flour soaked. With cakes of leavened bread he shall offer his oblation with the sacri-
14 fice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving. And of it he shall offer one out of each oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD; it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

16 But °if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice; and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be ᵖimputed unto him that offereth, it: it shall be an ᵍabomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 ʸMoreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his oblation; he shall not leave any of it until

CHAPTER VIII.

Moses consecrateth Aaron and his sons—Place of their consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 [a]Take Aa'ron and his sons with him, and [b]the garments and [c]the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Mo'ses said unto the congregation, [d]This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.

6 And Mo'ses brought Aa'ron and his sons, [e]and washed them with water.

7 [f]And he put upon him the [g]coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he [h]put in the breastplate the U'rim and the Thum'mim.

9 [i]And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD [k]commanded Mo'ses.

10 [l]And Mo'ses took the anointing oil, and [a]nointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he [m]poured of the anointing oil upon Aa'ron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.

13 [n]And Mo'ses brought Aa'ron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and †put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

14 [o]And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aa'ron and his sons [p]laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.

offering, and of the sin offering, and of the guilt offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of 38 peace offerings; which the LORD commanded Mo'ses in mount Si'nai, in the day that he commanded the children of Is'ra-el to offer their oblations unto the LORD, in the wilderness of Si'nai.

8 [1]And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Take Aa'ron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bullock of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of
3 unleavened bread; and assemble thou all the con-
4 gregation at the door of the tent of meeting. And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the tent
5 of meeting. And Mo'ses said unto the congregation, This is the thing which the LORD hath com-
6 manded to be done. And Mo'ses brought Aa'ron
7 and his sons, and washed them with water. And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the cunningly woven band of the ephod, and bound it unto
8 him therewith. And he placed the breastplate upon him: and in the breastplate he put [2]the 9 U'rim and the Thum'mim. And he set the [3]mitre upon his head; and upon the [3]mitre, in front, did he set the golden plate, the holy crown; as the 10 LORD commanded Mo'ses. And Mo'ses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all
11 that was therein, and sanctified them. And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the laver
12 and its base, to sanctify them. And he poured of the anointing oil upon Aa'ron's head, and 13 anointed him, to sanctify him. And Mo'ses brought Aa'ron's sons, and clothed them with coats, and girded them with girdles, and bound headtires upon 14 them; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses. And he brought the bullock of the sin offering: and Aa'ron and his sons laid their hands upon the head of the 15 bullock of the sin offering. And he slew it; and Mo'ses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured out the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it.
16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and 17 their fat, and Mo'ses burned it upon the altar. But the bullock, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burnt with fire without the camp; as the LORD
18 commanded Mo'ses. And he presented the ram of the burnt offering: and Aa'ron and his sons laid 19 their hands upon the head of the ram. And he killed it: and Mo'ses sprinkled the blood upon the 20 altar round about. And he cut the ram into its pieces; and Mo'ses burnt the head, and the pieces,
21 and the fat. And he washed the inwards and the legs with water; and Mo'ses burnt the whole ram upon the altar: it was a burnt offering for a sweet savour: it was an offering made by fire unto the LORD; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.
22 And he presented the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aa'ron and his sons laid their hands
23 upon the head of the ram. And he slew it; and Mo'ses took of the blood thereof, and put it upon the tip of Aa'ron's right ear, and upon the 24 And he brought Aa'ron's sons, and Mo'ses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Mo'ses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 about. And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their
26 fat, and the right [1]thigh: and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat,
27 and upon the right thigh: and he put the whole upon the hands of Aa'ron, and upon the hands of his sons, and waved them for a wave offering before
28 the LORD. And Mo'ses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar upon the burnt offering: they were a consecration for a sweet savour: it was an offering made by fire unto the LORD.
29 And Mo'ses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD: it was Mo'ses' portion of the ram of consecration; as the LORD commanded
30 Mo'ses. And Mo'ses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aa'ron, upon his garments, and upon his sons, and upon his son's garments with him; and sanctified Aa'ron, his garments, and his sons, and 31 his sons' garments with him. And Mo'ses said unto Aa'ron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the door of the tent of meeting: and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, [2]as I commanded, saying, Aa'ron and his sons shall eat it.
32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the 33 bread shall ye burn with fire. And ye shall not go out from the door of the tent of meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration be fulfilled: for he shall [3]consecrate you seven days. As 34 hath been done this day, so the LORD hath commanded to do, to make atonement for you. And 35 at the door of the tent of meeting shall ye abide day and night seven days, and keep the charge of the LORD, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.
36 And Aa'ron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by the hand of Mo'ses.

9 And it came to pass on the eighth day, that Mo'ses called Aa'ron and his sons, and the elders of
2 Is'ra-el; and he said unto Aa'ron, Take thee a bull calf for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.
3 And unto the children of Is'ra-el thou shalt speak, saying, take ye a he-goat for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without

5 the LORD appeareth unto you. And they brought that which Mo'ses commanded before the tent of meeting: and all the congregation drew near and 6 stood before the LORD. And Mo'ses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 ¶Aa'ron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 [k]And the sons of Aa'ron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and [l]put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 [m]But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; [n]as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

11 [o]And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aa'ron's sons presented unto him the blood, [p]which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 [q]And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 [r]And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶[s]And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it [t]according to the ‖ manner.

17 And he brought [u]the meat offering, and †took a handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, [x]besides the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ram for [y]a sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aa'ron's sons presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about,

19 And the fat of the bullock and of the ram, the rump, and that which covereth the inwards, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver:

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, [z]and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aa'ron waved [a]for a wave offering before the LORD; as Mo'ses commanded.

22 And Aa'ron lifted up his hand toward the people, and [b]blessed them; and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: [c]and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.

24 And [d]there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, [e]they shouted, and fell on their faces.

Nadab and Abihu are burnt by fire—Wine forbidden to the priests.

AND [a]Na'dab and A-bi'hu, the sons of Aa'ron, [b]took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered [c]strange fire before the LORD, which he commanded them not.

2 And there [d]went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

3 Then Mo'ses said unto Aa'ron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them [e]that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be [f]glorified. [g]And Aa'ron held his peace.

11 commanded Mo'ses. And the flesh and the skin he 12 burnt with fire without the camp. And he slew the burnt offering; and Aa'ron's sons delivered unto him the blood, and he sprinkled it upon the altar
13 round about. And they delivered the burnt offering unto him, piece by piece, and the head: and he 14 burnt them upon the altar. And he washed the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt 15 offering on the altar. And he presented the people's oblation, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and slew it, and offered it for 16 sin, as the first. And he presented the burnt offer-
17 ing, and offered it according to the ordinance. And he presented the meal offering, and filled his hand therefrom, and burnt it upon the altar, besides the 18 burnt offering of the morning. He slew also the ox and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aa'ron's sons delivered unto him the blood, and he sprinkled it upon the altar

22 as Mo'ses commanded. And Aa'ron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering, and 23 the burnt offering, and the peace offerings. And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went into the tent of meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people.
24 And there came forth fire from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

10 And Na'dab and A-bi'hu, the sons of Aa'ron took each of them his censer, and put fire therein, and laid incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the

13 the altar: for it is most holy: and ye shall eat it in a holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the offerings of the LORD made by fire: for 14 so I am commanded. And the wave breast and the heave thigh shall ye eat in a clean place; thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee: for they are given as thy due, and thy sons' due, out of the sacrifices of the peace offerings of the children of Is'ra-el.
15 The heave thigh and the wave breast shall they bring with the offerings made by fire of the fat, to wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, as a due for ever; as the LORD hath commanded.

16 And Mo'ses diligently sought the goat of the sin offering, and, behold, it was burnt: and he was angry with E-le-a'zar and with Ith'a-mar, the sons of 17 Aa'ron that were left, saying, Wherefore have ye not eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, seeing it is most holy, and he hath given it you [2]to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to 18 make atonement for them before the LORD? Behold, the blood of it was not brought into the sanctuary within: ye should certainly have eaten it in 19 the sanctuary, as I commanded. And Aa'ron spake unto Mo'ses, Behold, this day have they offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and there have befallen me such things as these: and if I had eaten the sin offering to-day, would it have been well-pleasing in the sight of the LORD?
20 And when Mo'ses heard that, it was well-pleasing in his sight.

[2]Or, to take away

11 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and to Aa'ron,
2 saying unto them, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, These are the living things which ye shall eat among all the beasts that are on the earth.
3 Whatsoever parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, and [3]cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that shall
4 ye eat. Nevertheless these shall ye not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that part the hoof: the camel, because he [3]cheweth the cud but parteth
5 not the hoof, he is unclean unto you. And the [4]coney, because he [3]cheweth the cud but parteth not 6 the hoof, he is unclean unto you. And the hare, because she [3]cheweth the cud but parteth not the 7 hoof, she is unclean unto you. And the swine, because he parteth the hoof, and is clovenfooted, but [3]cheweth not the cud, he is unclean unto you.

8 Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcass shall ye not touch; [d]they are unclean to you.

9 ¶[e]These shall ye eat, of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an [f]abomination unto you:

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcasses in abomination.

12 Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶[g]And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the osprey,

14 And the vulture, and the kite after his kind;

15 Every raven after his kind;

16 And the owl, and the nighthawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after his kind,

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat, of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; [h]the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcass of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth aught of the carcass of them [i]shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcasses of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcass shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcass of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and [k]the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, [l]it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and [m]ye shall break it.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

24 And by these ye shall become unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean
25 until the even: and whosoever beareth aught of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be un-

6 And [e] when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb †of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether oven, or [1] range for pots, it shall be broken in pieces: they are unclean,

36 and shall be unclean unto you. Nevertheless a fountain or a [2] pit wherein is a gathering of water shall be clean: but [3] that which toucheth their carcase shall 37 be unclean. And if aught of their carcase fall upon any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean.

38 But if water be put upon the seed, and aught of their carcase fall thereon, it is unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean

40 until the even. And he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be uncleau until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 And every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth is an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever hath many feet, even all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be

CHAPTER XIII.

Laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning leprosy.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron, saying,
2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a ‖ rising,
[a] a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; [b] then he shall be brought unto Aa'ron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:
3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.
4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:
5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:
6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he [c] shall wash his clothes, and be clean.
7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:
8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.
9 ¶When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;
10 [d] And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be †quick raw flesh in the rising;
11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up: for he is unclean.
12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;
13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.
14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.
15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.
16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed into white, he shall come unto the priest;
17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.
18 ¶The flesh also, in which, even in the skin thereof, was a [e] boil, and is healed,
19 And in the place of the boil there be a white rising, or a bright spot, white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;
20 And if, when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.
21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:
22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

B. C. 1490.

13 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron,
2 saying, When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it become in the skin of his flesh the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought unto Aa'ron the
3 priest, or unto one of his sons the priests: and the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and if the hair in the plague be turned white, and the appearance of the plague be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is the plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce
4 him unclean. And if the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and the appearance thereof be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white, then the priest shall shut up him
5 that hath the plague seven days: and the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if in his eyes the plague be at a stay, and the plague be not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut
6 him up seven days more: and the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be dim, and the plague be not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be
7 clean. But if the scab spread abroad in the skin, after that he hath shewn himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall shew himself to the priest again:
8 and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the scab be spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is leprosy.
9 When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he
10 shall be brought unto the priest; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if there be a white rising in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and
11 there be quick raw flesh in the rising, it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean: he shall not shut him up;
12 for he is unclean. And if the leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of him that hath the plague from his head even 13 to his feet, as far as appeareth to the priest; then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white:
14 he is clean. But whensoever raw flesh appeareth
15 in him, he shall be unclean. And the priest shall look on the raw flesh, and pronounce him unclean:
16 the raw flesh is unclean: it is leprosy. Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white,
17 then he shall come unto the priest, and the priest shall look on him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white, then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.
18 And when the flesh hath in the skin thereof a
19 boil, and it is healed, and in the place of the boil there is a white rising, or a bright spot, reddish-
20 white, then it shall be shewed to the priest; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the appearance thereof be lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy,
21 it hath broken out in the boil. But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and it be not lower than the skin, but be dim, then the priest shall shut him up seven 22 days: and if it spread abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

B. C. 1490.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶Or if there be any flesh, in the skin whereof there is †a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

†Heb. a burning of fire.

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days:

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 ¶If a man or woman have a plague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and, behold, if it be in sight deeper than the skin, and there be in it a yellow thin hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosy upon the head or beard.

†Heb. head is pilled.

40 And the man whose †hair is fallen off his head, he is bald; yet is he clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead bald; yet is he clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosy sprung up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosy appeareth in the skin of the flesh;

44 He is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his plague is in his head.

23 But if the bright spot stay in its place, and be not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 Or when the flesh hath in the skin thereof a burning by fire, and the quick flesh of the burning
25 become a bright spot, reddish-white, or white; then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and the appearance thereof be deeper than the skin; it is leprosy, it hath broken out in the burning: and the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague
26 of leprosy. But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the skin, but be dim; then the priest
27 shall shut him up seven days: and the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: if it spread abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him
28 unclean: it is the plague of leprosy. And if the bright spot stay in its place, and be not spread in the skin, but be dim; it is the rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is the scar of the burning.

29 And when a man or woman hath a plague upon
30 the head or upon the beard, then the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the appearance thereof be deeper than the skin, and there be in it yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a scall, it is leprosy of the head
31 or of the beard. And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, the appearance thereof be not deeper than the skin, and there be no black hair in it, then the priest shall shut up him
32 that hath the plague of the scall seven days: and in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall be not spread, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the appearance of the scall
33 be not deeper than the skin, then he shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:
34 and in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, and the appearance thereof be not deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean:
35 and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean. But if the scall spread abroad in the skin after his cleansing;
36 then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not 37 seek for the yellow hair; he is unclean. But if in his eyes the scall be at a stay, and black hair be grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 And when a man or a woman hath in the skin of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;
39 then the priest shall look: and, behold, if the bright spots in the skin of their flesh be of a dull white; it is a tetter, it hath broken out in the skin; he is clean.

40 And if a man's hair be fallen off his head, he is 41 bald; yet is he clean. And if his hair be fallen off from the front part of his head, he is forehead bald;
42 yet is he clean. But if there be in the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish-white plague; it is leprosy breaking out in his bald head, or his bald
43 forehead. Then the priest shall look upon him: and, behold, if the rising of the plague be reddish-white in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh;
44 he is a leprous man, he is unclean: the priest shall surely pronounce him unclean; his plague is in his head.

B. C. 1490.

B. C. 1490.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall [f]put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, [g]Unclean, unclean.

46 All the days wherein the plague shall be in him he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone; [h]without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen, or of woollen: whether in a skin, or in any †thing made of skin;

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any †thing of skin; it is a plague of leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest:

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague seven days:

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skin, or in any work that is made of skin; the plague is [i]a fretting leprosy; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days more:

55 And the priest shall look on the plague, after that it is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread, it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire; it is fret inward, †whether it be bare within or without.

56 And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof:

57 And if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is a spreading plague: thou shalt burn that wherein the plague is with fire.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAPTER XIV.

Rites and sacrifices in cleansing of the leper—Signs of leprosy in a house.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: He [a]shall be brought unto the priest:

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two ‖ birds alive and clean, and [b]cedar wood, and [c]scarlet, and [d]hyssop:

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel over running water.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water:

7 And he shall [e]sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed

B. C. 1490.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and [1]the hair of his head shall go loose, and he shall cover his upper lip, and shall cry,
46 Unclean, unclean. All the days wherein the plague is in him he shall be unclean; he is uncleau: he shall dwell alone; without the camp shall his dwelling be.
47 The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment;
48 whether it be in [2]warp, or woof; of linen, or of woollen; whether in a skin, or in any thing made
49 of skin; if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin; it is the plague of
50 leprosy, and shall be shewed unto the priest: and the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up
51 that which hath the plague seven days: and he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever service skin is used for; the plague is a fretting leprosy; it is un-
52 clean. And he shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skin, wherein the plague is: for it is a
53 fretting leprosy; it shall be burnt in the fire. And if the priest shall look, and, behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in
54 the woof, or in any thing of skin; then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven days
55 more: and the priest shall look, after that the plague is washed: and, behold, if the plague have not changed its colour, and the plague be not spread, it is unclean; thou shalt burn it in the fire: it is a fret,
56 [3]whether the barrenness be within or without. And if the priest look, and, behold, the plague be dim after the washing thereof, then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the 57 warp, or out of the woof: and if it appear still in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skin, it is breaking out: thou shalt burn
58 that wherein the plague is with fire. And the garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatsoever thing of skin it be, which thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from them, then it shall be washed 59 the second time, and shall be clean. This is the law of the plague of leprosy in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or any thing of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

14 ½ And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his 3 cleansing: he shall be brought unto the priest: and the priest shall go forth out of the camp; and the priest shall look, and, behold, if the plague of leprosy
4 be healed in the leper; then shall the priest commaud to take for him that is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and
5 hyssop: and the priest shall command to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over [4]running wa-
6 ter: as for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the [4]running water:

26 and the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm
27 of his own left hand: and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in 28 his left hand seven times before the LORD: and the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the

31 pigeons, such as he is able to get; even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering: and the priest shall make atonement for him that is to be 32 cleansed before the LORD. This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosy, who is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.
33 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron,
34 saying, When ye be come into the land of Ca'naan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put the plague of leprosy in a house of the land of your pos-
35 session; then he that owneth the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, There seemeth to me to

43 shall plaister the house. And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken out the stones, and after he hath scraped the 44 house, and after it is plaistered; then the priest shall come in and look, and, behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosy in the 45 house: it is unclean. And he shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house; and he shall carry them
46 forth out of the city into an unclean place. Moreover he that goeth into the house all the while that 47 it is shut up shall be unclean until the even. And he that lieth in the house shall wash his clothes; and he that eateth in the house shall wash his clothes.
48 And if the priest shall come in, and look, and, behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plaistered; then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

B. C. 1490.

49 And [f]he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop:
50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water:
51 And he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times:
52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet:
53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and [g]make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.
54 This is the law for all manner of plague of leprosy, and [h]scall,
55 And for the [i]leprosy of a garment, [k]and of a house,
56 And [l]for a rising, and for a scab, and for a bright spot:

CHAPTER XV.

Uncleanness of men in their issues—Uncleanness of women in their issues.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and to Aa'ron, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, [a]When any man hath a ‖running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.
3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every †thing, whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.
5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, [b]and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be uuclean until the even.
7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue, shall be unclean.
10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
12 And the [c]vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue, then [d]he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.
14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him [e]two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:
15 And the priest shall offer them, [f]the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; [g]and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds,
50 and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop: and he shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over
51 [1]running water: and he shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the [1]running water, and sprinkle the house seven
52 times: and he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the [1]running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar wood, and with 53 the hyssop, and with the scarlet: but he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open field: so shall he make atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.
54 This is the law for all manner of plague of lep-
55 rosy, and for a scall; and for the leprosy of a gar-

22 And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sat upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

3 Thus shall Aa'ron [d]come into the holy place; [e]with a young bullock for a sin offering, and a ram for a burnt offering.

him, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and 17 be unclean until the even. And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until 18 the even. The woman also with whom a man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.
19 And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be in her [1]impurity seven days: and whosoever toucheth her shall be 20 unclean until the even. And every thing that she lieth upon in her [1]impurity shall be unclean: every thing also that she sitteth upon shall be unclean.
21 And whosoever toucheth her bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean
22 until the even. And whosoever toucheth any thing that she sitteth upon shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the 23 even. And if it be on the bed, or on any thing whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall 24 be unclean until the even. And if any man lie with her, and her impurity be upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed whereon he lieth shall be unclean.
25 And if a woman have an issue of her blood many days not in the time of her impurity, or if she have an issue beyond the time of her impurity; all the days of the issue of her uncleanness she shall be as
26 in the days of her impurity: she is unclean. Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her issue shall be unto her as the bed of her impurity: and every thing whereon she sitteth shall be unclean, as the 27 uncleanness of her impurity. And whosoever toucheth those things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be un-
28 clean until the even. But if she be cleansed of her issue, then she shall number to herself seven days,
29 and after that she shall be clean. And on the eighth day she shall take unto her two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the 30 priest, to the door of the tent of meeting. And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the issue of her uncleanness.
31 Thus shall ye separate the children of Is'ra-el from their uncleanness; that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is in the midst of them.
32 This is the law of him that hath an issue, and of him whose seed of copulation goeth from him, so 33 that he is unclean thereby; and of her that is sick with her impurity, and of him that hath an issue, of the man, and of the woman, and of him that lieth with her that is unclean.

16 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, after the death of the two sons of Aa'ron, when they drew near
2 before the LORD, and died; and the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Speak unto Aa'ron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy-seat which is upon the ark; that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the
3 mercy-seat. Herewith shall Aa'ron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sin offering,
4 and a ram for a burnt offering. He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore [o]shall he wash his flesh in water, and so put them on.

5 And he shall take of [h]the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el two kids of the goats for a sin offering, and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 And Aa'ron shall offer his bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and [i]make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aa'ron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the LORD, and the other lot for the †scapegoat.

9 And Aa'ron shall bring the goat upon which the LORD's lot †fell, and offer him for a sin offering.

10 But the goat, on which the lot fell to be the scapegoat, shall be presented alive before the LORD, to make [k]an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scapegoat into the wilderness.

11 And Aa'ron shall bring the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sin offering which is for himself:

12 And he shall take [l]a censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the LORD, and his hands full of [m]sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil:

13 [n]And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of the incense may cover the [o]mercy seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not:

14 And [p]he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and [q]sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy seat eastward: and before the mercy seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 ¶ [r]Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering that is for the people, and bring his blood [s]within the veil, and do with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat:

16 And he shall [t]make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Is'ra-el, and because of their transgressions in all their sins: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation, that †remaineth among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 [u]And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Is'ra-el.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and [z]make an atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and [a]hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Is'ra-el.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of [b]reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aa'ron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Is'ra-el, and all their transgressions in all their sins, [c]putting them upon the head of the goat, and shall send him away by the hand of †a fit man into the wilderness:

22 And the goat shall [d]bear upon him all their iniquities unto a land †not inhabited: and he shall let go the goat in the wilderness.

23 And Aa'ron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, [e]and shall put off the linen garments, which

5 shall bathe his flesh in water, and put them on. And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el two he-goats for a sin offering, and one ram
6 for a burnt offering. And Aa'ron shall present the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and 7 make atonement for himself, and for his house. And he shall take the two goats, and set them before the 8 LORD at the door of the tent of meeting. And Aa'ron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot

14 testimony, that he die not: and he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy-seat on the east; and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the blood with his
15 finger seven times. Then shall he kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat:
16 and he shall make atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Is'ra-el, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins: and so shall he do for the tent of meeting, that dwelleth with them in the midst of their
17 uncleannesses. And there shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he goeth in to make atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made atonement for himself, and for his household,
18 and for all the assembly of Is'ra-el. And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the LORD, and make atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put 19 it upon the horns of the altar round about. And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from 20 the uncleannesses of the children of Is'ra-el. And when he hath made an end of atoning for the holy place, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, he 24 And he shall wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, [d]and offer his burnt offering, and the burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for himself, and for the people.

25 And [e]the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.

26 And he that let go the goat for the scapegoat shall wash his clothes, [f]and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward come into the camp.

27 [g]And the bullock for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to [i]cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31 [k]It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.

32 [l]And the priest, whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall †[m]consecrate to minister in the priest's office in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and [n]shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments:

33 And [o]he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar: and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 [p]And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Is'ra-el for all their sins [q]once a year. And he did as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

CHAPTER XVII.

Blood of all slain beasts must be offered to the Lord—Eating of blood forbidden.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aa'ron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them; This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Is'ra-el, [a]that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp,

4 [b]And bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD; blood shall be [c]imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man [d]shall be cut off from among his people:

5 To the end that the children of Is'ra-el may bring their sacrifices, [e]which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest, and offer them for peace offerings unto the LORD.

6 And the priest [f]shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and [g]burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices [h]unto devils, after whom they [i]have gone a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Is'ra-el, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, [k]that offereth a burnt offering or sacrifice,

9 And [l]bringeth it not unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

B. C. 1490.

he put on when he went into the holy place, and 24 shall leave them there: and he shall bathe his flesh in water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and come forth, and offer his burnt offering and the burnt offering of the people, and make 25 atonement for himself and for the people. And the fat of the sin offering shall he burn upon the altar.
26 And he that letteth go the goat for A-za'zel shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and 27 afterward he shall come into the camp. And the bullock of the sin offering, and the goat of the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall be carried forth without the camp; and they shall burn in the fire their 28 skins, and their flesh, and their dung. And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.
29 And it shall be a statute for ever unto you: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and shall do no manner of work, the homeborn, or the stranger that so-
30 journeth among you: for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all
31 your sins shall ye be clean before the LORD. It is a sabbath of solemn rest unto you, and ye shall afflict
32 your souls; it is a statute for ever. And the priest, who shall be anointed and who shall be consecrated to be priest in his father's stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the
33 holy garments: and he shall make atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make atonement for the tent of meeting and for the altar; and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the 34 assembly. And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make atonement for the children of Is'ra-el because of all their sins once in the year. And he did as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

17 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Speak unto Aa'ron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them; This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, saying,
3 What man soever there be of the house of Is'ra-el, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or
4 that killeth it without the camp, and hath not brought it unto the door of the tent of meeting, to offer it as an oblation unto the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD: blood shall be imputed unto that man; he hath shed blood; and that man
5 shall be cut off from among his people: to the end that the children of Is'ra-el may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the LORD, unto the door of the tent of meeting, unto the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings unto the LORD.
6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of the LORD at the door of the tent of meeting, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the 7 LORD. And they shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices unto the [1]he-goats, after whom they go a whoring. This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.
8 And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Is'ra-el, or of the strangers that sojourn among them, that offereth a burnt offer-
9 ing or sacrifice, and bringeth it not unto the door of the tent of meeting, to sacrifice it unto the LORD; even that man shall be cut off from his people.

A repetition of sundry laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, [a]Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy.

3 ¶[b]Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and [c]keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God.

4 ¶[d]Turn ye not unto idols, [e]nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God.

5 ¶And [f]if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if aught remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable; it shall not be accepted.

8 Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 ¶And [g]when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

32 ¶ [m]Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man, and [n]fear thy God: I am the LORD.

33 ¶ And [o]if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not || vex him.

34 [p]But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and [q]thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of E'gypt: I am the LORD your God.

35 ¶ [r]Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in meteyard, in weight, or in measure.

36 [s]Just balances, just †weights, a just ephah, and a just hin shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of E'gypt.

37 [t]Therefore shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

B. C. 1490.

13 Thou shalt not oppress thy neighbour, nor rob him: the wages of a hired servant shall not abide with 14 thee all night until the morning. Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumblingblock before the blind, but thou shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD.
15 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgement: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt
16 thou judge thy neighbour. Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour:
17 I am the LORD. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt surely rebuke thy neigh-
18 bour, and not bear sin because of him. Thou shalt not take vengeance, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy 19 neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD. Ye shall keep my statutes. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with a diverse kind: thou shalt not sow thy field with two kinds of seed: neither shall there come upon thee a garment of two kinds of stuff
20 mingled together. And whosoever lieth carnally with a woman, that is a bondmaid, betrothed to an husband, and not at all redeemed, nor freedom given her: [1]they shall be punished; they shall not be put 21 to death, because she was not free. And he shall bring his guilt offering unto the LORD, unto the door of the tent of meeting, even a ram for a guilt offering.
22 And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt offering before the LORD for his sin which he hath sinned: and he shall be forgiven
23 for his sin which he hath sinned. And when ye shall come into the land, and shall have planted all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count the fruit thereof as their uncircumcision: three years shall they be as uncircumcision unto you; it shall 24 not be eaten. But in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy, for giving praise unto the 25 LORD. And in the fifth year shall ye eat of the fruit thereof, that it may yield unto you the increase
26 thereof: I am the LORD your God. Ye shall not eat any thing with the blood: neither shall ye use
27 enchantments, nor practise augury. Ye shall not round the corners of your heads, neither shalt thou
28 mar the corners of thy beard. Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print
29 any marks upon you: I am the LORD. Profane not thy daughter, to make her a harlot; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of 30 [2]wickedness. Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and rever-
31 ence my sanctuary: I am the LORD. Turn ye not unto them that have familiar spirits, nor unto the wizards; seek them not out, to be defiled by them:
32 I am the LORD your God. Thou shalt rise up before the hoary head, and honour the face of the old man,
33 and thou shalt fear thy God: I am the LORD. And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall 34 not do him wrong. The stranger that sojourneth with you shall be unto you as the homeborn among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of E'gypt: I am the LORD your 35 God. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgement,
36 in meteyard, in weight, or in measure. Just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you 37 out of the land of E'gypt. And ye shall observe all my statutes, and all my judgements, and do them: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER XX.

Of wizards, sanctification, cursing of parents, adultery, incest, sodomy, etc.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 [a]Again thou shalt say to the children of Is'ra-el, [b]Whosoever he be of the children of Is'ra-el, or of the strangers that sojourn in Is'ra-el, that giveth any of his seed unto Mo'lech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.
3 And [c]I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Mo'lech, to [d]defile my sanctuary, and [e]to profane my holy name.
4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Mo'lech, and [f]kill him not;
5 Then [g]I will set my face against that man, and [h]against his family, and will cut him off, and all that [i]go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Mo'lech, from among their people.
6 ¶And [k]the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.
7 ¶[l]Sanctify yourselves therefore and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.
8 [m]And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: [n]I am the LORD which sanctify you.
9 ¶[o]For every one that curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; [p]his blood shall be upon him.
10 ¶And [q]the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.
11 [r]And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.
12 [s]And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: [t]they have wrought confusion; their blood shall be upon them.
13 [u]If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.
14 [x]And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.
15 [y]And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death; and ye shall slay the beast.
16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.
17 [z]And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall bear his iniquity.
18 [a]And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath †discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.
19 [b]And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister; [c]for he uncovereth his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.
20 [d]And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin; they shall die childless.
21 [e]And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is †an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.

2 Moreover, thou shalt say to the children of Is'ra-el, Whosoever be of the children of Is'ra-el, or of the strangers that sojourn in Is'ra-el, that giveth of his seed unto Mo'lech; he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.
3 I also will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Mo'lech, to defile my sanctuary,

6 And the soul that turneth unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto the wizards, to go a whoring after them, I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

CHAPTER XXI.

Of the priests' mourning—Of their marriages.

AND the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aa'ron, and say unto them, [a]There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.

4 But ‖he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 [b]They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and [c]not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and [d]the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 [e]They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman [f]put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: [g]for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

9 ¶[h]And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 [i]And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and [k]that is consecrated to put on the garments, [l]shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

11 Neither shall he [m]go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 [n]Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for [o]the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 And [p]he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or a harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for [q]I the LORD do sanctify him.

27 A man also or a woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

9 for I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy. And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the harlot, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil is poured, and [4]that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not let the hair of his head go loose, nor rend

11 his clothes; neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother;

12 neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the [5]crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the 22 He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the [x]most holy, and of the [y]holy.

24 And Mo'ses told it unto Aa'ron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Is'ra-el.

CHAPTER XXII.

The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aa'ron and to his sons, that they [a]separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, and that they [b]profane not my holy name in those things which they [c]hallow unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Is'ra-el hallow unto the LORD, [d]having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aa'ron is a leper, or hath [e]a †running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, [f]until he be clean. And [g]whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or [h]a man whose seed goeth from him;

5 Or [i]whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or [k]a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath:

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until the even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he [l]wash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because [m]it is his food.

8 [n]That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, [o]lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

10 [p]There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest buy any soul †with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: [q]they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto †a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is [r]returned unto her father's house, [s]as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ [t]And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And [u]they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, which they offer unto the LORD:

16 Or ||suffer them [x]to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed throughout your generations, that approacheth unto the holy things, which the children of Is'ra-el hallow unto the LORD, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from before me: I am

11 But if a priest buy any soul, the purchase of his money, he shall eat of it; and such as are born in 12 his house, they shall eat of his bread. And if a priest's daughter be married unto a stranger, she shall not eat of the heave offering of the holy things.
13 But if a priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's 19 [e] Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 [a] But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And [b] whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD [c] to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or ‖ sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

22 [d] Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make [e] an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a ‖ lamb that hath any thing [f] superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

CHAPTER XXIII.

The feasts of the Lord—Day of atonement—Feast of tabernacles.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, Concerning [a] the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall [b] proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

3 [c] Six days shall work be done: but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 ¶ [d] These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 [e] In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD'S passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 [f] In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is a holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, [g] When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a ‖ †sheaf of [h] the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

28 fire unto the LORD. And whether it be cow or ewe, ye shall not kill it and her young both in one

29 day. And when ye sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, ye shall sacrifice it that ye 30 may be accepted. On the same day it shall be eaten; ye shall leave none of it until the morning:

31 I am the LORD. Therefore shall ye keep my com-

32 mandments, and do them: I am the LORD. And ye shall not profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Is'ra-el: I am the 33 LORD which hallow you, that brought you out of the land of E'gypt, to be your God: I am the LORD.

23 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, The [4] set feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.

3 Six days shall work be done: but on the seventh day is a sabbath of solemn rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of work: it is a sabbath unto the LORD in all your dwellings.

4 These are the set feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their ap-

5 pointed season. In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month [5] at even, is the LORD'S passover.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven

CHAPTER XXIV.

The law of blasphemy; of murder.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 [a]Command the children of Is'ra-el, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, †to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aa'ron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon [b]the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve [c]cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, [d]upon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 [e]Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Is'ra-el by an everlasting covenant.

9 And [f]it shall be Aa'ron's and his sons'; [g]and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 ¶ And the son of an Is'ra-el-i-tish woman, whose father was an E-gyp'tian, went out among the children of Is'ra-el: and this son of the Is'ra-el-i-tish woman and a man of Is'ra-el strove together in the camp;

11 And the Is'ra-el-i-tish woman's son [h]blasphemed the name of the LORD, and [i]cursed. And they [k]brought him unto Mo'ses: (and his mother's name was Shel'o-mith, the daughter of Dib'ri, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they [l]put him in ward, †[m]that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them.

day of this seventh month is the feast of [1]tabernacles 35 for seven days unto the LORD. On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile 36 work. Seven days ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD: it is a [2]solemn assembly; ye shall do no servile work.
37 These are the set feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meal offering, a sacrifice, and drink offer-38 ings, each on its own day: beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD.
39 Howbeit on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruits of the land, ye shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth 40 day shall be a solemn rest. And ye shall take you on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice before the LORD 41 your God seven days. And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year: it is a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall keep it in the 42 seventh month. Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are homeborn in Is'ra-el shall dwell in 43 booths: that your generations may know that I made the children of Is'ra-el to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of E'gypt: I am the 44 LORD your God. And Mo'ses declared unto the children of Is'ra-el the set feasts of the LORD.

24 [3]And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Command the children of Is'ra-el, that they bring unto thee pure olive oil beaten for the light, [4]to 3 cause a lamp to burn continually. Without the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, shall Aa'ron order it from evening to morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever 4 throughout your generations. He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.
5 And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth parts of an ephah shall be 6 in one cake. And thou shalt set them in [5]two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the LORD.
7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each
[6]row, that it may be to the bread for a memorial,
8 even an offering made by fire unto the LORD. Every sabbath day he shall set it in order before the LORD continually; it is [7]on the behalf of the children of 9 Is'ra-el, an everlasting covenant. And it shall be for Aa'ron and his sons; and they shall eat it in a holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 And the son of an Is'ra-el-i-tish woman, whose father was an E-gyp'tian, went out among the children of Is'ra-el: and the son of the Is'ra-el-i-tish woman and a 11 man of Is'ra-el strove together in the camp; and the son of the Is'ra-el-i-tish woman blasphemed the Name, and cursed: and they brought him unto Mo'ses.
And his mother's name was Shel'o-mith, the daughter 12 of Dib'ri, of the tribe of Dan. And they put him in ward, that it might be declared unto them at the mouth of the LORD.

CHAPTER XXV.

Compassion of the poor—Usage of bondmen—Redemption of servants.

1491. AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses in mount Si'nai, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land †keep [a]a sabbath unto the LORD.
3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;
4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.
5 [b]That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes †of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.
6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,
7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.
8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.
9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet †of the jubilee to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, [c]in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.
10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and [d]proclaim liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubilee unto you; [e]and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.
11 A jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: [f]ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.
12 For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you: [g]ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.
13 [h]In the year of this jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.
14 And if thou sell aught unto thy neighbour, or buyest aught of thy neighbour's hand, [i]ye shall not oppress one another:
15 [k]According to the number of years after the jubilee, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

13 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp: and let all that heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone
15 him. And thou shalt speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, Whosoever curseth his God shall 16 bear his sin. And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death; all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as the homeborn, when he blasphemeth
17 the name of the LORD, shall be put to death. And he that smiteth any man mortally shall surely be 18 put to death; and he that smiteth a beast mortally
19 shall make it good: life for life. And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done,
20 so shall it be done to him; breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blem-
21 ish in a man, so shall it be rendered unto him. And he that killeth a beast shall make it good; and he 22 that killeth a man shall be put to death. Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for the homeborn: for I am the LORD your God.
23 And Mo'ses spake to the children of Is'ra-el, and they brought forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stoned him with stones. And the children of Is'ra-el did as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.

B. C. 1490.

25 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses in mount Si'nai,
2 saying, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto
3 the LORD. Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather
4 in the fruits thereof; but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a sabbath unto the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor
5 prune thy vineyard. That which groweth of itself of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, and the grapes of thy undressed vine thou shalt not gather: it shall
6 be a year of solemn rest for the land. And the sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for thee, and for thy servant and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant and for thy stranger that sojourn with 7 thee; and for thy cattle, and for the beasts that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be for food.
8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and there shall be unto thee the days of seven sabbaths of years,
9 even forty and nine years. Then shalt thou send abroad the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the day of atonement shall ye send abroad the trumpet throughout all your land.
10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and 11 ye shall return every man unto his family. A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of the undressed
12 vines. For it is a jubile; it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the 13 field. In this year of jubile ye shall return every 14 man unto his possession. And if thou sell aught unto thy neighbour, or buy of thy neighbour's
15 hand, ye shall not wrong one another; according to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the crops he shall sell unto thee.

B. C. 1491.

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.
17 [r]Ye shall not therefore oppress one another; [m]but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.
18 ¶[n]Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; [o]and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.
19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and [p]ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.
20 And if ye shall say, [q]What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, [r]we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:
21 Then I will [s]command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.
22 [t]And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of [u]old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.
23 ¶The land shall not be sold || †for ever: for [z]the land is mine; for ye are [y]strangers and sojourners with me.
24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.
25 ¶[z]If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if [a]any of his kin come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.
26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and †himself be able to redeem it;
27 Then [b]let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.
28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubilee: [c]and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.
29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within a full year may he redeem it.
30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubilee.
31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: †they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubilee.
32 Notwithstanding [d]the cities of the Le'vites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Le'vites redeem at any time.
33 And if || a man purchase of the Le'vites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, [e]shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Le'vites are their possession among the children of Is'ra-el.
34 But [f]the field of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.
35 ¶And if thy brother be waxen poor, and †fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt †[g]relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee.
36 [h]Take thou no usury of him, or increase; but [i]fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee.
37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.
38 [k]I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of E'gypt, to give you the land of Ca'naan, and to be your God.
39 ¶And [l]if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not †compel him to serve as a bondservant:
40 But as a hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubilee:

16 According to the multitude of the years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of the years thou shalt diminish the price of it; for the number of the crops doth he sell unto thee.
17 And ye shall not wrong one another; but thou shalt
18 fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God. Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgements and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land
19 in safety. And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye
20 shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety. And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:
21 then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for the three 22 years. And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat of the fruits, the old store; until the ninth year, until her fruits come in, ye shall eat the old store.
23 And the land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is mine: for ye are strangers and sojourners
24 with me. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.
25 If thy brother be waxen poor, and sell some of his possession, then shall his kinsman that is next unto him come, and shall redeem that which his brother
26 hath sold. And if a man have no one to redeem it, and he be waxen rich and find sufficient to redeem
27 it; then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return unto his possession.
28 But if he be not able to get it back for himself, then that which he hath sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.
29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; for a full year shall he have the
30 right of redemption. And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him that bought it, throughout his generations:
31 it shall not go out in the jubile. But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the 32 jubile. Nevertheless the cities of the Le-vites, the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Le'-
33 vites redeem at any time. And if [1]one of the Le'vites [2]redeem, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Le'vites are their posses-
34 sion among the children of Is'ra-el. But the field of the [3]suburbs of their cities may not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.
35 And if thy brother be waxen poor, and his hand fail with thee; then thou shalt [4]uphold him: as a stranger and a sojourner shall he live with thee.
36 Take thou no usury of him or increase; but fear thy God: that thy brother may live with thee.
37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury,
38 nor give him thy victuals for increase. I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of E'gypt, to give you the land of Ca'naan, to be your God.
39 And if thy brother be waxen poor with thee, and sell himself unto thee; thou shalt not make 40 him to serve as a bondservant: as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee; he shall serve with thee unto the year of jubile:

[1]Or, a man redeem from the Levites
[2]Or, after the Vulgate, redeem not
[3]Or, pasture lands
[4]Or, relieve

B. C. 1491.

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children [m]with him, and shall return unto his own family, and [n]unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are [o]my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of E'gypt: they shall not be sold †as bondmen.

43 [p]Thou shalt not rule over him [q]with rigour; but [r]shall fear thy God.

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover, of [s]the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession.

46 And [t]ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; †they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Is'ra-el, [u]ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

47 ¶And if a sojourner or a stranger †wax rich by thee, and [z]thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may [y]redeem him:

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if [z]he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, [a]according to the time of a hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule with rigour over him in thy sight.

54 And if he be not redeemed ‖ in these years, then [b]he shall go out in the year of jubilee, both he, and his children with him.

55 For [c]unto me the children of Is'ra-el are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of E'gypt: I am the LORD your God.

CHAPTER XXVI.

A blessing to them that keep the commandments—A curse to those that break them.

YE shall make you [a]no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up a ‖ standing image, neither shall ye set up any ‖ †image of stone in your land, to bow down unto it: for I am the LORD your God.

2 ¶[b]Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I am the LORD.

3 ¶[c]If ye walk in my statutes and keep my commandments, and do them;

4 [d]Then I will give you rain in due season, [e]and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit:

5 And [f]your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time; and [g]ye shall eat your bread to the full, and [h]dwell in your land safely.

6 And [i]I will give peace in the land, and [k]ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will †rid [l]evil beasts out of the land, neither shall [m]the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And [n]five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

41 then shall he go out from thee, he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he re-
42 turn. For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of E'gypt: they shall not be 43 sold as bondmen. Thou shalt not rule over him
44 with rigour; but shalt fear thy God. And as for thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have; of the nations that are round about you, of 45 them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids. Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they have begotten in your land: and they shall be your pos-
46 session. And ye shall make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them shall ye take your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Is'ra-el ye shall not rule, one over another, with rigour.

47 And if a stranger or sojourner with thee be waxen rich, and thy brother be waxen poor beside him, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner with thee,
48 or to the stock of the stranger's family: after that he is sold he may be redeemed; one of his brethren
49 may redeem him: or his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if he be
50 waxen rich, he may redeem himself. And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he sold himself to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years; according to the time of an hired
51 servant shall he be with him. If there be yet many years, according unto them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he 52 was bought for. And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall reckon with him; according unto his years shall he give back
53 the price of his redemption. As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him: he shall not rule
54 with rigour over him in thy sight. And if he be not redeemed [1]by these means, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, he, and his children with him.
55 For unto me the children of Is'ra-el are servants; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of E'gypt: I am the LORD your God.

B. C. 1491.

[1]Or, in these years

26 Ye shall make you no [2]idols, neither shall ye rear you up a graven image, or [3]a pillar, neither shall ye place any figured stone in your land, to bow down
2 [4]unto it: for I am the LORD your God. Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary: I
3 am the LORD.

If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my com-
4 mandments, and do them; then I will give your rains in their season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their
5 fruit. And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing time: and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and
6 dwell in your land safely. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid: and I will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land, neither shall the sword
7 go through your land. And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the 8 sword. And five of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall chase ten thousand: and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

9 For I will [o]have respect unto you, and [p]make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.
10 And ye shall eat [q]old store, and bring forth the old because of the new.
11 [r]And I will set my tabernacle among you: and my soul shall not [s]abhor you.
12 [t]And I will walk among you, and [u]will be your God, and ye shall be my people.
13 [w]I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of E'gypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; [x]and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.
14 ¶[y]But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all these commandments;
15 And if ye shall [z]despise my statutes, or if your soul abhor my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant:
16 I also will do this unto you; I will even appoint †over you [a]terror, [b]consumption, and the burning ague, that shall [c]consume the eyes, and cause sorrow of heart: and [d]ye shall sow your seed in vain; for your enemies shall eat it.
17 And [e]I will set my face against you, and [f]ye shall be slain before your enemies: [g]they that hate you shall reign over you, and [h]ye shall flee when none pursueth you.
18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you [i]seven times more for your sins.
19 And I will [k]break the pride of your power; and I [l]will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass:
20 And your [m]strength shall be spent in vain: for [n]your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruits.
21 ¶And if ye walk ‖contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me, I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins.
22 [o]I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and [p]your high ways shall be desolate.
23 And if ye [q]will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me;
24 [r]Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins.
25 And [s]I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, [t]I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the hand of the enemy.
26 [u]And when I have broken the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver you your bread again by weight: and [x]ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.
27 And [y]if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me;
28 Then I will walk contrary unto you also [z]in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins.
29 [a]And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.
30 And [b]I will destroy your high places, and cut down your images, and [c]cast your carcasses upon the carcasses of your idols, and my soul shall [d]abhor you.
31 [e]And I will make your cities waste, and [f]bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.
32 [g]And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be [h]astonished at it.
33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.
34 [i]Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

B. C. 1491.

9 And I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you; and will establish my 10 covenant with you. And ye shall eat old store long kept, and ye shall bring forth the old [1]because of the 11 new. And I will set my tabernacle among you:
12 and my soul shall not abhor you. And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be 13 my people. I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of E'gypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.

14 But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not 15 do all these commandments; and if ye shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhor my judgements, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but
16 break my covenant; I also will do this unto you; I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away: and ye shall sow your seed in 17 vain, for your enemies shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be smitten before your enemies: they that hate you shall rule over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.
18 And if ye will not yet for these things hearken unto me, then I will chastise you seven times more for 19 your sins. And I will break the pride of your power; and I will make your heaven as iron, and 20 your earth as brass: and your strength shall be spent in vain: for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.
21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more
22 plagues upon you according to your sins. And I will send the beast of the field among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle, and make you few in number; and your ways
23 shall become desolate. And if by these things ye will not be reformed [2]unto me, but will walk con-
24 trary unto me; then will I also walk contrary unto you; and I will smite you, even I, seven times for 25 your sins. And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall execute the vengeance of the covenant; and ye shall be gathered together within your cities: and I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be 26 delivered into the hand of the enemy. When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.
27 And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me,
28 but walk contrary unto me; then I will walk contrary unto you in fury; and I also will chastise
29 you seven times for your sins. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daugh-
30 ters shall ye eat. And I will destroy your high places, and cut down your sun-images, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols;
31 and my soul shall abhor you. And I will make your cities a waste, and will bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour
32 of your sweet odours. And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell
33 therein shall be astonished at it. And you will I scatter among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you: and your land shall be a 34 desolation, and your cities shall be a waste. Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

CHAPTER XXVII.

He that maketh a singular vow must be the Lord's.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, [a]When a man shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by thy estimation.
3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, [b]after the shekel of the sanctuary.
4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels.
5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.
6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.
7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.
8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.
9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.
10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

[a]Num. 6. 2. See Judg. 11. 30, 31, 39. 1 Sam. 1. 11. 28.
[b]Ex. 30. 13.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall have rest; even the rest which it had not in your sabbaths, when ye
36 dwelt upon it. And as for them that are left of you, I will send a faintness into their heart in the lands of their enemies: and the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as one fleeth from the sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.
37 And they shall stumble one upon another, as it were before the sword, when none pursueth: and ye shall 38 have no power to stand before your enemies. And ye shall perish among the nations, and the land of 39 your enemies shall eat you up. And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their
40 fathers shall they pine away with them. And they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that because they have walked
41 contrary unto me, I also walked contrary unto them, and brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their uncircumcised heart be humbled, and they
42 then accept of the punishment of their iniquity; then will I remember my covenant with Ja'cob; and also my covenant with I'saac, and also my covenant with A'bra-ham will I remember; and I will remember the 43 land. The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them; and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they rejected my judgements, and their soul abhorred my statutes.
44 And yet for all that, when they be in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them: for I am the LORD their 45 God: but I will for their sakes remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought forth out of the land of E'gypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God: I am the LORD.
46 These are the statutes and judgements and laws, which the LORD made between him and the children of Is'ra-el in mount Si'nai by the hand of Mo'ses.

B. C. 1491.

27 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When a man shall [1]accomplish a vow, [2]the persons
3 shall be for the LORD by thy estimation. And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the 4 sanctuary. And if it be a female, then thy estima-
5 tion shall be thirty shekels. And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for 6 the female ten shekels. And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.
7 And if it be from sixty years old and upward; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels,
8 and for the female ten shekels. But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall be set before the priest, and the priest shall value him; according to the ability of him that vowed shall the priest value him.
9 And if it be a beast, whereof men offer an oblation unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such 10 unto the LORD shall be holy. He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy.

[1]Or, make a special vow
[2]Or, according to thy estimation of persons unto the LORD then thy estimation &c.

B. C. 1491.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: †as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 [c]But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 ¶And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 [d]And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: ‖a homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubilee, according to thy estimation it shall stand.

18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall [e]reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubilee, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.

19 [f]And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, [g]when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field [h]devoted; [i]the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of [k]his possession;

23 [l]Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubilee: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.

24 [m]In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: [n]twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 ¶Only the †[o]firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD'S firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD'S.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, [p]and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 [q]Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.

29 [r]None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed: but shall surely be put to death.

30 And [s]all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S: it is holy unto the LORD.

31 [t]And if a man will at all redeem aught of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever [u]passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, [z]neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

34 [v]These are the commandments which the LORD commanded Mo'ses for the children of Is'ra-el in mount Si'nai.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer an oblation unto the LORD, then he shall set the 12 beast before the priest: and the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as thou the priest
13 valuest it, so shall it be. But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall 15 estimate it, so shall it stand. And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD part of the field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the sowing thereof: the sowing of a homer of barley shall be valued at fifty shekels
17 of silver. If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.
18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain unto the year of jubile, and an abatement shall be made from thy estimation.
19 And if he that sanctified the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to 20 him. And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be re-
21 deemed any more: but the field, when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.
22 And if he sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the field of his posses-
23 sion; then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of thy estimation unto the year of jubile: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing
24 unto the LORD. In the year of jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him
25 to whom the possession of the land belongeth. And all thy estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the firstling among beasts, which is made a firstling to the LORD, no man shall sanctify it;
27 whether it be ox or sheep, it is the LORD'S. And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall ransom it according to thine estimation, and shall add unto it the fifth part thereof: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, whether of man or beast, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing
29 is most holy unto the LORD. None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be ransomed; he shall surely be put to death.

30 And all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD'S:
31 it is holy unto the LORD. And if a man will redeem aught of his tithe, he shall add unto it the fifth part
32 thereof. And all the tithe of the herd or the flock, whatsoever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall 33 be holy unto the LORD. He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.

47 ¶But [t]the Le'vites. after the tribe of their fathers, were not numbered among them.

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Mo'ses, saying,

49 [k]Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Le'vi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Is'ra-el:

50 [l]But thou shalt appoint the Le'vites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it; they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, and they shall minister unto it, [m]and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 [n]And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Le'vites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Le'vites shall set it up: [o]and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Is'ra-el shall pitch their tents, [p]every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

54 And the children of Is'ra-el did according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did they.

CHAPTER II.

The order of the tribes in their tents.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, saying,

2 [a]Every man of the children of Is'ra-el shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: †[b]far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Ju'dah pitch throughout their armies: and [c]Nah'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab shall be captain of the children of Ju'dah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Is'sa-char: and Ne-than'e-el the son of Zu'ar shall be captain of the children of Is'sa-char.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zeb'u-lun: and E-li'ab the son of He'lon shall be captain of the children of Zeb'u-lun.

8 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbered in the camp of Ju'dah were a hundred thousand and fourscore thousand and six thousand and four hundred throughout their armies: [d]these shall first set forth.

10 ¶On the south side shall be the standard of the camp of Reu'ben according to their armies: and the captain of the children of Reu'ben shall be E-li'zur the son of Shed'e-ur.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitch by him shall be the tribe of Sim'e-on: and the captain of the children of Sim'e-on shall be She-lu'mi-el the son of Zu'ri-shad'da-i.

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sons of Gad shall be E-li'a-saph the son of ‖ Reu'el.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Reu'ben were a hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies: [e]and they shall set forth in the second rank.

47 But the Le'vites after the tribe of their fathers
48 were not numbered among them. For the LORD
49 spake unto Mo'ses, saying, Only the tribe of Le'vi thou shalt not number, neither shalt thou take the 50 sum of them among the children of Is'ra-el: but appoint thou the Le'vites over the tabernacle of the testimony, and over all the furniture thereof, and over all that belongeth to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the furniture thereof; and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about
51 the tabernacle. And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Le'vites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Le'vites shall set it up: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be 52 put to death. And the children of Is'ra-el shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their hosts.
53 But the Le'vites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of the testimony, that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el: and the Le'vites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of 54 the testimony. Thus did the children of Is'ra-el; according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did they.

2 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron,
2 saying, The children of Is'ra-el shall pitch every man by his own standard, with the ensigns of their fathers' houses: over against the tent of meeting
3 shall they pitch round about. And those that pitch on the east side toward the sunrising shall be they of the standard of the camp of Ju'dah, according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Ju'dah
4 shall be Nah'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab. And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.
5 And those that pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Is'sa-char: and the prince of the children of 6 Is'sa-char shall be Neth'a-nel the son of Zu'ar: and his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were 7 fifty and four thousand and four hundred: and the tribe of Zeb'u-lun: and the prince of the children of 8 Zeb'u-lun shall be E-li'ab the son of He'lon: and his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were

25 On the north side shall be the standard of the camp of Dan according to their hosts: and the prince of the children of Dan shall be A-hi-e'zer the 31 and four hundred. All that were numbered of the camp of Dan were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred. They shall set forth hindmost by their standards.

32 These are they that were numbered of the children of Is'ra-el by their fathers' houses: all that were numbered of the camps according to their hosts were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five
33 hundred and fifty. But the Le'vites were not numbered among the children of Is'ra-el; as the LORD
34 commanded Mo'ses. Thus did the children of Is'ra-el; according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so they pitched by their standards, and so they set forward, every one by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Is'ra-el, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And [f]thou shalt give the Le'vites unto Aa'ron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Is'ra-el.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aa'ron and his sons, [g]and they shall wait on their priest's office: [h]and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

11 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

12 And I, behold, [i]I have taken the Le'vites from among the children of Is'ra-el, instead of all the firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Is'ra-el: therefore the Le'vites shall be mine;

19 And the sons of Ko'hath by their families; [p]Am'ram, and Iz'e-har, and He'bron, and Uz'zi-el.

20 [q]And the sons of Mer'a-ri by their families; Mah'li, and Mu'shi. These are the families of the Le'vites according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Ger'shon was the family of the Lib'nites, and the family of the Shim'ites: these are the families of the Ger'shon-ites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 [r]The families of the Ger'shon-ites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Ger'shon-ites shall be E-li'a-saph the son of La'el.

25 And [s]the charge of the sons of Ger'shon in the tabernacle of the congregation shall be [t]the tabernacle, and [u]the tent, [x]the covering thereof, and [y]the hanging for the door of the tabernacle of the congregation,

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 [d]The families of the sons of Ko'hath shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Ko'hath-ites shall be E-liz'a-phan the son of Uz'zi-el.

31 And [e]their charge shall be [f]the ark, and [g]the table, and [h]the candlestick, and [i]the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and [k]the hanging, and all the service thereof.

CHAPTER V.

Restitution is to be made in trespasses—The trial of jealousy.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Command the children of Is'ra-el, that they put out of the camp every [a]leper, and every one that hath an [b]issue, and whosoever is defiled by the [c]dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, [d]in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Is'ra-el did so, and put them out without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, so did the children of Is'ra-el.

5 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, [e]When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that person be guilty;

7 [f]Then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass [g]with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the LORD, even to the priest; besides [h]the ram of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every ‖ [i]offering of all the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be [k]his.

11 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man [l]lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled; or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, [m]bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD:

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water:

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and uncover the woman's head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealousy offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse:

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man hath lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness ‖ †with another instead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse:

[1] Or, according to his burden and his duty, as &c.

5 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Command the children of Is'ra-el, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an
3 issue, and whosoever is unclean by the dead: both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camp,

5 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
6 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, When a man or woman shall commit any sin that men commit, to do a trespass against the LORD, and that soul be
7 guilty; then they shall confess their sin which they have done: and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him in respect of whom he hath 8 been guilty. But if the man have no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made unto the LORD shall be the priest's; besides the ram of the atonement, whereby atonement shall be made for him.
9 And every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, which they present unto the 10 priest, shall be his. And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.
11 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
12 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, If any man's wife go aside, and commit a 13 trespass against him, and a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and be kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken in the act;
14 and the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous
15 of his wife, and she be not defiled: then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and shall bring her oblation for her, the tenth part of an ephah of barley meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of memorial, bringing 16 iniquity to remembrance. And the priest shall bring
17 her near, and set her before the LORD: and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle
18 the priest shall take, and put it into the water: and the priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy: and the priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that causeth
19 the curse: and the priest shall cause her to swear, and shall say unto the woman, If no man have lien with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness, [2]being under thy husband, be thou free from this water of bitterness that causeth the curse:

[2] Or, with another instead of thy husband See Ezek. xxiii. 5, Rom. vii. 2.

B. C. 1490.

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another instead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man have lain with thee besides thy husband:

21 Then the priest shall [n]charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, [o]The LORD make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when the LORD doth make thy thigh to †rot, and thy belly to swell;

22 And this water that causeth the curse [p]shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot. [q]And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water:

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall [r]wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 [s]And the priest shall take a handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman [t]shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another [u]instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman [x]shall bear her iniquity.

CHAPTER VI.

The law of the Nazarites—The form of blessing the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall ‖[a]separate themselves to vow a vow of a Naz'a-rite, to separate themselves unto the LORD;

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no [c]razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

26 and the priest shall take an handful of the meal offering, as the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink
27 the water. And when he hath made her drink the water, then it shall come to pass, if she be defiled, and have committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her and become bitter, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall fall away: and the woman shall be 28 a curse among her people. And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and 29 shall conceive seed. This is the law of jealousy, when a wife, [3]being under her husband, goeth aside,
30 and is defiled; or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon a man, and he be jealous over his wife; then shall he set the woman before the LORD, and the 31 priest shall execute upon her all this law. And the man shall be free from iniquity, and that woman shall bear her iniquity.

6 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall make a special vow, the vow of [4]a Naz'i-rite, to [5]separate him-
3 self unto the LORD: he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink; he shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat fresh grapes or
4 dried. All the days of his [6]separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the grape-vine, from the
5 kernels even to the husk. All the days of his vow of separation there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, he shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow
6 long. All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD he shall not come near to a dead body.
7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because his separation unto God is 8 upon his head. All the days of his separation he 9 is holy unto the LORD. And if any man die very suddenly beside him, and he defile the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall 10 he shave it. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to 11 the priest, to the door of the tent of meeting: and the priest shall offer one for a sin offering, and

CHAPTER VII.

The offering of the princes at the dedication of the tabernacle.

AND it came to pass on the day that Mo'ses had fully [a]set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them;

2 That [b]the princes of Is'ra-el, heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, †and were over them that were numbered, offered:

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Le'vites, to every man according to his service.

12 and shall hallow his head that same day. And he shall separate unto the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a he-lamb of the first year for a guilt offering: but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.
13 And this is the law of the Naz'i-rite, when the days of his separation are fulfilled: he shall be brought 14 unto the door of the tent of meeting: and he shall offer his oblation unto the LORD, one he-lamb of the first year without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for

17 and his burnt offering: and he shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also the meal offering thereof, and the drink offering
18 thereof. And the Naz'i-rite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of 19 peace offerings. And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Naz'i-rite, after he
20 hath shaven the head of his separation: and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD; this is holy for the priest, together with the wave breast and heave [1]thigh: and after that the 21 Naz'i-rite may drink wine. This is the law of the Naz'i-rite who voweth, and of his oblation unto the LORD for his separation, beside that which he is able to get: according to his vow which he voweth, so he must do after the law of his separation.
22 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
23 Speak unto Aa'ron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Is'ra-el: ye shall say unto them,

7 And it came to pass on the day that Mo'ses had made an end of setting up the tabernacle, and had anointed it and sanctified it, and all the furniture thereof, and the altar and all the vessels thereof, and
2 had anointed them and sanctified them; that the princes of Is'ra-el, the heads of their fathers' houses, offered; these were the princes of the tribes, these are they that were over them that were numbered:
3 and they brought their oblation before the LORD, six covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for every two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they presented them before the taber-

5 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
6 Take the Le'vites from among the children of Is'ra-el, and cleanse them.
7 And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: Sprinkle [c]water of purifying upon them, and †[f]let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.
8 Then let them take a young bullock with [g]his meat offering, even fine flour mingled with oil, and another young bullock shalt thou take for a sin offering.
9 [h]And thou shalt bring the Le'vites before the tabernacle of the congregation: [i]and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Is'ra-el together.
10 And thou shalt bring the Le'vites before the LORD: and the children of Is'ra-el [k]shall put their hands upon the Le'vites:
11 And Aa'ron shall †offer the Le'vites before the LORD for an †offering of the children of Is'ra-el, that †they may execute the service of the LORD.
12 [l]And the Le'vites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, unto the LORD, to make an atonement for the Le'vites.
13 And thou shalt set the Le'vites before Aa'ron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the LORD.
14 Thus shalt thou separate the Le'vites from among the children of Is'ra-el: and the Le'vites shall be [m]mine.
15 And after that shall the Le'vites go in to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and [n]offer them for an offering.
16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Is'ra-el; [o]instead of such as open every womb, even instead of the firstborn of all the children of Is'ra-el, have I taken them unto me.
17 [p]For all the firstborn of the children of Is'rael are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of E'gypt I sanctified them for myself.
18 And I have taken the Le'vites for all the firstborn of the children of Is'ra-el.
19 And [q]I have given the Le'vites as †a gift to Aa'ron and to his sons from among the children of Is'ra-el, to do the service of the children of Is'ra-el in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Is'ra-el: [r]that there be no plague among the children of Is'ra-el, when the children of Is'ra-el come nigh unto the sanctuary.
20 And Mo'ses, and Aa'ron, and all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, did to the Le'vites according unto all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses concerning the Le'vites, so did the children of Is'ra-el unto them.
21 [s]And the Le'vites were purified, and they washed their clothes; [t]and Aa'ron offered them as an offering before the LORD; and Aa'ron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.
22 [u]And after that went the Le'vites in to do their service in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aa'ron, and before his sons: [x]as the LORD had commanded Mo'ses concerning the Le'vites, so did they unto them.
23 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
24 This is it that belongeth unto the Le'vites: [y]from twenty and five years old and upward they shall go in †to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:
25 And from the age of fifty years they shall †cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:
26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, [z]to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Le'vites touching their charge.

21 so did the children of Is'ra-el unto them. And the Le'vites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aa'ron offered them for a wave offering before the LORD; and Aa'ron made
22 atonement for them to cleanse them. And after that went the Le'vites in to do their service in the tent of meeting before Aa'ron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Mo'ses concerning the Le'vites, so did they unto them.

3 passover in its appointed season. In the fourteenth day of this month, [1]at even, ye shall keep it in its appointed season: according to all the statutes of it, and according to all the ordinances thereof,

5 And they kept the passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, [1]at even, in the wilderness of Si'nai: according to all that the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did the children of Is'ra-el.

8 And Mo'ses said unto them, Stay ye; that I may hear what the LORD will command concerning you.
9 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
10 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, If any man of you or of your generations shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD:
11 in the second month on the fourteenth day [1]at even they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened 12 bread and bitter herbs; they shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break a bone thereof: according to all the statute of the passover they shall

CHAPTER X.

The Israelites remove from Sinai to Paran—Order of their march.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the [a]calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when [b]they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are [c]heads of the thousands of Is'ra-el, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then [d]the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie [e]on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, [f]ye shall blow, but ye shall not [g]sound an alarm.

8 [h]And the sons of Aa'ron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

9 And [i]if ye go to war in your land against the enemy that [k]oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be [l]remembered before the LORD your God, and ye shall be saved from your enemies.

10 Also [m]in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you [n]for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

11 ¶ And it came to pass on the twentieth day of the second month, in the second year, that the cloud [o]was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony.

12 And the children of Is'ra-el took [p]their journeys out of the [q]wilderness of Si'nai; and the cloud rested in the [r]wilderness of Pa'ran.

13 And they first took their journey [s]according to the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Mo'ses.

14 ¶ [t]In the first place went the standard of the camp of the children of Ju'dah according to their armies: and over his host was [u]Nah'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Is'sa-char was Ne-than'e-el the son of Zu'ar.

16 And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zeb'u-lun was E-li'ab the son of He'lon.

until the morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they journeyed: or if it continued by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, 22 they journeyed. Whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, abiding thereon, the children of Is'ra-el remained encamped, and journeyed not: but when 23 it was taken up, they journeyed. At the commandment of the LORD they encamped, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Mo'ses.

10 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying, 2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of [1]beaten work shalt thou make them: and thou shalt use them for the calling of the congregation, and for the 3 journeying of the camps. And when they shall blow with them, all the congregation shall gather themselves unto thee at the door of the tent of 4 meeting. And if they blow but with one, then the princes, the heads of the thousands of Is'ra-el, shall 5 gather themselves unto thee. And when ye blow an alarm, the camps that lie on the east side shall 6 take their journey. And when ye blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an 7 alarm for their journeys. But when the assembly is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall 8 not sound an alarm. And the sons of Aa'ron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for a statute for ever throughout your 9 generations. And when ye go to war in your land against the adversary that oppresseth you, then ye shall sound an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before the LORD your God, 10 and ye shall be saved from your enemies. Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God.

11 And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth day of the month, that the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle 12 of the testimony. And the children of Is'ra-el set forward according to their journeys out of the wilderness of Si'nai; and the cloud abode in the 13 wilderness of Pa'ran. And they first took their journey according to the commandment of the 14 LORD by the hand of Mo'ses. And in the first place the standard of the camp of the children of Ju'dah set forward according to their hosts: and over his host was Nah'shon the son of Am-min'a-dab.

15 And over the host of the tribe of the children of 16 Is'sa-char was Neth'an-el the son of Zu'ar. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Zeb'u-lun was 17 E-li'ab the son of He'lon. And the tabernacle was taken down; and the sons of Ger'shon and the sons 18 of Mer'a-ri, who bare the tabernacle, set forward. And the standard of the camp of Reu'ben set forward according to their hosts: and over his host was E-li'zur 19 the son of Shed'e-ur. And over the host of the tribe of the children of Sim'e-on was She-lu'mi-el the son of 20 Zu'ri'shad'da-i. And over the host of the tribe of the 21 children of Gad was E-li'a-saph the son of Deu'el. 11 [o]And Mo'ses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

23 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [k]Is the LORD'S hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether [l]my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶And Mo'ses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and [m]gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

7 [i]My servant Mo'ses is not so, [k]who is faithful in all [l]mine house.

8 With him will I speak [m]mouth to mouth, even [n]apparently, and not in dark speeches; and [o]the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then [p]were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Mo'ses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, [q]behold, Mir'i-am became [r]leprous, white as snow: and Aa'ron looked upon Mir'i-am, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aa'ron said unto Mo'ses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, [s]lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be [t]as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And Mo'ses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [u]If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be [x]shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 [y]And Mir'i-am was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Mir'i-am was brought in again.

16 And afterward the people removed from [z]Ha-ze'roth, and pitched in the wilderness of Pa'ran.

31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall [1]by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and 32 about two cubits above the face of the earth. And the people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.
33 While the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people
34 with a very great plague. And the name of that place was called [2]Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah: because there they 35 buried the people that lusted. From Kib'roth-hat-ta'a-vah the people journeyed unto Ha-ze'roth; and they abode at Ha-ze'roth.

12 And Mir'i-am and Aa'ron spake against Mo'ses because of the Cush'ite woman whom he had mar-

3 the LORD heard it. Now the man Mo'ses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face
4 of the earth. And the LORD spake suddenly unto Mo'ses, and unto Aa'ron, and unto Mir'i-am, Come out ye three unto the tent of meeting. And they
5 three came out. And the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aa'ron and Mir'i-am: and they both came
6 forth. And he said, Hear now my words: if there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, I will speak
7 with him in a dream. My servant Mo'ses is not so;
8 he is faithful in all mine house; with him will I speak mouth to mouth, even manifestly, and not in dark speeches; and the form of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak
9 against my servant, against Mo'ses? And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he

B. C. 1490.

3 And Mo'ses by the commandment of the LORD sent them [b]from the wilderness of Pa'ran: all those men were heads of the children of Is'ra-el.

4 And these were their names: Of the tribe of Reu'ben, Sham-mu'a the son of Zac'cur.

5 Of the tribe of Sim'e-on, Sha'phat the son of Ho'ri.

6 [c]Of the tribe of Ju'dah, [d]Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh.

7 Of the tribe of Is'sa-char, I'gal the son of Jo'seph.

8 Of the tribe of E'phra-im, [e]O-she'a the son of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Ben'ja-min, Pal'ti the son of Ra'phu.

10 Of the tribe of Zeb'u-lun, Gad'di-el the son of So'di.

11 Of the tribe of Jo'seph, namely, of the tribe of Ma-nas'seh, Gad'di the son of Su'si.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Am'mi-el the son of Ge-mal'li.

13 Of the tribe of Ash'er, Se'thur the son of Mi'chael.

14 Of the tribe of Naph'ta-li, Nah'bi the son of Voph'si.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geu'el the son of Ma'chi.

16 These are the names of the men which Mo'ses sent to spy out the land. And Mo'ses called [f]O-she'a the son of Nun, Je-hosh'u-a.

17 ¶And Mo'ses sent them to spy out the land of Ca'naan, and said unto them, Get you up this way [g]southward, and go up into [h]the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

21 ¶So they went up, and searched the land [l]from the wilderness of Zin unto [m]Re'hob, as men come to Ha'math.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto He'bron; where [n]A-hi'man, She'shai, and Tal'mai, [o]the children of A'nak were. (Now [p]He'bron was built seven years before [q]Zo'an in E'gypt.)

23 [r]And they came unto the ‖ brook of Esh'col, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the ‖ brook ‖ Esh'col, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Is'ra-el cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 ¶And they went and came to Mo'ses, and to Aa'ron, and to all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, [s]unto the wilderness of Pa'ran, to [t]Ka'desh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

30 And [b]Ca'leb stilled the people before Mo'ses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

31 [c]But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.

CHAPTER XIV.

The people murmur at the news.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and [a]the people wept that night.

2 [b]And all the children of Is'ra-el murmured against Mo'ses and against Aa'ron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of E'gypt! or [c]would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into E'gypt?

4 And they said one to another, [d]Let us make a captain, and [e]let us return into E'gypt.

5 Then [f]Mo'ses and Aa'ron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el.

6 ¶ [g]And Josh'u-a the son of Nun, and Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And they spake unto all the company of the children of Is'ra-el, saying, [h]The land, which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the LORD [i]delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; [k]a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Only [l]rebel not ye against the LORD, [m]neither fear ye the people of the land; for [n]they are bread for us: their †defence is departed from them, [o]and the LORD is with us: fear them not.

10 [p]But all the congregation bade stone them with stones. And [q]the glory of the LORD appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the children of Is'ra-el.

11 ¶ And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, How long will this people [r]provoke me? and how long will it be ere they [s]believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and [t]will make of thee a greater nation and mightier than they.

13 ¶ And [u]Mo'ses said unto the LORD, Then the E-gyp'tians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: [x]for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that [y]thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by daytime in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying,

16 Because the LORD was not [z]able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD is [a]longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, [b]visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 [c]Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people [d]according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and [e]as thou hast forgiven this people, from E'gypt even ‖ until now.

20 And the LORD said, I have pardoned [f]according to thy word:

21 But as truly as I live, [g]all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD.

18 spoken, saying, The LORD is slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children,
19 upon the third and upon the fourth generation. Pardon, I pray thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and according as thou hast forgiven this people, from E'gypt even until 20 now. And the LORD said, I have pardoned according 21 to thy word: but in very deed, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD;

22 [a]Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in E'gypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now [t]these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

23 [k]†Surely they shall not see the land which I sware unto their fathers, neither shall any of them that provoked me see it:

24 But my servant [l]Ca'leb, because he had another spirit with him, and [m]hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went; and his seed shall possess it.

25 (Now the Am'a-lek-ites, and the Ca'naan-ites dwelt in the valley.) To-morrow turn you, [n]and get you into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

26 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, saying,

27 [o]How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, which murmur against me? [p]I have heard the murmurings of the children of Is'ra-el, which they murmur against me.

28 Say unto them, [q]As truly as I live, saith the LORD, [r]as ye have spoken in mine ears, so will I do to you:

29 Your carcasses shall fall in this wilderness, and [s]all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, which have murmured against me,

30 Doubtless ye shall not come into the land, concerning which I †sware to make you dwell therein, [t]save Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, and Josh'u-a the son of Nun.

31 [u]But your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which [x]ye have despised.

32 But as for you, [y]your carcasses, they shall fall in this wilderness.

33 And your children shall ||[z]wander in the wilderness [a]forty years, and [b]bear your whoredoms, until your carcasses be wasted in the wilderness.

34 [c]After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even [d]forty days, each day for a year, shall ye bear your iniquities, even forty years, [e]and ye shall know ||my breach of promise.

35 [f]I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all [g]this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 [h]And the men which Mo'ses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land,

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, [i]died by the plague before the LORD.

38 [k]But Josh'u-a, the son of Nun, and Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

39 And Mo'ses told these sayings unto all the children of Is'ra-el: [l]and the people mourned greatly.

40 ¶And they rose up early in the morning, and gat them up into the top of the mountain, saying, Lo, [m]we be here, and will go up unto the place which the LORD hath promised: for we have sinned.

41 And Mo'ses said, Wherefore now do ye transgress [n]the commandment of the LORD? but it shall not prosper.

42 [o]Go not up, for the LORD is not among you; that ye be not smitten before your enemies.

43 For the Am'a-lek-ites and the Ca'naan-ites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword: [p]because ye are turned away from the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.

The law of the meat offering and the drink offering.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 [a]Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land of your habitations, which I give unto you,
3 And [b]will make an offering by fire unto the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice [c]in †performing a vow, or in a freewill offering, or [d]in your solemn feasts to make a [e]sweet savour unto the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock;

8 And Mo'ses said unto Ko'rah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Le'vi:

9 Seemeth it but [k]a small thing unto you, that the God of Is'ra-el hath [l]separated you from the congregation of Is'ra-el, to bring you near to himself to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Le'vi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy company are gathered together against the LORD: [m]and what is Aa'ron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶And Mo'ses sent to call Da'than and A-bi'ram, the sons of E-li'ab; which said, We will not come up:

13 [n]Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou [o]make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast not brought us into [p]a land that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou †put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Mo'ses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, [q]Respect not thou their offering: [r]I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Mo'ses said unto Ko'rah, [s]Be thou and all thy company [t]before the LORD, thou, and they, and Aa'ron, to-morrow:

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the LORD every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; thou also, and Aa'ron, each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the door of the tabernacle of the congregation with Mo'ses and Aa'ron.

19 And Ko'rah gathered all the congregation against them unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and [u]the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron, saying,

21 [z]Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may [y]consume them in a moment.

22 And they [x]fell upon their faces, and said, O God, [a]the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than, and A-bi'ram.

25 And Mo'ses rose up and went unto Da'than and A-bi'ram; and the elders of Is'ra-el followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, [b]Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their sins.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Ko'rah, Da'than, and A-bi'ram, on every side: and Da'than and A-bi'ram came out, and stood in the door of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their little children.

28 And Mo'ses said, [c]Hereby ye shall know that the LORD hath sent me to do all these works; for I have not done them [d]of mine own mind.

CHAPTER XVIII.

The priests' portion—The Levites' portion.

AND the LORD said unto Aa'ron, [a]Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall [b]bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Le'vi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be [c]joined unto thee, and [d]minister unto thee: but [e]thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall keep thy charge, and [f]the charge of all the tabernacle: [g]only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, [h]that neither they, nor ye also, die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: [i]and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep [k]the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; [l]that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Is'ra-el.

6 And I, behold, I have [m]taken your brethren the Le'vites from among the children of Is'ra-el: [n]to you they are given as a gift for the LORD, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore [o]thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priest's office for every thing of the altar, and [p]within the veil; and ye shall serve: I have given your priest's office unto you as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 ¶And the LORD spake unto Aa'ron, Behold, [q]I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Is'ra-el; unto thee have I given them [r]by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every [s]meat offering of theirs, and every [t]sin offering of theirs, and every [u]trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 [x]In the most holy place shalt thou eat it; every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man whom I shall choose, his rod shall bud: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of 6 Is'ra-el, which they murmur against you. And Mo'ses spake unto the children of Is'ra-el, and all their princes gave him rods, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and
7 the rod of Aa'ron was among their rods. And Mo'ses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tent
8 of the testimony. And it came to pass on the morrow, that Mo'ses went into the tent of the testimony; and, behold, the rod of Aa'ron for the house of Le'vi was budded, and put forth buds, and bloomed
9 blossoms, and bare ripe almonds. And Mo'ses brought out all the rods from before the LORD unto all the children of Is'ra-el: and they looked,
10 and took every man his rod. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Put back the rod of Aa'ron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that thou mayest make an end of their murmurings against me, that they die not.
11 Thus did Mo'ses: as the LORD commanded him, so did he.
12 And the children of Is'ra-el spake unto Mo'ses, saying, Behold, we perish, we are undone, we are all 13 undone. Every one that cometh near, that cometh near unto the tabernacle of the LORD, [1]dieth: shall we perish all of us?

18 And the LORD said unto Aa'ron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.
2 And thy brethren also, the tribe of Le'vi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou near with thee, that they may be [2]joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall be before the
3 tent of the testimony. And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the Tent: only they shall not come nigh unto the vessels of the sanctuary and unto the altar, that they die not, neither
4 they, nor ye. And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not
5 come nigh unto you. And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar: that there be wrath no more upon the children of Is'ra-el.
6 And I, behold, I have taken your brethren the Le'vites from among the children of Is'ra-el: to you they are a gift, given unto the LORD, to do the serv-
7 ice of the tent of meeting. And thou and thy sons with thee shall keep your priesthood for every thing of the altar, and for that within the veil; and ye shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

8 And the LORD spake unto Aa'ron, And I, behold, I have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings, even all the hallowed things of the children of Is'ra-el, unto thee have I given them [3]by reason of the 9 anointing, and to thy sons, as a due for ever. This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every guilt offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

11 And this is thine; [p]the heave offering of their gift, with all the wave offerings of the children of Is'ra-el: I have given them unto [q]thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [r]every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.

12 [s]All the †best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, [t]the firstfruits of them which they shall offer unto the LORD, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, [u]which they shall bring unto the LORD, shall be thine; [v]every one that is clean in thine house shall eat of it.

14 [w]Every thing devoted in Is'ra-el shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth [x]the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless, [y]the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, [z]according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, [a]which is twenty gerahs.

17 [b]But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: [c]thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the [d]wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 [e]All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Is'ra-el offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: [f]it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶And the LORD spake unto Aa'ron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: [g]I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Is'ra-el.

21 And, behold, [h]I have given the children of Le'vi all the tenth in Is'ra-el for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even [i]the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 [j]Neither must the children of Is'ra-el henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, [k]lest they bear sin, †and die.

23 [l]But the Le'vites shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Is'ra-el they have no inheritance.

24 [m]But the tithes of the children of Is'ra-el, which they offer as a heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Le'vites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, [n]Among the children of Is'ra-el they shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Le'vites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Is'ra-el the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up a heave offering of it for the LORD, even [o]a tenth part of the tithe.

27 [p]And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer a heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Is'ra-el; and ye shall give thereof the LORD'S heave offering to Aa'ron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the †best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

21 And unto the children of Le'vi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Is'ra-el for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the

CHAPTER XIX.

The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, [g]and upon which never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto E-le-a'zar the priest, that he may bring her [h]forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

4 And E-le-a'zar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and [i]sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

5 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight; [j]her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall he burn:

6 And the priest shall take [k]cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

7 [l]Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

8 And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

9 And a man that is clean shall gather up [m]the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el [n]for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

10 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Is'ra-el, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

11 ¶ [o]He that toucheth the dead body of any †man shall be unclean seven days.

12 [p]He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

13 Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, [q]defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Is'ra-el: because [r]the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; [s]his uncleanness is yet upon him.

14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

15 And every [t]open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

16 And [u]whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

17 And for an unclean person they shall take of the †[v]ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and †running water shall be put thereto in a vessel:

18 And a clean person shall take [w]hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye heave the [1]best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Le'vites as the increase of the threshing-
31 floor, and as the increase of the winepress. And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward in return for your service in 32 the tent of meeting. And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the [1]best thereof: and ye shall not profane the holy things of the children of Is'ra-el, [2]that ye die not.

19 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and unto Aa'ron,
2 saying, This is the statute of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, that they bring thee a red heifer [3]without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never
3 came yoke: and ye shall give her unto E-le-a'zar the priest, and he shall bring her forth without the 4 camp, and one shall slay her before his face: and E-le-a'zar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and sprinkle of her blood toward the front of
5 the tent of meeting seven times: and one shall burn the heifer in his sight; her skin, and her flesh, and
6 her blood, with her dung, shall he burn: and the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the 7 heifer. Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be
8 unclean until the even. And he that burneth her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh
9 in water, and shall be unclean until the even. And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and lay them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el for a water of [4]separation: it
10 is a sin offering. And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Is'ra-el, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among 11 them, for a statute for ever. He that toucheth the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days:
12 the same shall purify himself therewith on the third day, [5]and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, [6]then the sev-
13 enth day he shall not be clean. Whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Is'ra-el: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon 14 him. This is the law when a man dieth in a tent: every one that cometh into the tent, and every one that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.
15 And every open vessel, which hath no covering
16 bound upon it, is unclean. And whosoever in the open field toucheth one that is slain with a sword, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave,
17 shall be unclean seven days. And for the unclean they shall take of the ashes of the burning of the sin offering, and [7]running water shall be put thereto
18 in a vessel: and a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched the bone, or the slain, or the dead, or the grave:

CHAPTER XX.

The children of Israel murmur for water—Moses smiteth the rock.

1453. THEN [a]came the children of Is'ra-el, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin in the first month: and the people abode in Ka'desh; and [b]Mir'i-am died there, and was buried there.

2 [c]And there was no water for the congregation: [d]and they gathered themselves together against Mo'ses and against Aa'ron.

3 And the people [e]chode with Mo'ses, and spake, saying, Would God that we had died [f]when our brethren died before the LORD!

4 And [g]why have ye brought up the congregation of the LORD into this wilderness, that we and our cattle should die there?

5 And wherefore have ye made us to come up out of E'gypt, to bring us unto this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there any water to drink.

6 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron went from the presence of the assembly unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and [h]they fell upon their faces: and [i]the glory of the LORD appeared unto them.

7 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

8 [k]Take the rod, and gather thou the assembly together, thou and Aa'ron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes; and it shall give forth his water, and [l]thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock: so thou shalt give the congregation and their beasts drink.

9 And Mo'ses took the rod [m]from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

10 And Mo'ses and Aa'ron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said unto them, [n]Hear now, ye rebels; must we fetch you water out of this rock?

11 And Mo'ses lifted up his hand, and with his rod he smote the rock twice: and [o]the water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their beasts also.

12 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron, Because [p]ye believed me not, to [q]sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Is'ra-el, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I have given them.

13 [r]This is the water of || Mer'i-bah; because the children of Is'ra-el strove with the LORD, and he was sanctified in them.

VIEW IN THE LAND OF DAN.—When Abraham pursued the captors of Lot he "went even unto Dan," which was the most northerly city of Palestine, as Beersheba was the most southerly. The expression "from Dan to Beersheba" is very familiar, and was used in the same way ages ago (see Judges XX, 1; I Sam. III, 20, etc.). It was here that Jeroboam set up one of the golden calves, the other being at Bethel (I Kings XII, 29). The exact spot where the image was set up is said to be at the southwest corner of the mound. On the east of the Plain of Huleh will be seen a range of mountains; these are the hills of Bashan, still covered with their famous oaks. It is an interesting fact that the word "Kady" in Arabic corresponds exactly with "Dan" in Hebrew, and means a judge. "Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel, etc." (Gen. XLIX, 16-18).

VIEW OF THE DEAD SEA.—The inference from the Bible that this entire chasm was a plain sunk and "overwhelmed" by wrath of God seems to be sustained by the extraordinary character of scientific soundings. The bottom of the sea consists of two submerged plains, one elevated and the other depressed, the former averaging 13 feet and the latter about 1300 feet below the surface; the level, however, varies with the seasons, as may be judged from the salt-encrusted pieces of wood that lie upon its banks. On the east and west sides the Dead Sea is flanked by precipitous mountains. The shallow south bay of the sea is bounded by a low peninsula—Arabic, el-lisan, "tongue" (Joshua XV, 2). At the south-west end rises Jebel Usdum, a Hill of Salt, 350 feet high. This is supposed to be the "pillar" referred to in Genesis XIX, 26.

B. C. 1453.

17 [a]Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country: we will not pass through the fields, or through the vineyards, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way, we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed thy borders.

18 And E'dom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee with the sword.

19 And the children of Is'ra-el said unto him, We will go by the high way: and if I and my cattle drink of thy water, [b]then I will pay for it: I will only, without doing any thing else, go through on my feet.

20 And he said, [c]Thou shalt not go through. And E'dom came out against him with much people, and with a strong hand.

21 Thus E'dom [d]refused to give Is'ra-el passage through his border: wherefore Is'ra-el [e]turned away from him.

22 ¶And the children of Is'ra-el, even the whole congregation, journeyed from [f]Ka'desh, [g]and came unto mount Hor.

23 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron in mount Hor, by the coast of the land of E'dom, saying,

24 Aa'ron shall be [h]gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Is'ra-el, because [i]ye rebelled against my †word at the water of Mer'i-bah.

25 [k]Take Aa'ron and E-le-a'zar his son, and bring them up unto mount Hor:

26 And strip Aa'ron of his garments, and put them upon E-le-a'zar his son: and Aa'ron shall be gathered unto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation.

28 [l]And Mo'ses stripped Aa'ron of his garments, and put them upon E-le-a'zar his son; and [m]Aa'ron died there in the top of the mount: and Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar came down from the mount.

29 And when all the congregation saw that Aa'ron was dead, they mourned for Aa'ron [n]thirty days, even all the house of Is'ra-el.

CHAPTER XXI.

The people, repenting, are healed by a brazen serpent—Sihon and Og overcome.

AND when [a]king A'rad the Ca'naan-ite, which dwelt in the south, heard tell that Is'ra-el came [b]by the way of the spies; then he fought against Is'ra-el, and took some of them prisoners.

2 [c]And Is'ra-el vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then [d]I will utterly destroy their cities.

3 And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Is'ra-el, and delivered up the Ca'naan-ites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and he called the name of the place ‖Hor'mah.

4 ¶And [e]they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to [f]compass the land of E'dom: and the soul of the people was much ‖†discouraged because of the way.

5 And the people [g]spake against God, and against Mo'ses, [h]Wherefore have ye brought us up out of E'gypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, neither is there any water; and [i]our soul loatheth this light bread.

6 And [k]the LORD sent [l]fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Is'ra-el died.

7 ¶[m]Therefore the people came to Mo'ses, and said, We have sinned, for [n]we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; [o]pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Mo'ses prayed for the people.

8 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a pole: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is bitten, when he looketh upon it, shall live.

9 And [p]Mo'ses made a serpent of brass, and put it upon a pole,

B. C. 1453.

17 let us pass, I pray thee, through thy land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the king's high way, we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left,
18 until we have passed thy border. And E'dom said unto him, Thou shalt not pass through me, lest I
19 come out with the sword against thee. And the children of Is'ra-el said unto him, We will go up by the high way: and if we drink of thy water, I and my cattle, then will I give the price thereof: let me only, without doing any thing else, pass through on 20 my feet. And he said, Thou shalt not pass through. And E'dom came out against him with much people, 21 and with a strong hand. Thus E'dom refused to give Is'ra-el passage through his border: wherefore Is'ra-el turned away from him.

22 And they journeyed from Ka'desh: and the children of Is'ra-el, even the whole congregation,
23 came unto mount Hor. And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses and Aa'ron in mount Hor, by the border of 24 the land of E'dom, saying, Aa'ron shall be gathered unto his people: for he shall not enter into the land which I have given unto the children of Is'ra-el, because ye rebelled against my word at the waters of 25 Mer'i-bah. Take Aa'ron and E-le-a'zar his son, and 26 bring them up unto mount Hor: and strip Aa'ron of his garments, and put them upon E-le-a'zar his son: and Aa'ron shall be gathered unto his people, and 27 shall die there. And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded: and they went up into mount Hor in the 28 sight of all the congregation. And Mo'ses stripped Aa'ron of his garments, and put them upon E-le-a'zar his son; and Aa'ron died there in the top of the mount: and Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar came down from the 29 mount. And when all the congregation saw that Aa'ron was dead, they wept for Aa'ron thirty days, even all the house of Is'ra-el.

21 And the Ca'naan-ite, the king of A'rad, which dwelt in the South, heard tell that Is'ra-el came by the way [1]of Ath'a-rim; and he fought against Is'ra-el, and took
2 some of them captive. And Is'ra-el vowed a vow unto the LORD, and said, If thou wilt indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will [2]utterly de-
3 stroy their cities. And the LORD hearkened to the voice of Is'ra-el, and delivered up the Ca'naan-ites; and they [3]utterly destroyed them and their cities: and the name of the place was called [4]Hor'mah.

4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way to the Red Sea, to compass the land of E'dom: and the soul of the people [5]was much discouraged
5 [6]because of the way. And the people spake against God, and against Mo'ses, Wherefore have ye brought us up out of E'gypt to die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, and there is no water; and our
6 soul loatheth this [7]light bread. And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the 7 people; and much people of Is'ra-el died. And the people came to Mo'ses, and said, We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD, and against thee; pray unto the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us. And Mo'ses prayed for 8 the people. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Make thee a fiery serpent, and set it upon a standard: and it shall come to pass, that every one that is 9 bitten, when he seeth it, shall live. And Mo'ses made a serpent of brass, and set it upon the standard:

and it came to pass, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he beheld the serpent of brass, he lived.

10 ¶ And the children of Is'ra-el set forward, and [o]pitched in O'both.

11 And they journeyed from O'both, and [r]pitched at ||Ij'e-ab'a-rim, in the wilderness which is before Mo'ab toward the sunrising.

12 ¶ [s]From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Za'red.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Ar'non, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Am'o-rites: for [t]Ar'non is the border of Mo'ab, between Mo'ab and the Am'o-rites.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the wars of the LORD, || What he did in the Red sea, and in the brooks of Ar'non,

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Ar, [u]and †lieth upon the border of Mo'ab.

16 And from thence they went [x]to Be'er: that is the well whereof the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 ¶ [y]Then Is'ra-el sang this song, †Spring up, O well; ||sing ye unto it:

18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of [z]the lawgiver, with their staves. And from the wilderness they went to Mat'ta-nah:

19 And from Mat'ta-nah to Na-ha'li-el: and from Na-ha'-li-el to Ba'moth:

20 And from Ba'moth in the valley, that is in the †country of Mo'ab, to the top of ||Pis'gah, which looketh [a]toward ||Jesh'i-mon.

21 ¶ And [b]Is'ra-el sent messengers unto Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, saying,

22 [c]Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the king's high way, until we be past thy borders.

23 [d]And Si'hon would not suffer Is'ra-el to pass through his border: but Si'hon gathered all his people together, and went out against Is'ra-el into the wilderness: [e]and he came to Ja'haz, and fought against Is'ra-el.

24 And [f]Is'ra-el smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Ar'non unto Jab'bok, even unto the children of Am'mon: for the border of the children of Am'mon was strong.

25 And Is'ra-el took all these cities: and Is'ra-el dwelt in all the cities of the Am'o-rites, in Hesh'bon, and in all the †villages thereof.

26 For Hesh'bon was the city of Si'hon the king of the Am'o-rites, who had fought against the former king of Mo'ab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even unto Ar'non.

27 Wherefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Hesh'bon, let the city of Si'hon be built and prepared.

28 For there is [o]a fire gone out of Hesh'bon, a flame from the city of Si'hon: it hath consumed [h]Ar of Mo'ab, and the lords of the high places of Ar'non.

30 We have shot at them; Hesh'bon is perished even [k]unto Di'bon, and we have laid them waste even unto No'phah, which reacheth unto [l]Med'e-ba.

14 Wherefore it is said in the book of the Wars of the LORD,

Va'heb [1]in Su'phah,
And the valleys of Ar'non,
15 And the slope of the valleys
That inclineth toward the dwelling of Ar,
And leaneth upon the border of Mo'ab.

16 And from thence they journeyed to [2]Be'er: that is the well whereof the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then sang Is'ra-el this song:

Spring up, O well; sing ye unto it:

And from the wilderness they journeyed to Mat'-19 ta-nah: and from Mat'ta-nah to Na-ha'li-el: and from 20 Na-ha'li-el to Ba'moth: and from Ba'moth to the valley that is in the field of Mo'ab, to the top of Pis'gah, which looketh down upon [4]the desert.

21 And Is'ra-el sent messengers unto Si'hon king of 22 the Am'o-rites, saying, Let me pass through thy land: we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's high way until we have 23 passed thy border. 34 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [p]Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and [q]thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt at Hesh'bon.

CHAPTER XXII.

An angel would have slain Balaam, if his ass had not saved him.

AND [a]the children of Is'ra-el set forward, and pitched in the plains of Mo'ab on this side Jor'dan by Jer'i-cho.

2 ¶ And [b]Ba'lak the son of Zip'por saw all that Is'ra-el had done to the Am'o-rites.

3 And [c]Mo'ab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Mo'ab was distressed because of the children of Is'ra-el.

4 And Mo'ab said unto [d]the elders of Mid'i-an, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Ba'lak the son of Zip'por was king of the Mo'ab-ites at that time.

5 [e]He sent messengers therefore unto Ba'laam the son of Be'or to [f]Pe'thor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from E'gypt: behold, they cover the †face of the earth, and they abide over against me:

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, [g]curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Mo'ab and the elders of Mid'i-an departed with [h]the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Ba'laam, and spake unto him the words of Ba'lak.

8 And he said unto them, [i]Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the princes of Mo'ab abode with Ba'laam.

9 [k]And God came unto Ba'laam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Ba'laam said unto God, Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, king of Mo'ab, hath sent unto me, saying,

11 Behold, there is a people come out of E'gypt, which covereth the face of the earth: come now, curse me them; peradventure †I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Ba'laam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for [l]they are blessed.

13 And Ba'laam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Ba'lak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Mo'ab rose up, and they went unto Ba'lak, and said, Ba'laam refuseth to come with us.

15 ¶ And Ba'lak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Ba'laam, and said to him, Thus saith Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, †Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

17 For I will promote thee unto very great honour, and I will do whatsoever thou sayest unto me: [m]come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.

18 And Ba'laam answered and said unto the servants of Ba'lak, [n]If Ba'lak would give me his house full of silver and gold, [o]I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, [p]tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will say unto me more.

20 [q]And God came unto Ba'laam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with 33 And they turned and went up by the way of Ba'shan: and Og the king of Ba'shan went out against them, 34 he and all his people, to battle at Ed're-i. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt at 35 Hesh'bon. So they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, until there was none left him remaining: 22 and they possessed his land. And the children of Is'ra-el journeyed, and pitched in the plains of Mo'ab beyond the Jor'dan at Jer'i-cho.

2 And Ba'lak the son of Zip'por saw all that Is'ra-el 3 had done to the Am'o-rites. And Mo'ab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Mo'ab [1]was distressed because of the children of 4 Is'ra-el. And Mo'ab said unto the elders of Mid'i-an, Now shall [2]this multitude lick up all that is round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Ba'lak the son of Zip'por was king of Mo'ab at 5 that time. And he sent messengers unto Ba'laam the son of Be'or, to Pe'thor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from E'gypt: behold, they cover the [3]face of the earth, 6 and they abide over against me: come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me these people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I know that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest is cursed. 7 And the elders of Mo'ab and the elders of Mid'i-an departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Ba'laam, and spake unto 8 him the words of Ba'lak. And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak unto me: and the 9 princes of Mo'ab abode with Ba'laam. And God came unto Ba'laam, and said, What men are these 10 with thee? And Ba'laam said unto God, Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, king of Mo'ab, hath sent unto me, 11 saying, Behold, the people that is come out of E'gypt, it covereth the face of the earth: now, come curse me them; peradventure I shall be able to fight 12 against them, and shall drive them out. And God said unto Ba'laam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed. 13 And Ba'laam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Ba'lak, Get you into your land: for the LORD refuseth to give me leave to go with you. 14 And the princes of Mo'ab rose up, and they went unto Ba'lak, and said, Ba'laam refuseth to come with 15 us. And Ba'lak sent yet again princes, more, and 16 more honourable than they. And they came to Ba'laam, and said to him, Thus saith Ba'lak the son of Zip'por, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder 17 thee from coming unto me: for I will promote thee unto very great honour, and whatsoever thou sayest unto me I will do: come therefore, I pray 18 thee, curse me this people. And Ba'laam answered and said unto the servants of Ba'lak, If Ba'lak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the LORD my God, 19 to do less or more. Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what 20 the LORD will speak unto me more. 21 And Ba'laam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Mo'ab.

22 ¶And God's anger was kindled because he went: [s]and the angel of the LORD stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And [t]the ass saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Ba'laam smote the ass, to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the LORD stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Ba'laam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the LORD, she fell down under Ba'laam: and Ba'laam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff.

28 And the LORD [u]opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Ba'laam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Ba'laam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, [z]for now would I kill thee.

30 [v]And the ass said unto Ba'laam, Am not I thine ass, †upon which thou hast ridden ‖ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the LORD [x]opened the eyes of Ba'laam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he [a]bowed down his head, and ‖ fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out †to withstand thee, because thy way is [b]perverse before me:

33 And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Ba'laam said unto the angel of the LORD, [c]I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it †displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Ba'laam, Go with the men: [d]but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Ba'laam went with the princes of Ba'lak.

36 ¶And when Ba'lak heard that Ba'laam was come, [e]he went out to meet him unto a city of Mo'ab, [f]which is in the border of Ar'non, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Ba'lak said unto Ba'laam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed [g]to promote thee to honour?

38 And Ba'laam said unto Ba'lak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? [h]the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Ba'laam went with Ba'lak, and they came unto ‖ Kir'jath-hu'zoth.

40 And Ba'lak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Ba'laam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Ba'lak took Ba'laam, and brought him up into the [i]high places of Ba'al, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Balaam prophesieth the happiness of Israel.

AND when Ba'laam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Is'ra-el, he went not, as at [c]other times, †to seek for enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness.

2 And Ba'laam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Is'ra-el [b]abiding in his tents according to their tribes; and [c]the Spirit of God came upon him.

3 [d]And he took up his parable, and said, Ba'laam the son of Be'or hath said, and the man †whose eyes are open hath said:

4 He hath said, which heard the words of God, which saw the vision of the Almighty, [e]falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Ja'cob, and thy tabernacles, O Is'ra-el!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, [f]as the trees of lignaloes [g]which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be [h]in many waters, and his king shall be higher than [i]A'gag, and his [k]kingdom shall be exalted.

8 [l]God brought him forth out of E'gypt; he hath as it were the strength of a unicorn: he shall [m]eat up the nations his enemies, and shall [n]break their bones, and [o]pierce them through with his arrows.

9 [p]He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? [q]Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 ¶And Ba'lak's anger was kindled against Ba'laam, and he [r]smote his hands together: and Ba'lak said unto Ba'laam, [s]I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: [t]I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.

12 And Ba'laam said unto Ba'lak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 [u]If Ba'lak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can not go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and [z]I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people [y]in the latter days.

15 ¶[z]And he took up his parable, and said, Ba'laam the son of Be'or hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the Most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 [a]I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come [b]a Star out of Ja'cob,

25 And Ba'lak said unto Ba'laam, Neither curse them
26 at all, nor bless them at all. But Ba'laam answered and said unto Ba'lak, Told not I thee, saying, All 27 that the LORD speaketh, that I must do? And Ba'lak said unto Ba'laam, Come now, I will take thee unto another place: peradventure it will please God that thou mayest curse me them from 28 thence. And Ba'lak took Ba'laam unto the top of 29 Pe'or, that looketh down upon [1]the desert. And Ba'laam said unto Ba'lak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks and 30 seven rams. And Ba'lak did as Ba'laam had said, and offered up a bullock and a ram on every altar.

24 And when Ba'laam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Is'ra-el, he went not, as at the other times, to meet with enchantments, but he set his face toward
2 the wilderness. And Ba'laam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Is'ra-el dwelling according to their tribes;

6 As valleys are they spread forth,
As gardens by the river side,
As lign-aloes which the LORD hath planted,
As cedar trees beside the waters.
7 Water shall flow from his buckets,
And his seed shall be in many waters,
And his king shall be higher than A'gag,
And his kingdom shall be exalted.
8 God bringeth him forth out of E'gypt;
He hath as it were the [3]strength of the [3]wild-ox:
He shall eat up the nations his adversaries,
And shall break their bones in pieces,
And smite them through with his arrows.
9 He couched, he lay down as a lion,
And as a lioness; who shall rouse him up?
Blessed be every one that blesseth thee,
And cursed be every one that curseth thee.
10 And Ba'lak's anger was kindled against Ba'laam, and he smote his hands together: and Ba'lak said unto Ba'laam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them and [c]a Sceptre shall rise out of Is'ra-el, and shall ‖smite the corners of Mo'ab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And [d]E'dom shall be a possession, Se'ir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Is'ra-el shall do valiantly.

19 [e]Out of Ja'cob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 ¶And when he looked on Am'a-lek, he took up his parable, and said, Am'a-lek was ‖the first of the nations; but his latter end ‖shall be that he perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the Ken'ites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwellingplace, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless †the Ken'ite shall be wasted, ‖until As'shur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of [f]Chit'tim, and shall afflict As'shur, and shall afflict [g]E'ber, and he also shall perish for ever.

25 And Ba'laam rose up, and went and [h]returned to his place: and Ba'lak also went his way.

CHAPTER XXV.

Phinehas killeth Zimri and Cozbi.

AND Is'ra-el abode in [a]Shit'tim, and [b]the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Mo'ab.

2 And [c]they called the people unto [d]the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and [e]bowed down to their gods.

3 And Is'ra-el joined himself unto Ba'al-pe'or: and [f]the anger of the LORD was kindled against Is'ra-el.

4 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, [g]Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, [h]that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Is'ra-el.

5 And Mo'ses said unto [i]the judges of Is'ra-el, [k]Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Ba'al-pe'or.

6 ¶And, behold, one of the children of Is'ra-el came and brought unto his brethren a Mid'i-an-i-tish woman in the sight of Mo'ses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, [l]who were weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And [m]when Phin'e-has, [n]the son of E-le-a'zar, the son of Aa'ron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Is'ra-el into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Is'ra-el, and the woman through her belly. So [o]the plague was stayed from the children of Is'ra-el.

9 And [p]those that died in the plague were twenty and four thousand.

10 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

11 [q]Phin'e-has, the son of E-le-a'zar, the son of Aa'ron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Is'ra-el, while he was zealous †for my sake among them, that I consumed not the children of Is'ra-el in [r]my jealousy.

12 Wherefore say, [s]Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace:

13 And he shall have it, and [t]his seed after him, even the covenant of [u]an everlasting priesthood; because he was [x]zealous for his God, and [y]made an atonement for the children of Is'ra-el.

14 Now the name of the Is'ra-el-ite that was slain, even that was slain with the Mid'i-an-i-tish woman, was Zim'ri, the son of Sa'lu, a prince of a †chief house among the Sim'e-on-ites.

15 And the name of the Mid'i-an-i-tish woman that was slain was Coz'bi, the daughter of [z]Zur; he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Mid'i-an.

And a sceptre shall rise out of Is'ra-el.
And shall smite through the corners of Mo'ab,
And break down all the sons [1]of tumult.
18 And E'dom shall be a possession,
Se'ir also shall be a possession, which were his enemies;
While Is'ra-el doeth valiantly.
19 And out of Ja'cob shall one have dominion,
And shall destroy the remnant from the city.
20 And he looked on Am'a-lek, and took up his parable, and said,
Am'a-lek was the first of the nations;
But his latter end shall come to destruction.
21 And he looked on the Ken'ite, and took up his parable, and said,
Strong is thy dwelling place,
And thy nest is set in the rock.
22 Nevertheless [2]Ka'in shall be wasted,
[3]Until As'shur shall carry thee away captive.
23 And he took up his parable, and said,
Alas, who shall live when God [4]doeth this?
24 But ships shall come from the coast of Kit'tim,
And they shall afflict As'shur, and shall afflict E'ber,
And he also shall come to destruction.
25 And Ba'laam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Ba'lak also went his way.

25 And Is'ra-el abode in Shit'tim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of 2 Mo'ab: for they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods; and the people did eat, and
3 bowed down to their gods. And Is'ra-el [5]joined himself unto [6]Ba'al-pe'or: and the anger of the LORD
4 was kindled against Is'ra-el. And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up unto the LORD before the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from
5 Is'ra-el. And Mo'ses said unto the judges of Is'ra-el, Slay ye every one his men that have joined themselves unto Ba'al-pe'or. And, behold, one of the 6 children of Is'ra-el came and brought unto his brethren a Mid'i-an-i-tish woman in the sight of Mo'ses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, while they were weeping at 7 the door of the tent of meeting. And when Phin'e-has, the son of E-le-a'zar, the son of Aa'ron the priest, saw it, he rose up from the midst of the congrega-
8 tion, and took a spear in his hand; and he went after the man of Is'ra-el into the [7]pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Is'ra-el, and the woman through her belly. So the plague was stayed 9 from the children of Is'ra-el. And those that died by the plague were twenty and four thousand.
10 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
11 Phin'e-has, the son of E-le-a'zar, the son of Aa'ron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Is'ra-el, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I consumed not the 12 children of Is'ra-el in my jealousy. Wherefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace;
13 and it shall be unto him, and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement
14 for the children of Is'ra-el. Now the name of the man of Is'ra-el that was slain, who was slain with the Mid'i-an-i-tish woman, was Zim'ri, the son of Sa'lu, a prince of a fathers' house among the Sim'e-on-ites.
15 And the name of the Mid'i-an-i-tish woman that was slain was Coz'bi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a fathers' house in Mid'i-an.

53 [k]Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names.

54 [l]To many thou shalt †give the more inheritance, and to few thou shalt †give the less inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given, according to those that were numbered of him.

55 Notwithstanding, the land shall be [m]divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided between many and few.

57 ¶ [n]And these are they that were numbered of the Le'vites after their families: of Ger'shon, the family of the Ger'shon-ites: of Ko'hath, the family of the Ko'hath-ites: of Mer'a-ri, the family of the Mer'a-rites.

58 These are the families of the Le'vites: the family of the Lib'nites, the family of the He'bron-ites, the family of the Mah'lites, the family of the Mu'shites, the family of the Ko'rath-ites. And Ko'hath begat Am'ram.

59 And the name of Am'ram's wife was [o]Jo'che-bed, the daughter of Le'vi, whom her mother bare to Le'vi in E'gypt: and she bare unto Am'ram, Aa'ron and Mo'ses, and Mir'i-am their sister.

60 [p]And unto Aa'ron was born Na'dab and A-bi'hu, E-le-a'zar and Ith'a-mar.

61 And [q]Na'dab and A-bi'hu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD.

62 [r]And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: [s]for they were not numbered among the children of Is'ra-el, because there was [t]no inheritance given them among the children of Is'ra-el.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar the priest, who numbered the children of Is'ra-el [u]in the plains of Mo'ab by Jor'dan near Jer'i-cho.

64 [x]But among these there was not a man of them whom Mo'ses and Aa'ron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Is'ra-el in the wilderness of Si'nai.

65 For the LORD had said of them, They [y]shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, [z]save Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, and Josh'u-a the son of Nun.

CHAPTER XXVII.

The law of inheritance—Moses, being told of his death, sueth for a successor.

THEN came the daughters of [a]Ze-lo'phe-had, the son of He'pher, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, of the families of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mah'lah, No'ah, and Hog'lah, and Mil'cah, and Tir'zah.

2 And they stood before Mo'ses, and before E-le-a'zar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father [b]died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD [c]in the company of Ko'rah; but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

4 Why should the name of our father be †done away from among his family, because he hath no son? [d]Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

5 And Mo'ses [e]brought their cause before the LORD.

6 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

7 The daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had speak right: [f]thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

8 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

9 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

10 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inher-
54 itance according to the number of names. To the more thou shalt give the more inheritance, and to the fewer thou shalt give the less inheritance: to every one according to those that were numbered 55 of him shall his inheritance be given. Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall 56 inherit. According to the lot shall their inheritance be divided between the more and the fewer.

57 And these are they that were numbered of the Le'vites after their families: of Ger'shon, the family of the Ger'shon-ites: of Ko'hath, the family of the Ko'hath-ites: of Mer'a-ri, the family of the Mer'a-rites.
58 These are the families of Le'vi: the family of the Lib'nites, the family of the He'bron-ites, the family of the Mah'lites, the family of the Mu'shites, the family of the Ko'rah-ites. And Ko'hath begat Am'-
59 ram. And the name of Am'ram's wife was Jo'che-bed, the daughter of Le'vi, who was born to Le'vi in E'gypt: and she bare unto Am'ram Aa'ron and 60 Mo'ses, and Mir'i-am their sister. And unto Aa'ron were born Na'dab and A-bi'hu, E-le-a'zar and Ith'a-
61 mar. And Na'dab and A-bi'hu died, when they offered
62 strange fire before the LORD. And they that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Is'rael, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Is'ra-el.

63 These are they that were numbered by Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar the priest; who numbered the children of Is'ra-el in the plains of Mo'ab by the Jor'dan at Jer'i-
64 cho. But among these there was not a man of them that were numbered by Mo'ses and Aa'ron the priest; who numbered the children of Is'ra-el in the wilder-
65 ness of Si'nai. For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, and Josh'u-a the son of Nun.

27 Then drew near the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had, the son of He'pher, the son of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, of the families of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph: and these are the names of his daughters; Mah'lah, No'ah, and Hog'lah, and Mil'cah, and
2 Tir'zah. And they stood before Mo'ses, and before E-le-a'zar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the tent of meeting, say-
3 ing, Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of them that gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Ko'rah: but he died in his own sin; and he had no
4 sons. Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give unto us a possession among the brethren of 12 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses [h]Get thee up into this mount Ab'a-rim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Is'ra-el.

13 And when thou hast seen it, thou also [i]shalt be gathered unto thy people, as Aa'ron thy brother was gathered.

14 For ye [k]rebelled against my commandment in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, to sanctify me at the water before their eyes: that is the [l]water of Mer'i-bah in Ka'desh in the wilderness of Zin.

15 ¶And Mo'ses spake unto the LORD, saying,

16 Let the LORD, [m]the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the congregation,

17 [n]Which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in; that the congregation of the LORD be not [o]as sheep which have no shepherd.

18 ¶And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Take thee Josh'u-a the son of Nun, a man [p]in whom is the spirit, and [q]lay thine hand upon him;

19 And set him before E-le-a'zar the priest, and before all the congregation; and [r]give him a charge in their sight.

20 And [s]thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el [t]maybe obedient.

21 [u]And he shall stand before E-le-a'zar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him [x]after the judgment of U'rim before the LORD: [y]at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Is'ra-el with him, even all the congregation.

22 And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Josh'u-a, and set him before E-le-a'zar the priest, and before all the congregation:

23 And he laid his hands upon him, [z]and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Mo'ses.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Offerings are to be observed.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

2 Command the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, My offering, and [a]my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for †a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, [b]This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot †day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer †at even:

5 And [c]a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a [d]meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of a [e]hin of beaten oil.

6 It is [f]a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Si'nai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb: [g]in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering:

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 ¶And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof:

10 This is [h]the burnt offering of every sabbath, besides the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

12 And the LORD said unto Mo'ses, Get thee up into this mountain of Ab'a-rim, and behold the land which 13 I have given unto the children of Is'ra-el. And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be gathered unto 14 thy people, as Aa'ron thy brother was gathered: because ye rebelled against my word in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, [1]to sanctify me at the waters before their eyes. (These are the waters of Mer'i-bah of Ka'desh in the wilderness of 15 Zin.) And Mo'ses spake unto the LORD, saying,
16 Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh,

20 give him a charge in their sight. And thou shalt put of thine honour upon him, that all the congre-

And he shall stand before E-le-a'zar the priest, who shall inquire for him by the judgement of the U'rim before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he, and all the children of Is'ra-el with him, even all the congregation.
22 And Mo'ses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Josh'u-a, and set him before E-le-a'zar the 23 priest, and before all the congregation: and he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD spake by the hand of Mo'ses.

28 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Command the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, My oblation, my [2]food for my offerings made by fire, of a sweet savour unto me, shall ye
3 observe to offer unto me in their due season. [3]And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; helambs of the first year without blemish, two day by

5 shalt thou offer [4]at even; and the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with
6 the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil. It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Si'nai for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire
7 unto the LORD. And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou pour out a drink offer-
8 ing of strong drink unto the LORD. And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

AND in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: [a]it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.
2 And ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; one young bullock, one ram, and seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

12 year without blemish; and three tenth parts of an ephah of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for each bullock; and two tenth parts of fine flour for a meal offering, mingled with oil, for the
13 one ram; and a several tenth part of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering unto every lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, an
14 offering made by fire unto the LORD. And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine for a bullock, and the third part of an hin for the ram, and the fourth part of an hin for a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the 15 months of the year. And one he-goat for a sin offering unto the LORD; it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering thereof.
16 And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of 18 days shall unleavened bread be eaten. In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no

19 servile work: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire, a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven he-lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:
20 and their meal offering, fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts shall ye offer for a bullock, and 21 two tenth parts for the ram; a several tenth part shalt thou offer for every lamb of the seven lambs;
22 and one he-goat for a sin offering, to make atone-
23 ment for you. Ye shall offer these beside the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual 24 burnt offering. After this manner ye shall offer daily, for seven days, the [1]food of the offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD: it shall be offered beside the continual burnt offering, and 25 the drink offering thereof. And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.
26 Also in the day of the firstfruits, when ye offer a new meal offering unto the LORD in your feast of weeks, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall 27 do no servile work: but ye shall offer a burnt offering for a sweet savour unto the LORD; two young bullocks, one ram, seven he-lambs of the first year;
28 and their meal offering, fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for each bullock, two tenth parts
29 for the one ram, a several tenth part for every lamb
30 of the seven lambs; one he-goat, to make atone-

2 [b]If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or [c]swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not †break his word, he shall [d]do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth, not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand; and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all a husband, when †she vowed, or uttered aught out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

35 On the eighth day ye shall have a [1]solemn assem-

37 their meal offering and their drink offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the ordinance:

38 and one he-goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering thereof, and the drink offering thereof.

39 These ye shall offer unto the LORD in your set feasts, beside your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace

[Ch. xxx. 1 in Heb.]

30 And Mo'ses spake unto the heads of the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el, saying, This is the thing

2 which the LORD hath commanded. When a man voweth a vow unto the LORD, or sweareth an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not [2]break his word; he shall do according to all that pro-

3 ceedeth out of his mouth. Also when a woman voweth a vow unto the LORD, and bindeth herself by a bond, being in her father's house, in her youth;

4 and her father heareth her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father holdeth his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound

5 her soul shall stand. But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; none of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her

6 father disallowed her. And if she be married to a husband, while her vows are upon her, or the rash utterance of her lips, wherewith she hath bound her

7 soul; and her husband hear it, and hold his peace at her in the day that he heareth it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she hath

8 bound her soul shall stand. But if her husband disallow her in the day that he heareth it; then he shall make void her vow which is upon her, and the rash utterance of her lips, wherewith she hath bound her soul: and the LORD shall forgive her.

9 But the vow of a widow, or of her that is divorced, even every thing wherewith she hath bound her

10 soul, shall stand against her. And if she vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond

11 with an oath, and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith

12 she bound her soul shall stand. But if her husband made them null and void in the day that he heard them; then whatsoever proceedeth out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her.

[2] Heb. profane.

B. C. 1452.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.
14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.
15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.
16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Mo'ses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain.

AND the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 [a]Avenge the children of Is'ra-el of the Mid'i-an-ites: afterward shalt thou [b]be gathered unto thy people.
3 And Mo'ses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Mid'i-an-ites, and avenge the LORD of Mid'i-an.
4 †Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Is'ra-el, shall ye send to the war.
5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Is'ra-el, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war.
6 And Mo'ses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phin'e-has the son of E-le-a'zar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and [c]the trumpets to blow in his hand.
7 And they warred against the Mid'i-an-ites, as the LORD commanded Mo'ses; and [d]they slew all the [e]males.
8 And they slew the kings of Mid'i-an, besides the rest of them that were slain; namely, [f]E'vi, and Re'kem, and Zur, and Hur, and Re'ba, five kings of Mid'i-an: [g]Ba'laam also the son of Be'or they slew with the sword.
9 And the children of Is'ra-el took all the women of Mid'i-an captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods.
10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, with fire.
11 And [h]they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.
12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, unto the camp at the plains of Mo'ab, which are by Jor'dan near Jer'i-cho.
13 ¶And Mo'ses, and E-le-a'zar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.
14 And Mo'ses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the †battle.
15 And Mo'ses said unto them, Have ye saved [i]all the women alive?
16 Behold, [k]these caused the children of Is'ra-el, through the [l]counsel of Ba'laam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Pe'or, and [m]there was a plague among the congregation of the LORD.
17 Now therefore [n]kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with †him.
18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.
19 And [o]do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and [p]whosoever hath touched any slain, purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.
20 And purify all your raiment, and all †that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

13 Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may 14 make it void. But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he hath established them, because he held his peace at

31 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
2 Avenge the children of Is'ra-el of the Mid'i-an-ites: afterward shalt thou be gathered unto thy people.
3 And Mo'ses spake unto the people, saying, Arm ye men from among you for the war, that they may go against Mid'i-an, to execute the LORD'S vengeance on

5 the tribes of Is'ra-el, shall ye send to the war. So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Is'ra-el, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed 6 for war. And Mo'ses sent them, a thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phin'e-has the son of El-e-a'zar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the trumpets for the alarm in his 7 hand. And they warred against Mid'i-an, as the LORD commanded Mo'ses; and they slew every
8 male. And they slew the kings of Mid'i-an with the rest of their slain; E'vi, and Re'kem, and Zur, and Hur, and Re'ba, the five kings of Mid'i-an: Ba'laam also the son of Be'or they slew with the 9 sword. And the children of Is'ra-el took captive the women of Mid'i-an and their little ones; and all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they 10 took for a prey. And all their cities in the places wherein they dwelt, and all their encampments, they 11 burnt with fire. And they took all the spoil, and all
12 the prey, both of man and of beast. And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Mo'ses, and unto E-le-a'zar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Is'ra-el, unto the camp at the plains of Mo'ab, which are by the Jor'dan at Jer'i-cho.
13 And Mo'ses, and E-le-a'zar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet
14 them without the camp. And Mo'ses was wroth with the officers of the host, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, which came from the 15 service of the war. And Mo'ses said unto them,
16 Have ye saved all the women alive? Behold, these caused the children of Is'ra-el, through the counsel of Ba'laam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Pe'or, and so the plague was among 17 the congregation of the LORD. Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath known man by lying with him.
18 But all the women children, that have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.
19 And encamp ye without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and whosoever hath touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, ye and your 20 captives. And as to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood, ye shall purify yourselves.
21 And E-le-a'zar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the statute of the law which the LORD hath commanded Mo'ses:

B. C. 1452.

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead,
23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it shall be purified [q]with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.
24 [r]And ye shall wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.
25 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
26 Take the sum of the prey †that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and E-le-a'zar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation:
27 And [s]divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation:
28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: [t]one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:
29 Take it of their half, and give it unto E-le-a'zar the priest, for a heave offering of the LORD.
30 And of the children of Is'ra-el's half, thou shalt take [u]one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the beeves, of the asses, and of the ||flocks, of all manner of beasts, and give them unto the Le'vites, [x]which keep the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD.
31 And Mo'ses and E-le-a'zar the priest did as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.
32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,
33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,
34 And threescore and one thousand asses,
35 And thirty and two thousand persons in all, of women that had not known man by lying with him.
36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep:
37 And the LORD'S tribute of the sheep was six hundred and threescore and fifteen.
38 And the beeves were thirty and six thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute was threescore and twelve.
39 And the asses were thirty thousand and five hundred; of which the LORD'S tribute was threescore and one.
40 And the persons were sixteen thousand; of which the LORD'S tribute was thirty and two persons.
41 And Mo'ses gave the tribute, which was the LORD'S heave offering, unto E-le-a'zar the priest, [y]as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.
42 And of the children of Is'ra-el's half, which Mo'ses divided from the men that warred,
43 (Now the half that pertained unto the congregation was three hundred thousand and thirty thousand and seven thousand and five hundred sheep,
44 And thirty and six thousand beeves,
45 And thirty thousand asses and five hundred,
46 And sixteen thousand persons,)
47 Even [z]of the children of Is'ra-el's half, Mo'ses took one portion of fifty, both of man and of beast, and gave them unto the Le'vites, which kept the charge of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Mo'ses.
48 ¶And the officers which were over thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near unto Mo'ses:
49 And they said unto Mo'ses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war which are under our †charge, and there lacketh not one man of us.
50 We have therefore brought an oblation for the LORD, what every man hath †gotten, of jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and tablets, [a]to make an atonement for our souls before the LORD.

CHAPTER XXXII.

The Reubenites and Gadites sue for their inheritance—They conquer it.

NOW the children of Reu'ben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of cattle: and when they saw the land of [a] Ja'zer, and the land of Gil'e-ad, that, behold, the place was a place for cattle;
2 The children of Gad and the children of Reu'ben came and spake unto Mo'ses, and to E-le-a'zar the priest, and unto the princes of the congregation, saying,
3 At'a-roth, and Di'bon, and Ja'zer, and [b] Nim'rah, and Hesh'bon, and E-le-a'leh, and [c] She'bam, and Ne'bo, and [d] Be'on,
4 Even the country [e] which the LORD smote before the congregation of Is'ra-el, is a land for cattle, and thy servants have cattle:
5 Wherefore, said they, if we have found grace in thy sight, let this land be given unto thy servants for a possession, and bring us not over Jor'dan.
6 ¶ And Mo'ses said unto the children of Gad and to the children of Reu'ben, Shall your brethren go to war, and shall ye sit here?
7 And wherefore † discourage ye the heart of the children of Is'ra-el from going over into the land which the LORD hath given them?
8 Thus did your fathers, [f] when I sent them from Ka'desh-bar'ne-a [g] to see the land.
9 For [h] when they went up unto the valley of Esh'col, and saw the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Is'ra-el, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.
10 [i] And the LORD'S anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying,
11 Surely none of the men that came up out of E'gypt, [k] from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware unto A'bra-ham, unto I'saac, and unto Ja'cob; because [l] they have not † wholly followed me:
12 Save Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh the Ken'ez-ite, and Josh'u-a the son of Nun: [m] for they have wholly followed the LORD.
13 And the LORD'S anger was kindled against Is'ra-el, and he made them [n] wander in the wilderness forty years, until [o] all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.
14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the [p] fierce anger of the LORD toward Is'ra-el.
15 For if ye [q] turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.
16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:
17 But [r] we ourselves will go ready armed before the children of Is'ra-el, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabitants of the land.
18 [s] We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Is'ra-el have inherited every man his inheritance.
19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jor'dan, or forward; [t] because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jor'dan eastward.
20 ¶ And [u] Mo'ses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war,

31 And the children of Gad and the children of Reu'ben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so will we do.
32 We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Ca'naan, that the possession of our inheritance on this side Jor'dan may be ours.
33 And [f]Mo'ses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reu'ben, and unto half the tribe of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph, [g]the kingdom of Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, and the kingdom of Og king of Ba'shan, the land, with the cities thereof in the coasts, even the cities of the country round about.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Two and forty journeys of the Israelites.

THESE are the journeys of the children of Is'ra-el, which went forth out of the land of E'gypt with their armies under the hand of Mo'ses and Aa'ron.
2 And Mo'ses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.
3 And they [a]departed from Ra-me'ses in [b]the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the

21 and every armed man of you will pass over Jor'dan before the LORD, until he hath driven out his en-
22 emies from before him, and the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless towards the LORD, and towards Is'ra-el; and this land shall be unto you for a pos-
23 session before the LORD. But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and 24 be sure your sin will find you out. Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.
25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reu'ben spake unto Mo'ses, saying, Thy servants will do as 26 my lord commandeth. Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the 27 cities of Gil'e-ad: but thy servants will pass over, every man that is armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.
28 So Mo'ses gave charge concerning them to E-le-a'zar the priest, and to Josh'u-a the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the 29 children of Is'ra-el. And Mo'ses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reu'ben will pass with you over Jor'dan, every man that is armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the 30 land of Gil'e-ad for a possession: but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have posses-
31 sions among you in the land of Ca'naan. And the children of Gad and the children of Reu'ben answered, saying, As the LORD hath said unto thy servants, so 32 will we do. We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Ca'naan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond Jor'dan.
33 And Mo'ses gave unto them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reu'ben, and unto the half tribe of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph, the kingdom of Si'hon king of the Am'o-rites, and the kingdom of Og king of Ba'shan, the land, according to the cities thereof with their borders, even the cities
34 of the land round about. And the children of Gad
35 built Di'bon, and At'a-roth, and Ar'o-er; and At'roth-
36 sho'phan, and Ja'zer, and Jog'be-hah; and Beth-nim'rah, and Beth-ha'ran: fenced cities, and folds for sheep.
37 And the children of Reu'ben built Hesh'bon, and 38 E-le-a'leh, and Kir-i-a-tha'im; and Ne'bo, and Ba'al-me'on, (their names being changed,) and Sib'mah: and gave other names unto the cities which they builded.
39 And the children of Ma'chir the son of Ma-nas'seh went to Gil'e-ad, and took it, and dispossessed the 40 Am'o-rites which were therein. And Mo'ses gave Gil'e-ad unto Ma'chir the son of Ma'nas-seh; and he 41 dwelt therein. And Ja'ir the son of Ma-nas'seh went and took the towns thereof, and called them [1]Hav'-

8 And they departed from before Pi-ha-hi'roth, and [i]passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of E'tham, and pitched in Ma'rah.

9 And they removed from Ma'rah, and [k]came unto E'lim: and in E'lim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and ten palm trees; and they pitched there.

10 And they removed from E'lim, and encamped by the Red sea.

11 And they removed from the Red sea, and encamped in the [l]wilderness of Sin.

12 And they took their journey out of the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Doph'kah.

13 And they departed from Doph'kah, and encamped in A'lush.

14 And they removed from A'lush, and encamped at [m]Reph'i-dim, where was no water for the people to drink.

15 And they departed from Reph'i-dim, and pitched in the [n]wilderness of Si'nai.

13 And Mo'ses commanded the children of Is'ra-el, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the LORD hath commanded to give unto the 14 nine tribes, and to the half tribe: for the tribe of the

35 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses in the plains of 2 Mo'ab by the Jor'dan at Jer'i-cho, saying, Command vites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and [2]suburbs for the cities round about [2]Or, pasture lands

3 them shall ye give unto the Le'vites. And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and their suburbs shall be for their cattle, and for their substance, and for 4 all their beasts. And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Le'vites, shall be from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits 5 round about. And ye shall measure without the city for the east side two thousand cubits, and for the south side two thousand cubits, and for the west side two thousand cubits, and for the north side two thousand cubits, the city being in the midst.
This shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

B. C. 1451.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Le'vites there shall be [b]six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and †to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Le'vites shall be [c]forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be [d]of the possession of the children of Is'ra-el: [e]from them that have many ye shall give many; but from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Le'vites according to his inheritance which †he inheriteth.

9 ¶And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, [f]When ye be come over Jor'dan into the land of Ca'naan,

11 Then [g]ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person †at unawares.

12 [h]And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give, [i]six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 [k]Ye shall give three cities on this side Jor'dan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Ca'naan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Is'ra-el, and [l]for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them; that every one that killeth any person unawares may flee thither.

16 [m]And if he smite him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him †with throwing a stone, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with a hand weapon of wood, wherewith he may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 [n]The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But [o]if he thrust him of hatred, or hurl at him [p]by laying of wait, that he die;

21 Or in enmity smite him with his hand, that he die: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he thrust him suddenly [q]without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of wait,

23 Or with any stone, wherewith a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then [r]the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood according to these judgments:

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and [s]he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, [t]which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; †he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for [u]a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

B. C. 1451.

6 And the cities which ye shall give unto the Le'vites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which ye shall give for the manslayer to flee thither: and beside
7 them ye shall give forty and two cities. All the cities which ye shall give to the Le'vites shall be forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.
8 And concerning the cities which ye shall give of the possession of the children of Is'ra-el, from the many ye shall take many; and from the few ye shall take few: every one according to his inheritance which he inheriteth shall give of his cities unto the Le'vites.

9 And the LORD spake unto Mo'ses, saying,
10 Speak unto the children of Is'ra-el, and say unto them, When ye pass over Jor'dan into the land of 11 Ca'naan, then ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer which killeth 12 any person [1]unwittingly may flee thither. And the cities shall be unto you for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the 13 congregation for judgement. And the cities which ye shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge.
14 Ye shall give three cities beyond Jor'dan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Ca'naan; they 15 shall be cities of refuge. For the children of Is'ra-el, and for the stranger and for the sojourner among them, shall these six cities be for refuge: that every one that killeth any person [1]unwittingly may flee
16 thither. But if he smote him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a manslayer: the man-
17 slayer shall surely be put to death. And if he smote him with a stone in the hand, whereby a man may die, and he died, he is a manslayer: the manslayer
18 shall surely be put to death. Or if he smote him with a weapon of wood in the hand, whereby a man may die, and he died, he is a manslayer: the man-
19 slayer shall surely be put to death. The avenger of blood shall himself put the manslayer to death: when he meeteth him, he shall put him to death.
20 And if he thrust him of hatred, or hurled at him,
21 lying in wait, so that he died; or in enmity smote him with his hand, that he died: he that smote him shall surely be put to death; he is a manslayer: the avenger of blood shall put the manslayer to death,
22 when he meeteth him. But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or hurled upon him any thing
23 without lying in wait, or with any stone, whereby a man may die, seeing him not, and cast it upon him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither
24 sought his harm: then the congregation shall judge between the smiter and the avenger of blood accord-
25 ing to these judgements: and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall dwell therein until the death of the high
26 priest, which was anointed with the holy oil. But if the manslayer shall at any time go beyond the 27 border of his city of refuge, whither he fleeth; and the avenger of blood find him without the border of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood slay the manslayer; [2]he shall not be guilty of blood:
28 because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall 29 return into the land of his possession. And these things shall be for a statute of judgement unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

34 [a]Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for [b]I the LORD dwell among the children of Is'ra-el.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The daughters of Zelophehad marry their father's brothers' sons.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the [c]children of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, of the families of the sons of Jo'seph, came near, and spake before Mo'ses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Is'ra-el:

2 And they said, [b]The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Is'ra-el: and [c]my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Ze-lo'phe-had our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Is'ra-el, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe †whereunto they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when [d]the jubilee of the children of Is'ra-el shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Mo'ses commanded the children of Is'ra-el according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Jo'seph [e]hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had, saying, Let them †marry to whom they think best; [f]only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Is'ra-el remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Is'ra-el shall †[g]keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And [h]every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Is'ra-el, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Is'ra-el may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Mo'ses, so did the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had:

11 [i]For Mah'lah, Tir'zah, and Hog'lah, and Mil'cah, and No'ah, the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had, were married unto their father's brothers' sons:

12 And they were married †into the families of the sons of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Mo'ses, unto the children of Is'ra-el [k]in the plains of Mo'ab by Jordan near Jer'icho.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the manslayer shall be slain at the mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall 31 not testify against any person that he die. Moreover ye shall take no ransom for the life of a manslayer, which is guilty of death: but he shall surely be put 32 to death. And ye shall take no ransom for him that is fled to his city of refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the 33 priest. So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood, it polluteth the land: and no expiation can be made for the land for the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed
34 it. And thou shalt not defile the land which ye inhabit, in the midst of which I dwell: for I the LORD dwell in the midst of the children of Is'ra-el.

36 And the heads of the fathers' houses of the family of the children of Gil'e-ad, the son of Ma'chir, the son of Ma-nas'seh, of the families of the sons of Jo'seph, came near, and spake before Mo'ses, and before the princes, the heads of the fathers' houses of the chil-
2 dren of Is'ra-el: and they said, The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for inheritance by lot to the children of Is'ra-el: and my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Ze-
3 lo'phe-had our brother unto his daughters. And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Is'ra-el, then shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so shall it be taken
4 away from the lot of our inheritance. And when the jubile of the children of Is'ra-el shall be, then shall their inheritance be added unto the inheritance of the tribe whereunto they shall belong: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance
5 of the tribe of our fathers. And Mo'ses commanded the children of Is'ra-el according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Jo'seph
6 speaketh right. This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best; only to the family of the tribe of their father
7 shall they marry. So shall no inheritance of the children of Is'ra-el remove from tribe to tribe: for the children of Is'ra-el shall cleave every one to the 8 inheritance of the tribe of his fathers. And every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Is'ra-el, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Is'ra-el may possess every man the inheritance
9 of his fathers. So shall no inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; for the tribes of the children of Is'ra-el shall cleave every one to his own
10 inheritance. Even as the LORD commanded Mo'ses,
11 so did the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had: for Mah'lah, Tir'zah, and Hog'lah, and Mil'cah, and No'ah, the daughters of Ze-lo'phe-had, were married unto their 12 father's brothers' sons. They were married into the families of the sons of Ma-nas'seh the son of Jo'seph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.
13 These are the commandments and the judgements, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Mo'ses unto the children of Is'rael in the plains of Mo'ab by the Jor'dan at Jer'i-cho.

DEUTERONOMY.

CHAPTER I.

Moses' speech rehearsing the story of God's promise.

THESE be the words which Mo'ses spake unto all Is'ra-el [a]on this side Jor'dan in the wilderness, in the plain over against ‖ the Red sea, between Pa'ran, and To'phel, and La'ban, and Ha-ze'roth, and Diz'a-hab.

2 (There are eleven days' journey from Ho'reb by the way of mount Se'ir [b]unto Ka'desh-bar'ne-a.)

3 And it came to pass [c]in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Mo'ses spake unto the children of Is'ra-el, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto them;

4 [d]After he had slain Si'hon the king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt in Hesh'bon, and Og the king of Ba'shan, which dwelt at As'ta-roth [e]in E'dre-i:

5 On this side Jor'dan, in the land of Mo'ab, began Mo'ses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us [f]in Ho'reb, saying, Ye have dwelt long [g]enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Am'o-rites, and unto †all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and unto Leb'a-non, unto the great river, the river Eu-phra'tes.

8 Behold, I have †set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, [h]A'bra-ham, I'saac, and Ja'cob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶And [i]I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, [k]ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 ([l]The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, [m]as he hath promised you!)

12 [n]How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 [o]†Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, [p]and †made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and [q]judge righteously between every man and his [r]brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 [s]Ye shall not †respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for [t]the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, [u]bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES,

COMMONLY CALLED

DEUTERONOMY.

1 These be the words which Mo'ses spake unto all Is'ra-el beyond Jor'dan in the wilderness, in the [1]Ar'a-bah over against [2]Suph, between Pa'ran, and To'phel, and La'ban, and Ha-ze'roth, and Diz'a-hab.
2 It is eleven days' journey from Ho'reb by the way
3 of mount Se'ir unto Ka'desh-bar'ne-a. And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Mo'ses spake unto the children of Is'ra-el, according unto all that the LORD had given him in commandment unto
4 them; after he had smitten Si'hon the king of the Am'o-rites, which dwelt in Hesh'bon, and Og the king of Ba'shan, which dwelt in Ash'ta-roth, at E'dre-i:
5 beyond Jor'dan, in the land of Mo'ab, began Mo'ses
6 to declare this law, saying, The LORD our God spake unto us in Ho'reb, saying, Ye have dwelt long
7 enough in this mountain: turn you, and take your journey, and go to the hill country of the Am'o-rites, and unto all the places nigh thereunto, in the Ar'a-bah, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the South, and by the sea shore, the land of the Ca'naan-ites, and Leb'a-non, as far as the great river,
8 the river Eu-phra'tes. Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, to A'bra-ham, to I'saac, and to Ja'cob, to give unto them and to their
9 seed after them. And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself
10 alone: the LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven
11 for multitude. The LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times so many more as ye 12 are, and bless you, as he hath promised you! How can I myself alone bear your cumbrance, and your 13 burden, and your strife? Take you wise men, and understanding, and known, according to your tribes,
14 and I will make them heads over you. And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast
15 spoken is good for us to do. So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your 16 tribes. And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother,
17 and the stranger that is with him. Ye shall not respect persons in judgement; ye shall hear the small and the great alike; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgement is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you ye shall bring 18 unto me, and I will hear it. And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.
19 And we journeyed from Ho'reb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which ye saw,

[1] That is, the deep valley running North and South of the Dead Sea.
[2] Some ancient versions have, the Red Sea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Am'o-rites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; [q]fear not, neither be discouraged.

[q] Josh. 1. 9.

28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have †discouraged our heart, saying, [f]The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the [g]An'a-kim there.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, [c]Go not up,

[c] Num. 14. 42.

by the way to the hill country of the Am'o-rites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came 20 to Ka'desh-bar'nea. And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the hill country of the Am'o-rites, which 21 the LORD our God giveth unto us. Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of thy fathers, hath spoken unto thee; fear not, neither be 22 dismayed. And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the 23 cities unto which we shall come. And the thing pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, 24 one man for every tribe: and they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of 25 Esh'col, and spied it out. And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God giveth unto 26 us. Yet ye would not go up, but rebelled against 27 the commandment of the LORD your God: and ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of E'gypt, to deliver us into the hand of the 28 Am'o-rites, to destroy us. Whither are we going up? our brethren have made our heart to melt, saying, The people is greater and taller than we;
the cities are great and fenced up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the An'a-kim 29 there. Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither 30 be afraid of them. The LORD your God who goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all 31 that he did for you in E'gypt before your eyes; and in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God bare thee, as a man doth bare his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came 32 unto this place. Yet [1]in this thing ye did not be-33 lieve the LORD your God, who went before you in the way, to seek you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye 34 should go, and in the cloud by day. And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and 35 sware, saying, Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see the good land, which 36 I sware to give unto your fathers, save Ca'leb the son of Je-phun'neh, he shall see it; and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children: because he hath wholly followed the 37 LORD. Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither:
38 Josh'u-a the son of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: encourage thou him; for he 39 shall cause Is'ra-el to inherit it. Moreover your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will 40 I give it, and they shall possess it. But as for you, turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness 41 by the way to the Red Sea. Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And ye girded on every man his weapons of war, and [2]were 42 forward to go up into the mountain. And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and †[d]went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Am'o-rites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, [e]as bees do, and destroyed you in Se'ir, even unto Hor'mah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 [f]So ye abode in Ka'desh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER II.

The children of Israel not to meddle with the Edomites, Moabites, etc.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, [a]as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Se'ir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain [b]long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, [c]Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of E'sau, which dwell in Se'ir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

5 Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, †no, not so much as a footbreadth; [d]because I have given mount Se'ir unto E'sau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: [e]these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 [f]And when we passed by from our brethren the children of E'sau, which dwelt in Se'ir, through the way of the plain from [g]E'lath, and from E'zi-on-ga'ber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Mo'ab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, ‖Distress not the Mo'ab-ites, neither contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given [h]Ar unto [i]the children of Lot for a possession.

10 [k]The E'mim dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as [l]the An'a-kim;

11 Which also were accounted giants, as the An'a-kim; but the Mo'ab-ites called them E'mim.

12 [m]The Ho'rim also dwelt in Se'ir beforetime; but the children of E'sau †succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their ‖stead; as Is'ra-el did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, said I, and get you over [n]the ‖brook Ze'red. And we went over the brook Ze'red.
